FESS FRETS FOR FRAY

He'll Back Every G.O.P. Nominee

[illegible] Party Chief Says He's Going to "Run the Show" in Nation-wide Drive

[illegible] Insurgents Who Obtain Republican Nominations to Receive Active Help

BY LAWRENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (Exclusive)—Senator Simeon D. Fess [illegible] today that he intends [illegible] the active ruling chairman of [illegible] Republican National Committee and no mere figurehead. His [illegible] along that line rather upset the plans of party leaders last [illegible] when the executive group met [illegible] the national committee. At that time Fess refused [illegible] what was intended to be a [illegible] and temporary selection as [illegible] and forced his permanent [illegible], at the same time letting it be understood that he would [illegible] into the background to [illegible] Robert H. Lucas of Kentucky [illegible] the show.

[illegible] before leaving the capital [illegible] vacation sail through the Great Lakes, Senator Fess called on President Hoover to discuss party [illegible]. Following the conference [illegible] with the correspondents. [illegible] frankly and emphatically. [illegible] amazed that anyone should [illegible] that he would occupy [illegible] other than that of the [illegible] directing head of [illegible] national committee. He relegated Mr. Lucas to the position of [illegible] to carry out his orders. [illegible] Lucas will be given a handsome [illegible], probably $25,000, but he will [illegible] the authority of the chairman. That is Senator Fess's opinion and he stated it with great emphasis.

CHIEF AIM OUTLINED

[illegible], the most significant [illegible] the Senator-chairman [illegible] that the business of the Republican National Committee is to [illegible] Republican nominees, and that [illegible] his direction it will set to [illegible] to elect them regardless of [illegible] distinctions." All Republican nominees for Senate and [illegible] this fall, he declared, will [illegible] the unstinted support of the national committee, through its cooperation with the Republican Senatorial and Congressional committees.

[illegible]—for Fess in no wise [illegible] his declaration—that under [illegible] leadership the parent Republican national organization will support any insurgents who may pull [illegible] regular party opponents in their States and capture Republican nominations.

The policy thus announced was [illegible] in connection with the [illegible] contest of Senator Norris [illegible], leader of the anti-[illegible] Republican independents in the Senate. Norris is being fought bitterly by all the

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, Aug. 11—[To the Editor of The Times:] Tomorrow is another primary day. In the old days when Senators were Senators, why the State legislatures picked out the ones that were to run. Now they pick themselves. You put an ad in the papers saying "you believe that you are needed." Maybe it's an original idea with you, but there is no way of keeping you from running. There is no qualification outside of an intention necessary. And, by the way, we lost a mighty good ex-Senator out here this week, James Phelan, a philanthropist, a scholar, a patron of the arts and a gentleman, and with these qualifications naturally a Democrat. A fine fellow was Jimmy.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PILOTS NEAR AIR RECORD OF HUNTERS

St. Louis Pair Expect to Pass Old Endurance Mark Tomorrow Morning

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12. (AP)—Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine were counting off the hours early today as they came nearer and nearer the 554-hour endurance flight mark held by the Hunter brothers of Sparta, Ill.

First it was weeks, then days, and now it is only a matter of hours until the record taken to Chicago from St. Louis may be back here again. If the Greater St. Louis plane still is in the air at 9:52 a.m., (Central standard time) Wednesday, Jackson and O'Brine will have exceeded the Hunter brothers' mark by one hour, as required under rules governing endurance flights.

If the St. Louis airmen establish a new endurance record it probably will be witnessed by the flyers who are losing it, for the Hunter brothers arrived at Lambert-St. Louis Field Monday and expect to remain several days. The Jackson-O'Brine flight has cost the Hunter brothers $100,000 in potential contracts, their manager, Harry Perkins, said, but they do not contemplate another endurance attempt.

The Greater St. Louis plane had been aloft 523 hours at 2:11 a.m.

"The engine is running fine," O'Brine said over the radio. "We are having a lot of fun out of this flight. Just two more days and we will be sailing down hill."

CHINA REDS BEHEADED

Streets Setting for Executions

Hankow Commander Acts; Others Expected to Pay Supreme Penalty

Los Angeles Missionary's Letter Tells of Murder of Thousands

SHANGHAI, Aug. 11. (Exclusive) The Hankow garrison commander today executed twenty-three Communists who were arrested in a round-up of Reds in the Wuhan area. To discourage possible Red uprisings sixteen of the Communists were beheaded in the street. The others were shot.

A total of thirty-seven Chinese Communists have been beheaded in a week, three of them being women. In addition 100 are in jail awaiting examination. It is believed further executions are likely. Among those arrested were eighty-three Chinese students at the government school who were assertedly holding a secret Communist meeting.

BRITONS AT HANKOW

The 200 British troops dispatched from Shanghai last Friday arrived at Hankow today for the purpose of protecting British residents and properties.

While the Chinese government claims that Hankow is in no danger from a Communist attack, the foreign consular authorities request further naval reinforcements.

Japanese reports from Changsha this afternoon state that, although the Chinese military has arrested and locked up more than 1000 suspected Communists, the situation remains precarious and the town is in a panic. There are reports of large Communist forces operating a few miles away.

Japanese residents, who had returned to Changsha in order to repair their damaged homes and business houses, again have taken refuge aboard a Japanese gunboat due to a fear of further Communist uprisings.

The Nationalist government tonight, in a 3000-word statement on Wang Ching-wei's proposed opposition government at Peiping, declares that Wang is using the name of the Kuomintang as a means of advancing his personal interests and that the proposed Peiping government consists of militarists and disgruntled politicians.

ORGY OF SLAYING DESCRIBED IN LETTER

Murder of 87,000 persons by Reds in Kiangsi Province, China, since July 31, 1929, is told by Miss Mary E. Moorman, Los Angeles missionary to Yongchow, in a letter just received by Phillip Sidersky, evangelist in Los Angeles.

"This land has become a veritable jungle of wild beasts preying upon each other," she writes, adding that in addition to the orgy of murder, great numbers were carried away as captives to perish miserably.

"More than 37,000 houses were burned, with $214,000,000 loss," the letter continues. "In the famine districts, because of the fearful cold and inadequate food and raiment, dogs grew fat on the unburied dead. In April, in Honan, the Red bandits destroyed by fire 500 villages, which burned for four days.

"Fifteen hundred were slain there, 10,000 homes were destroyed, besides which captives untold in number were carried away for ransom.

"One merchant near Hankow had the heads of his wife and child sent to him because he was a little slow in acceding to their demands. China is fast becoming another Russia."

But while Yongchow itself was peaceful at the time Miss Moorman wrote the letter, conditions throughout much the rest of China were anything but reassuring, she says.

"Brigandage, floods, famine, civil war, crushing taxation and forced loans are only a few of the disabilities under which the Chinese are laboring," her letter goes on. "And all owing to the 'cultural invasion' of soviet Russa on the minds of half-baked youths."

CAMERON SAFE, GUNBOAT REPORTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP) — A message to the State Department today from the United States gunboat Palos, off Changsha, said Rev. Allen Cameron of Lawrence, Kan., is safe.

After the Communist raid on Changsha, Cameron was reported alternately safe and in grave danger.

Hero Feared Dead in Fall

BIG CREEK (Cal.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Fred Ringwald, a Southern California Edison Company operator at Big Creek, is believed to be either dead or lying badly injured in a canyon in rugged country three-quarters of a mile above Big Creek. In a heroic attempt to save his companion, Miss Aveline Herron, Ringwald went over a seventy-foot embankment and fell to rocks below.

A crew of fifteen men with lanterns is searching for the body tonight, but little hope is held of finding Ringwald before morning.

MAYOR WALKER FACES QUIZ

He and ex-Tammany Chief Olvany Called Before Grand Jury in Ewald Magistracy Scandal

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (Exclusive)—Mayor Walker was served with a subpoena today to appear before a county grand jury Wednesday and testify in the investigation of charges that a city magistracy was sold for $12,000 by Tammany officials.

At the same time the Mayor and George W. Olvany, former leader of Tammany Hall, were "invited" to call on Dist.-Atty. Crain tomorrow for a preliminary discussion of what they had to do with the elevation of George F. Ewald to the magistracy along about the time Mrs. Bertha Ewald lent Martin J. Healy $10,000 as a "nest egg" for a Long Island home. Ewald's secretary also will be questioned.

HE TALKS FREELY

With these invitations already accepted and several others off his mind, Mr. Crain devoted the afternoon to questioning Mr. Healy concerning the much-talked-of $10,000.

The Tammany district leader, according to Mr. Crain, talked freely of the financial transaction. He admitted obtaining the loan and termed it a "strange coincidence" that it came just about the time Ewald was made magistrate. Mr. Healy, however, told the prosecutor he would have to consult his lawyer before he could decide whether to waive immunity and appear before the grand jury, but late today Healy advised Mr. Crain he will testify.

Dist.-Atty. Crain said he asked Healy if he had any conversation with Mayor Walker or with Mr. Olvany respecting the appointment of Ewald to be a magistrate and Healy replied he had never talked with any person about the appointment except Ewald himself. Healy said Ewald had told him he would appreciate any assistance he could give in helping him get the post.

OTHERS CALLED

Mr. Crain said Healy declared "there is absolutely no connection between the receipts of the money and Ewald's appointment."

Among those subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury Wednesday in addition to Mayor Walker are Thomas Tommaney, Mrs. Bertha Eckert Ewald, her father, Peter Eckert; John J. Meyer and Irving Isaacs. Mr. Crain will decide tomorrow after he hears Olvany whether to call him before the jury.

In his letter to Mayor Walker and Mr. Olvany, Mr. Crain outlined the information he wants from them. He said he wants to know when they first met Ewald, by whom the one-time magistrate was introduced and under what circumstances. Particularly, Mr. Crain said he would like to know of any conferences Olvany and Walker had with Healy or anyone else regarding the appointment.

ONE KILLED BY HEAT IN NORTHWEST

New High Record of Year Set as Temperature Goes as High as 102 Deg.

SEATTLE, Aug. 11. (AP)—One death was attributed to the heat in the Pacific Northwest today as temperatures mounted in some instances, to new high records for the year.

The death reported was that of Charles Bray, 48 years of age, an automobile salesman, who collapsed while sitting in an automobile at Shelton, Wash., talking to friends. The temperature was 90 deg. Western Washington generally experienced high temperatures, a new record for the year of 85 deg. being recorded at Seattle.

Yakima, in Eastern Washington, reported 102 above, a record for the year, while Walla Walla reported 100 deg., with high humidity adding to the oppressiveness of the heat. At Spokane the temperature was 96 and at Lewiston, Idaho, 102 deg.

PORTLAND HOTTEST IT'S BEEN THIS YEAR

PORTLAND (Or.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Portland today experienced the hottest day of 1930 when the temperature reached 95 deg. at 3 p.m. The previous high mark was 94 on June 15.

TRUCKEE, CAL., HAS HEAVY HAILSTORM

TRUCKEE, Aug. 11. (AP)—A sudden hailstorm burst upon this mountain community today. The ground was covered an inch deep by the hailstones. The fall is declared the heaviest in twenty years.

Sikorsky Pilot Eclipses Own Altitude Mark

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—Borus Sergievskky, chief test pilot for the Sikorsky Aviation Corporation, broke his own altitude record today for seaplanes carrying a useful load of 2000 kilograms, when he drove his twin-motored S-38 to an indicated height of 21,000 feet.

His sealed barograph was forwarded to Washington for calibration. The altitude attempt was made over Long Island Sound off Bridgeport, Ct. The old record of 19,065 feet was set March 5, last, by Sergievskky over the East River.

BABY GOLF VALUE NOW $125,000,000

United States Discovered to Have 25,000 of Them Buying Lots of Goods

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—These baby golf courses sprouting around the United States now number 25,000 and represent the incredible value of $125,000,000 in investment.

This is the estimate compiled by the Commerce Department, which finds 15,000 of them have sprung into existence since last January.

Primarily the government's commercial sharps have been investigating the subject by reason of the demand the miniature golf establishments are creating for materials of various kinds, all during a period when demand for substances is a matter of general concern. The courses promise to consume in the aggregate very respectable quantities of cotton, through their use of duck and canvas for inclosures. They use also the products of a dozen industries.

State Prison in New Hampshire Invaded by Golf

CONCORD (N. H.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Golf has invaded the New Hampshire State prison, it was learned today. Levin J. Chase, secretary of the board of prison trustees, revealed he has received a letter from an inmate asking for "second-hand clubs, both right and left-handed," and also "any old hole cups."

Golf is a welcome addition to prison activities, as far as Warden Clarke is concerned. A number of the inmates, he said, are taking up the game.

'Chute Jumper Claims Record for High Leap

COLORADO SPRINGS (Colo.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Jimmy Donohue, veteran parachute jumper, believes he set a new altitude record for parachute leaps today. O. M. Mosier, pilot of the plane from which the leap was made, said his altimeter broke at 25,000 feet and he estimated he climbed 3000 feet more before Donohue went over the side.

A sealed barograph was carried and will be sent to Washington for calibration.

The present record, held by an army flyer, is 26,000 feet, Donohue said.

How's Fortune Left in Trust

CINCINNATI, Aug. 11. (AP)—The will of James Eads How, millionaire hobo, drawn here ten days before he died last month at Staunton, Va., was filed today in probate court by his attorney, Nicholas Klein.

No estimate is made of the wealth left but Klein indicated the amount was in six figures. All except a comparatively slight sum was left in trust to be used for the workers of the world.

KENTUCKY MINES BOMBED BY SWOOPING AIRPLANE

Dynamite Blasts Spread Terror; Citizens Arm to Repel Attacks; Strike Troubles Blamed

PROVIDENCE (Ky.) Aug. 11. (AP)—A series of disorders in the Webster county coal fields culminated today in the bombing of mine properties from an airplane. The mines were reopened July 1 after a three months' shutdown because of strikes over wages and working conditions.

Nine bombs were dropped from an orange-colored plane, believed to have carried two men, which flew over the town this morning as miners were going to work. Four bombs failed to explode. The five that did explode injured no one and damaged no property, but tore large holes in the ground. The bomber was described as a monoplane.

Taken by surprise by the sudden air attack, Providence and Webster county were thrown into a state of intense excitement. Only one of the twenty-five or thirty guards employed by the mines in the county had presence of mind to fire at the plane. He shot twice but without effect. The bomber departed in the direction of Illinois, whence it came.

MASS MEETING CALLED

Webster county officials had requested Gov. Sampson to send National Guardsmen here on three occasions after homes had been dynamited and miners shot from ambush. The Governor replied he felt local authorities could handle the situation.

C. L. Walker, County Attorney of Webster county, said Gov. Sampson was not asked today to send troops, his previous refusals having discouraged officials' hopes of any help from that quarter.

A mass meeting was called here to raise a fund for a reward for the arrest of the occupants of the plane. Plans to resist another air attack include issuance of extra ammunition to the regular mine guards and augmenting of the guards.

Citizens of Providence said they will permit no one at the meeting who is known to have fomented trouble at the mines. About 75 per cent of the miners returned to work when the mines reopened July 1, and the remaining 25 per cent have been attempting to persuade the workers to lay down their tools again. Nineteen striking miners are under indictment here for banding and confederating to intimidate working miners. Seventeen have been apprehended and are out on bond.

DYNAMITE BOMBS

The bombing-plane appeared from the direction of Harrisburg, Ill., about 6 a.m. It dropped the first missile at an abandoned mine near Clay, a few miles north of here. It exploded with a detonation heard for miles. The plane was flying at an altitude of 2000 feet.

The plane then dived toward the city and dropped two more bombs near the outskirts. They had the same effect as the first one. After circling the town, the plane dived at the entrance of the Ruckman mine, and dropped another bomb, which failed to explode. A guard fired two shots at the plane, which then was at an altitude of 600 feet, but with no visible effect.

The plane started climbing at the edge of the city, and five more bombs were dropped, only two of which exploded. They fell near the mines of the Meador, Young & Holt Coal Company and the Diamond Coal Mining Company. The plane then flew off in the direction of Harrisburg.

Examination of the dud bombs revealed that they were made of dynamite wrapped with tape, with fuses attached.

FEDERAL AGENCIES LAUNCH INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—Agencies of the Federal government's service for regular civil aeronautics undertook today their first official attempt to penalize the use of an airplane for an interstate criminal purpose.

The reports conveyed to Clarence M. Young, assistant Secretary of Commerce, concerning an orange-colored monoplane which dropped bombs on coal mines near Providence and Clay City, Ky., where a miners' strike has been in progress, presented the incident.

The first endeavor of the government agencies was to search the airplane registration list to deter-

FOE FOUGHT IN THEORY

Defense Planned for Southland

"Reserve Officers Busy in Holding "Invaders" to Palo Alto Line

Angelenos in Command on Principal Problems at Training Camp

BY HARRY CARR

MONTEREY, Aug. 11. (Exclusive) The military defense of Southern California from a foreign foe began today at the camp of the reserve officers at Monterey. Many of those in high command and intrusted with great responsibilities are business men of Los Angeles who hold commissions in the reserve.

It is assumed that a foreign invader has licked the Navy and has landed troops in Northern California. He has captured San Francisco, and holds the entire coast line from San Francisco to the Canadian border.

INVASION CHECKED

The troops of the United States have checked the invasion, and hold a line of defense running east and west of Palo Alto. All the supplies of our troops are coming north from Los Angeles over the Southern Pacific. To cut this line of supply, the enemy is about to land soldiers and sailors at Monterey Bay and strike east to cut the railroad near Salinas.

The problem, as it relates to the reserve officers now at work at the Del Monte camp, concerns the Ninety-first Division, the California division to which all our reserve officers belong. This division has been in the fighting during the last few weeks and has now been withdrawn to the reserves near San Jose.

Orders have been issued for this division to march, either late tonight or at daybreak tomorrow, to the relief of Monterey and oppose the landing of the enemy.

Every technical detail is being worked out and all orders issued exactly as though there were actual troops to march.

The movement is under direction of Col. Frank S. Bowen, chief-of-staff of the Ninety-first Division, Regular Army; Lieut.-Col. A. B. Dockery of the Army is supervising the reserve officers' work and Maj. Robert O. Rogers of the Army is the training officer.

ANGELENOS IN CHARGE

G-2 is in charge of Lieut.-Col. Albert Walter Roche of Los Angeles. His work relates to military information, spy service, etc.

G-3, in charge of Lieut.-Col. Nelson Carroll of Los Angeles. That relates to plans and training.

G-4, Lieut.-Col. George Hanson Chase of Los Angeles, supplies.

Other Los Angeles officers in high positions are:

Lieut.-Col. Andrew J. Copp, attached to the division staff as judge advocate and Col. Oliver Chandler Wyman, attached to the staff.

UTAH FLOODS DESTRUCTIVE

Damage at Bingham Estimated to be $500,000; One Youth Reported Missing

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 11. (AP)—Floods that rushed down the canyon bordering the Salt Lake Valley today destroyed several homes, filled others with mud and debris, blocked highways and may have caused one death.

The worst damage was at Bingham, picturesque mining town built along a narrow canyon below the mine of the Utah Copper Company, largest open-pit copper mine in the world. Here the damage was estimated at the Sheriff's office at $500,000.

More than a score of houses in the mining town were demolished and a dozen families had narrow escapes from death when a copper dump of more than 50,000 tons became saturated with rain and swept into Markham's Gulch, tributary of Bingham Canyon, two blocks from the residential section.

At Centerville, north of this city on the Salt Lake-Oregon highway, a wall of water swept out of a near-by canyon, washing away houses and flooding others.

The home of David Smith was destroyed by the flood and a son of the family is reported missing. It is feared he is drowned.

Three persons hunting for possible victims of the flood had narrow escapes at Centerville where the live-stock, hay and farm equipment were carried away.

At Farmington, also on the Salt Lake-Ogden highway, three feet of water flowed across the road for some time, shutting off travel at three places and flooding farms and homes. In Parley's Canyon, east of this city, the main highway between here and Denver was blocked in three spots by a flood of rocks and water and telephone wires were carried away.

At Bingham the operating-room and one ward of the Utah Copper Company Hospital and the jail were among the structures flooded, and pavements were damaged. The highway at the mouth of Bingham Canyon was covered with debris to a depth of one to thirty feet in spots.

So far as known there were no injuries and no loss of life in Bingham, where in February, 1926, thirty-seven persons were killed in a snowslide.

LEAVITT KILLS PARTNER AND COMMITS SUICIDE

State Automobile Circles Shocked by Tragedy Attributed to Financial Difficulties

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11. (Exclusive)—J. W. Leavitt, 62 years of age, president of the automobile company bearing his name in this city and Los Angeles, shot and killed his first vice-president and life-long friend, A. D. Plughoff, today, while the two were conferring. Leavitt then drove to his home in the fashionable Sea Cliff district, chatted amiably with his wife for several minutes, retired to the room of one of his sons and killed himself with the same weapon. Tonight the motive for the double tragedy remains questionable to police, but they believe it is based on business reverses.

The Leavitt Company has been involved in financial difficulties for some time, police reported. The shooting occurred as creditors of the company were discussing the situation in the law office of Sloss & Ackerman, and only an hour before Plughoff was to have started for Los Angeles with George W. Schleicher to help straighten out the affairs of the company's branch in that city.

LONG-TIME PARTNERS

Police are inclined to give greatest weight to the theory Leavitt and Plughoff became involved in a wrangle over financial affairs, intensified by the fact that Plughoff recently had accepted an offer to leave the company for a $75,000-a-year executive position in the East with an international motor company.

Plughoff had been a protege of Leavitt's since the former was 15 years of age. They entered business together, dealing in bicycles, and had remained in association with each other through successive years, finally reaching the point where they controlled an organization doing business in the millions annually. Leavitt, it was learned by investigators, had been considerably upset by the knowledge that Plughoff was to leave.

From knowledge gained police reconstructed the scene as one of amazing calm. They believe Leavitt and Plughoff were discussing their affairs and that Leavitt suddenly pulled the weapon from his pocket and shot. Plughoff was shot behind the left ear and death was said to have been instantaneous. That the shooting was premeditated was said to have been proved by the fact Leavitt borrowed the weapon from a married daughter last Saturday, saying he wished it to use on a squirrel hunting trip.

NOTE EXPRESSES SORROW

Leavitt walked calmly from the room after the shooting and remarked to salesmen and other employees as he passed them on the way out:

"Quiet morning."

When police arrived they discovered a note on the table alongside Plughoff's body, reading:

"Sorry to do this.

(Signed) "J. W. LEAVITT."

"This will provide for his family."

The postcript is believed to have referred to Plughoff's insurance, amounting, police reported, to about $50,000.

Leavitt drove from the salesroom on Van Ness avenue, San Francisco's automobile row, to his Sea Cliff home, where he sat down for several minutes and talked to his wife. He did not mention what had occurred and his wife subsequently reported he seemed quite normal.

WAITS FOR POLICE

After the conversation, Leavitt went to a bedroom, removed his shirt and waited until the police homicide car was driving up to the house. Then he fired a bullet into his own brain.

He was the father of six children, one of whom, Helen, 18 years of age, dashed down the steps of the house crying: "Dad has shot himself," just as the detectives started to mount the same steps.

Members of the family did not know of the shooting of Plughoff until after the detectives reached the home. Mrs. Leavitt immediately fainted. When Mrs. Plughoff learned of the death of her husband, she became hysterical and a physician had to be called.

LAST PROP GONE

Milton Newmark, Leavitt's attorney, agreed with the police conception of the motive. He said Leavitt had reached the point where he was unable to finance the handling of automobiles any more and, at the age of 62, faced the immediate prospect of "looking for a job." When he learned Plughoff intended to leave, Newmark believes he decided the last prop, both of business and friendship, had been pulled out from under him.

Attorney Newmark said Leavitt had told him he wanted to turn over everything he had for the benefit of creditors, including his life insurance. He had gone so far as to surrender stock in a Los Angeles hotel, a Southern California cemetery association and various other projects in which he was interested, Newmark said.

"He was proud of his reputation and his integrity," Newmark declared, "and the idea of facing bankruptcy was disgraceful to him. Prospects were good for him to come out of his financial entanglements without going through bankruptcy, but he was faced with the necessity of getting a job."

LOCAL AUTO CIRCLES SHOCKED BY TRAGEDY

Los Angeles motor dealers were shocked almost beyond expression yesterday by news of John W. Leavitt's suicide and his slaying of Albert Plughoff. For fourteen years they had operated a foremost automobile distributing agency in Los Angeles and were known as progressive business men of character. They were active in the Motor Car Dealers' Association. Plughoff was a member of the Los Angeles Athletic Club. He and his family frequently were here.

Leavitt was less socially inclined but was well known in business circles. Their agency, 1058 South Hope street, was closed only ten days ago when financial troubles overtook the company headquarters in San Francisco.

It was in 1906 that J. W. Leavitt & Co. of San Francisco established a branch office here as a distributor for the Oldsmobile. Later it became State distributor for other makes of automobile. More than 125 persons were employed locally and the branch's personnel under Clair R. Savage, for fifteen years with the company, had grown to rank high in Los Angeles automobile circles.

Mr. Leavitt came here frequently in connection with the business but on his trips confined himself mostly to office visits, returning at once to San Francisco when he had transacted his affairs, local associates said. Plughoff as general manager was here nearly every week and occasionally was accompanied by Mrs. Plughoff. He was highly regarded in Athletic Club circles as a gentleman.

BOMBS HURLED FROM AIRPLANE

mine whether the numbers attached to the airplane, which were variously reported by different observers, might correspond with those on any of the licenses regularly issued to aircraft.

The prospects of this inquiry were not rated very bright by Mr. Young or his assistants, on the ground that the pilot of a plane engaged on an unlawful bomb-dropping mission would disguise the machine license number as quickly as would a bank bandit dealing with the tags on an automobile used for criminal purposes.

The assistant Secretary added the operators of the plane indulging in the Kentucky exploit violated several sections of the Federal statutes regulating aeronautics. These he listed as transporting explosives without special license; deliberately dropping dangerous objects from aircraft, and, presumably, tampering with the license labels.

ANOTHER ANGLE

Orders were issued for a check by the continental inspectors on the recent movements of several suspected planes, though it was deemed inadvisable to disclose all the details of the action, Mr. Young ordered.

He added that since the institution of the government's aircraft-control system in 1927 there have been one or two reports of the criminal use of airplanes, but that nothing of sufficient importance had developed seriously to engage the punitive action of the government inspection force.

The pilots hitherto arraigned all have been guilty of no more than infraction of the various details of the air-traffic code, and today's is the first charge implying deliberate use of a plane to damage persons or property with felonious intent.

FESS TO BACK ALL NOMINEES

regular leaders in his State and former Gov. McKelvie, a member of the Federal Farm Board, has been quoted as saying that he will not support Norris in event the latter is nominated, as he probably will be in the voting tomorrow. This latter fact was recited to Senator Fess.

"Oh, that is a purely local matter," he replied.

ATTACKS OVERLOOKED

Norris's status as leader of the Republican insurgents has for many years subjected his Republican standing to sharp scrutiny especially since he bolted the Hoover ticket in 1928, but Senator Fess does not appear to think the question should be raised provided the veteran Nebraska Senator wins renomination as a Republican. Hence it follows that if Norris stands to get the indorsement and support of the Republican national chairman the same leadership cannot do other than bestow like blessing on all the other insurgents who for their own purposes run as Republicans only to throw all the monkey wrenches they can once they are elected and on the job in Washington.

This is a complete surrender to the insurgent group, a blind policy of trying to elect any candidate who masquerades under the party banner, and the resentment accumulating against a man like Norris because of years of flagrant opposition to Republican administrative programs is called at election time merely a "local matter." Under such a policy men such as Norris, Blaine and Brookhart will be elected time after time to prevent marring the record of the campaign committee only to return to the Senate and House and continue their efforts to destroy the party program.

VIGOROUS PROGRAM

Political observers realize, however, in extenuation of Mr. Fess's statement that he could not very well take a position publicly other than that he outlined today whether he really believes in it and intends to work at it or not.

The Senator said he will return to Washington within ten days to "start a vigorous campaign with very active, every-day operation." He said the research department of the national committee will be reorganized and enlarged and he confirmed previous announcements that the finances of the approaching off-year campaign will be handled under the eagle eye of National Treasurer Nutt instead of being intrusted to the Senatorial and Congressional committees, as in the past.

Except for the statement that he will be the national chairman in fact as well as in name, Fess was somewhat indefinite regarding his personal activities. He will move about the country to view the situation, but will do no barnstorming. He indicated he will leave the oratory to others.

DETAILED WORK

With regard to the detailed work of the campaign, he was more specific. He did not mention Mr. Lucas, who will be known as the executive director, but indicated clearly that it will be Lucas's duty to handle the "details" of party management after the general policies and major strategy to be employed have been outlined by himself as chairman.

"I do not understand," Fess said, "why there should be an inference that I will not take an active part as national chairman except as it arises from the fact which I made clear that I would not undertake the routine details of the campaign."

Mr. Lucas is scheduled to resign as Commissioner of Internal Revenue and assume his new post as executive director of the Republican National Committee on the 15th inst. It is understood his successor in the Treasury will be named by the President on about the same date.

Coincident with the departure of Senator Fess on his holiday, the mimeograph battalions of the Democratic National Committee again "accepted" the Republican chairman's challenge to make the tariff the principal issue in the coming campaign. Today's statement was put out this time under the name of Representative Kincheloe of Kentucky, who happened to be in Washington on the drought situation and handy for the purpose.

officer; Col. Jeancon, Lieut.-Col. Neblett of Los Angeles, are on the division staff, as is Lieut-Col. Follmer. Lieut.-Col. Joseph W. Sutphen is with the 182nd Brigade staff. The division is in theory to march from San Jose to San Juan Bautista, where it will establish a base at the same position that Fremont occupied during his invasion of California.

The troops will turn from there toward Monterey.

Theoretical fighting will begin within the next few days.

During this fighting, the regular officers will notify the defending troops that certain military events have happened.

For instance, a surgeon may be informed that an enemy shell has destroyed his collecting station for the wounded. A battery commander may be informed that two of his guns have been blown up.

DRILL MORNINGS

It is up to these officers to find the correct way out of the dilemma. Altogether, there are now nearly 600 officers in camp at Del Monte, the majority being from Los Angeles. Four infantry regiments, with no soldiers, but a complete complement of officers, are in the same camp that was occupied by the citizens' training-camp boys. A regiment of cavalry and one of artillery are at the Presidio.

They drill every morning and spend every afternoon on these intensive theoretical problems.

The camp is under command of Col. Rogers Fitch of the Eleventh Regular Cavalry, with Col. Timothy Michael Coughlan, of the Regulars, as executive officer.

The encampment will last for two weeks and will stop with the theoretical results of the enemy at Monterey. Next year the battle will be carried on further. Last year, it related entirely to the mobilization of the division.

The work does not stop with the camp, however. The education of the reserve officers continues throughout the year by weekly classes and correspondence classes.

Kersey Reports on 'Red' Survey

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 11. (Exclusive)—Statements that Communistic teachings are gaining a foothold in California schools are exaggerated, declared Vierling Kersey, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, today in commenting on requests received from patriotic organizations that steps be taken to protect the schools from "Red" propaganda.

Surveys conducted by the school department, he said, do not indicate that the teachings of "Reds" have become a menace in the State. He admitted that attempts have been made to work the propaganda into the schools, but said these efforts in the main have met with failure, due to a lack of sympathy among the teachers and pupils.

M. Kyparisis hopes also to uncover the city wherein Odysseus stayed. Excavations will be continued during the autumn.

Hungarian Leader Pledges Throne to Archduke

Wants to Make Amends for Karl's Persecutions

Memorial Rites Conducted for Late Emperor

VIENNA (Austria) Aug. 11. (AP)—A memorial service for the late Emperor Karl of Austria, at which prominent Hungarian monarchists swore to place the Archduke Otto on the throne with the least possible delay, was reported today in dispatches to the Montagszeitung from Tihany Abbey, Hungary.

In this abbey the Emperor spent several memorable days as a Hungarian prisoner after the fall of his dynasty. The service commemorated both the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of the Emperor Francis Joseph and the imprisonment and banishment of his successor.

Count Adalar Zichy, Monarchist leader, in the apartment where Karl and the ex-Empress Zita passed their last days in Hungary, solemnly declared Hungary will "wipe out its sin committed against Karl by placing his son, Archduke Otto with the least possible delay on the throne."

He concluded with the thrice repeated shout of "we swear it!" He was joined by the Archdukes Josef and Josef Franz, who live in Budapest, and by a delegation from Austria.

Their routes always in different directions, the two couriers rarely meet and their friends are limited to railroad men and the customs officers who must allow them to pass without inspection.

HOOVER HEARS DROUGHT WOES

Crop Prospect Decline of 7 Per Cent Reported

Rail Group Official Offers Relief Measure

Twelve Governors Promise to Attend Parley

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—The seriousness of the drought situation in certain areas was emphasized to President Hoover today by a long line of callers, including Chairman Payne of the American Red Cross, while the Department of Agriculture reported crop prospects had declined almost 7 per cent in July as a result of the protracted dry weather.

Meanwhile the government proceeded with plans to relieve farmers in distress and to insure against possible spread of disease.

Railroad executives continued to offer aid through reduced freight rates and Alfred P. Thom, general counsel for the Association of Railway Executives, called at the White House to determine the President's plans.

Secretary Hyde conferred with Mr. Hoover late in the day and went over details for the conference of governors of twelve States here Thursday. Replies of acceptance from all twelve governors to the President's invitation were on hand, that of Gov. Weaver of Nebraska being the last to arrive. Gov. Weaver had said he might not come, but informed the President today he will be present.

FARM HEADS CALLED

Samuel H. Thompson, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation; C. E. Huff, president of the National Farmers' Union, and Louis J. Taber, Master of the National Grange, were called by the President to a White House conference Friday to discuss the situation. Chairman Legge of the Farm Board also will be present.

The Agriculture Department report said a "rather wide belt from the Middle Atlantic States westward to the Mississippi Valley" had experienced the "dryest growing season of record."

While the shortage is chiefly in feed crops, the report said, estimates of yields per acre on the basis of conditions the 1st inst. are 5.5 per cent below last year, and 9.1 per cent under the last ten-year average.

The corn crop is expected to be the smallest since 1901, with hay and grain sorghums likely to be reduced to the lowest yield in more than ten years.

The report said the drought has been felt farther north as the season progressed and is now affecting even New York and Michigan.

Winter wheat is described as "too far advanced to be hurt by the drought," while the "usual supply of food crops" is indicated.

SHOWERS PREDICTED

The Weather Bureau clung to its earlier prediction of showers this week in some portions of the dry regions.

Representative Ludlow of Indiana informed President Hoover that eleven railroads have agreed to cut freight rates on hay to Indiana points, while Mr. Thom told newspaper men the railroads in general are ready to assist the farmers in every way possible.

Representatives Kendall, Newhall and Blackburn of Kentucky told the President conditions in their State are "deplorable." They were assured by the Executive that every agency will be utilized to help sufferers.

Representative Aswell of Louisiana, another White House caller, recommended to the President the public building program be speeded up as a means of relieving unemployment resulting from drought.

FIRES FOLLOW DROUGHT IN MICHIGAN FORESTS

MENOMINEE (Mich.) Aug. 11. (AP) Sections of the drought-stricken upper Michigan peninsula were in double jeopardy tonight, forest fires adding to the havoc already wrought by the long dry spell.

Fanned by a steady breeze, flames spread onward from more than fifty large forest tracts in the district. One of the fires had eaten its way to within a half-mile of this city's limits.

Every available man in the district was mustered in to aid in fighting the flames, but the work was made difficult by lack of water. Streams over the area are low, swamps have been baked dry by the sun and weather forecasters could hold out no immediate prospects of rain.

Possibility of windstorms constitutes additional hazard tonight.

DEAD FLYER BRANDED AS 'NEGLIGENT'

Coroner's Jury Censures Pilot and Owner in Gas Tank Plane Crash

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—A Coroner's jury ruled today that the fatal airplane plunge of two young women and a youthful flyer through the top of a huge illuminating gas tank during a rain squall Saturday, was due to "gross negligence" on the part of pilot and owner.

The plane, piloted by Orville Suchy, 21 years of age, and carrying Misses Mary and Eugenie Laws, collapsed during the storm, dove through the top of the metal container and plowed into the mud bottom of the water well that supported the gas tank. A diver recovered the bodies about nine hours later.

The jury decided the pilot flew too close to a severe storm and the owner of the ship, Ralph Caffarella, deserved censure for permitting his equipment to be taken into the air "when expert testimony showed that meteorological conditions through which the flight was to be made were dangerous."

Droning steadily along the air paths in weather that varied from brilliant sunshine to rain squalls and gusty winds, she returned to the mooring mast in seemingly perfect condition.

The dirigible left her mooring last night and cruised over Ottawa, Toronto, Lake Ontario and Niagara Falls, N. Y. At Niagara Falls the dirigible crossed the international border, flying over United States territory for the first time.

SENATE BATTLE SET FOR TODAY

Five States will Select Candidates

Party Loyalty Raised in Major Fights

Prohibition Arkansas and Ohio Issue

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—A wide variety of issues and candidates adorns the primary menus of five States tomorrow as the voters settle down to the task of selecting the Senatorial candidates that will be served them in the general election.

The dust raised by Alfred E. Smith in the 1928 Presidential election still hangs over Nebraska, Alabama and, to a lesser degree, Arkansas, but Oklahoma echoes personal attacks from an acrid campaign, and the battle cry of prohibition was raised in Ohio.

In Nebraska, the veteran Norris is awaiting the results from a campaign for renomination as a Republican Senatorial candidate after defending his votes against the administration and his support of Alfred E. Smith two years ago. He is opposed by W. M. Stebbins, who pledged himself to march in step with the Hoover administration.

ALABAMA CONTEST

Alabama Democrats will go to the polls to select a successor to Senator Heflin, who was evicted from the party for failure to support the Democratic Presidential candidate. Heflin, campaigning as an independent, has carried the fight to the voters with an appeal that they remain away from the primaries and support him for re-election in the general balloting this fall. John H. Bankhead of Jasper and Frederick I. Thompson, Mobile publisher, are contending for the right to face Heflin then.

Senator Robinson, the Democratic leader and Alfred E. Smith's running mate in 1928, has championed prohibition vigorously in his campaign in Arkansas for renomination in the primary of his party. He is opposed by Tom W. Campbell, a Little Rock lawyer.

IN OKLAHOMA

The Democratic primary campaign in Oklahoma has been a contest of clashing personalities with little in the nature of a national issue involved. C. J. Wrightsman of Tulsa and Thomas P. Gore, a former Senator from that State, are seeking the right to carry the Democratic Senatorial campaign against Senator Pine, the Republican incumbent, in the general election. Frank Buttram, of Oklahoma City, and William Henry Murray, are seeking the gubernatorial nomination.

Two Senatorial candidates injected prohibition into the Democratic primary in Ohio. Robert J. Bulkley of Cleveland favors repeal and George S. Meyers, also of Cleveland, seeks modification. The other candidates for the Senate are W. W. Durbin, John McSweeney of Wooster and Charles V. Truax. Senator McCulloch, the Republican incumbent, has no primary opposition. He is a dry.

LISTEN, MOTHER,

If you want children to EAT better

This means happier meals, better digestion, better health for all.

HEINZ of "57" fame has created new, extra luscious Rice Flakes in daintiest form—oven-toasted, crunchy, crisp!

Hidden in them are soft, fluffy particles of vegetable-cellulose the same kind that the best vegetables and fruits themselves contain. These particles which you cannot see or taste increase in bulk four to six times when moisture is absorbed after eating, forming one of the mildest, gentlest yet most effective types of natural bulk and roughage known to scientists. Not a bran-food.

Children can't resist the flavor of these Rice Flakes so they don't resist the benefits that the cellulose provides. Think what this means to young folks who don't like vegetables. Think what it saves you to supplement the vegetable diet with this charming cereal.

Happier meals are better digested, so authorities say. Patented by HEINZ, vegetable-cellulose comes ONLY IN HEINZ CEREALS.

Your money back from any grocer if HEINZ Rice Flakes are not satisfactory both as to flavor and effects.

Serve twice daily for one week to start the benefits; once daily thereafter to maintain them.

Send post card for free booklet, "Children's Futures Told in Foods" with sections about adult's needs.

Address H. J. Heinz Company, Dept. R-13, Pittsburgh. Sole makers of this new triumph in foods.

BRITISH IN INDIA FACE DILEMMAS

Grave Problems Confronted from Two Sources

Wild Tribesmen Continue to Menace Peshawar

Hindu and Moslem Clashes Cause of Concern

LONDON, Aug. 12. (AP)—(Tuesday) — Lahore dispatches this morning reported that all communications except wireless between Peshawar and the rest of India have been cut. The government at Simla now must rely entirely on the royal air force and the radio for information about the defense of the city against the Afridis.

BOMBAY (India) Aug. 11. (AP)—The British administration of India tonight faces two problems of utmost gravity -incursions of wild tribesmen in the northwestern frontier province and Hindu-Moslem strife in the Sind district that caused troops to be rushed there today.

News from both areas was scanty because of censorship, but reports indicate that the guerilla warfare of 10,000 Afridis continues to menace Peshawar, far on the northwestern frontier, and the trouble is spreading.

KHYBER PASS GUARDED

All the conquerors of India in centuries past, save only those who came by sea, have entered through the famous Khyber Pass leading from Afghanistan. Peshawar is the key to this pass, and the British have mobilized all the forces of modern warfare to protect the strategic city. The gates remain closed.

They do not believe the Afridis, who are aggressive warriors of the fierce Pathan tribe, will attempt a mass attack because of the danger of airplanes. When the tribesmen hear planes approaching they lay their brilliantly colored turbans and gowns on the ground, then flee to caves. The airplanes shower down bombs, thinking they are obliterating a force in the open, while the Afridis chuckle in their underground recesses.

So far the Afridis have attacked in small parties, ambushing British patrols or sniping from the wilderness. Casualties have not been heavy on either side.

SCORE KILLED IN CLASHES

A report of a battle on Saturday gave the indication that the warfare is spreading from Peshawar and immediate vicinity. A party of Afridis attacked Badama Post, southeast of Parachinar in the northwestern frontier province. Parachinar is nearly 100 miles west of Peshawar. The assailants were beaten off by Kurram militia.

Meanwhile, the tense feeling between Hindus and Moslems has caused troops to be rushed to the wide expanses of the Sind, a province of the Bombay presidency. In this region along the Indus River has occurred much fighting in the last two weeks. The trouble began in Sukkur on the 5th inst., twelve persons being killed and 150 injured, and since then there have been at least eight more deaths and 150 injuries.

INDIA'S SALT LAWS CONTINUE TO BE BROKEN

BOMBAY, Aug. 11. (AP)—Breakers of the salt law in India still are being sent to jail almost daily in various parts of the country.

Hundreds were arrested soon after Mahatma Gandhi made his spectacular march to the sea, inaugurating his civil-disobedience campaign, which is aimed to bring about the independence of India.

The prisons became crowded, thousands of other persons having been arrested for various civil-disobedience offenses, and the courts have been jammed for weeks.

Gandhi chose to break the salt laws in the first place because he considered the salt tax humiliating to the national consciousness of an awakened India and because, as he stated in his weekly, "it's heavy burden was being felt by the very poorest in the land."

Soon after the end of the World War the government of India decided to double the salt tax as one means of balancing the budget. Many newspapers opposed the plan, contending that the increased tax would not touch the wealthy classes, but instead would pinch the poor.

One British editor in condemning the salt tax monopoly pointed out that it had been calculated that never in India were there less than 40,000,000 people living below the margin of subsistence, their single daily meal being only a bowl of rice with salt as a condiment.

India's uneducated classes have profound respect for the law and it was Gandhi's desire to upset their mental balance by a demonstration of wholesale breaking of the laws. That was the real object of Gandhi in making the long arduous trip to the shores of the Indian Ocean in order to attempt the manufacture of salt contrary to government regulations.

"SUNSHINE CORNER" DARK

Bedridden Friend of Prisoners and Shut-ins Dies After Forty-seven Years' Philanthropy

WARREN (O.) Aug. 11. (AP)—The sun still shines through the windows of "Sunshine Corner" today, but the source of the light which went from there for years to cheer the unhappy the world over has gone. Miss Theodosia Haine, 67 years of age, is dead.

At the age of 20 she developed disease and was unable to walk. Confined to her room, Miss Haine joined the Shut-In Society of New York and began correspondence with shut-ins like herself.

She soon conceived the idea of writing to prisoners, to give them advice and encouragement. Her correspondence grew to such an extent that it got out of hand and she organized the committee on prison letters, of which she was national chairman.

The world went to her. Prisoners, after they had been released, paid her numerous visits. Hundreds of persons from many parts of the world wore down a path to her door and brought her gifts and curios with which she lined her room. They named her room "Sunshine Corner."

By means of correspondence she sold bookmarks containing cheery poems and verses from the scriptures. With the proceeds she supported three Methodist missionaries in China.

For ten years, prior to her death yesterday, she was secretary of the extension membership committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church and under her leadership the number of its members increased more than ten-fold.

FILIPINO TIES WILL ALIENATE

American Women will Lose Citizenship at Altar

Islanders Having Military Service Excepted

Ruling Made on Weddings Affects California

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11. (AP)—White women who marry Filipinos will lose citizenship rights under a ruling received today from Washington by Paul Armstrong, Federal district director of naturalization.

The ruling places Filipinos in the same class as aliens, and excepts only those with United States military service.

Armstrong said the ruling is important in California, where less than 5 per cent of Filipino immigration is female.

The ruling came in the case of Ann Joseno of Salinas. She married Basilicio Joseno, Filipino, and was denied citizenship. The Federal Department of Labor upheld the decision of Superior Judge Jorgenson. Mrs. Joseno was an immigrant from Germany.

Armstrong said women citizens marrying Filipinos will lose their citizenship and Filipino women who marry American men will still be classed as aliens.

Previously women had been granted citizenship because Filipinos with military service are eligible for citizenship. Judge Jorgenson ruled most Filipinos are aliens, and since they are considered aliens as a class women marrying them will not be entitled to citizenship.

DEATH CLAIMS GEN. MENOHER

Was Battle Commander of Rainbow Division

Received Decorations for Distinguished Service

Retired Air Corps Chief Pneumonia Victim

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—Maj.-Gen. Charles T. Menoher, retired, one-time battle commander of the Rainbow Division in France, and a former chief of the Army Air Corps, died late today in St. Elizabeth's Hospital after an attack of pneumonia.

Gen. Menoher after a distinguished World War career in France, found himself in peace time a central figure in the sensational Air Corps controversy over Col. William Mitchell, which ended eventually in the latter leaving the service.

Gen. Menoher himself retired in 1926 at the age of 64. He had been in ill health for some time prior to the attack of pneumonia which caused his death today.

HEADS AIR SERVICE

Gen. Menoher became head of the air service soon after his return from France, and at a time when there already was apparent a smouldering of the flame that later was to kindle the fires of contention. At the time of Menoher's appointment, Secretary Weeks said he had been selected "because he was a man of fine fighting record in France, a man of good judgment and level head, and a very capable executive."

Gen. Menoher was born in Philadelphia, March 20, 1862. He was graduated from West Point in 1886, from the Artillery School in 1894 and from the War College in 1907. Most of his army service was with the artillery and it included active duty in both the Spanish-American War and the Philippine insurrection.

At the entrance of the United States into the World War, he was an artillery colonel, but was sent to France as a brigadier-general, later to be promoted to the rank of major-general and assigned to command the Rainbow Division when Maj.-Gen. William A. Mann, its organiser as chief of the Militia Bureau and its first commanding officer, was unable to endure the physical strain of the active battle days of the division in France.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

To recount the work of Gen. Menoher in France virtually is to review the history of the renowned Rainbow Division, composed of National Guard units from virtually every State in the Union. The division, one of the first American units to reach France, was organised in order that each State might be represented at an early date on the battle front, and its history under Gen. Menoher forms one of the most vivid chapters in the annals of the American Expeditionary Force.

The division saw active fighting in the Luneville and Baccarat sectors from February 17 to June 21, 1918; participated in the Champagne-Marne defensive in July and August; the attack on the St. Mihiel salient in September, the occupation of that sector until October, and then in the Argonne attack just prior to the armistice.

For his service as head of the division, he was promoted to the command of the Sixth Corps, awarded the Distinguished Service Medal, and decorated by the French, Belgian and Italian governments.

ROYAL PAIR OF RUMANIA RECONCILED

Carol and Helen Have Buried Hatchet, Declare Reports from Sinaia

VIENNA, Aug. 11. (AP) — Reconciliation between King Carol and Queen Helen of Rumania was reported to be only a matter of hours in messages received here today from the royal summer palace at Sinaia, where the King is staying.

The messages said the Queen has been persuaded of the correctness of the King's view that their divorce never has been legal.

If the reports are accurate nothing appears to stand in the way of coronation of the royal couple in September or October. King Carol is said to be very eager to hold the coronation this fall.

In well-informed quarters in Vienna doubts were expressed today that the reconciliation had been completely achieved. It was felt it could scarcely have been reached with such apparent ease.

MORONES UNDER PORTES GIL FIRE

Mexican Leader Blamed in Obregon Assassination

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 11. (AP)—Luis Morones, Mexican labor leader and former minister, was charged with a share of responsibility for the assassination of Gen. Alvaro Obregon by former President Portes Gil, in a political broadside published in today's papers.

The former President spoke to a large crowd outside his home, using the opportunity to answer accusations of Morones that he had plotted to have Pascual Ortiz Rubio, the present President of Mexico, assassinated during his tour of the United States prior to his inauguration.

"The speech Morones made in the Hidalgo Theater of Orizaba April 30, 1928, fanned the spirit that moved the hand of the assassin, Jose De Leon Toral," Portes Gil said. "False labor leaders sowed an atmosphere of assassination during Gen. Obrebon's political campaign. . . . They continue to sow seeds of hate and tragedy now. But it was the weight of Obregon's body which sank them definitely from power."

Portes Gil termed the charges that he had plotted against President Ortiz Rubio a calumny. "I can proclaim proudly to the nation," he said, "that I never have soiled my hands with blood."

The former President has just returned from a trip to Cuba and the United States. He is resuming his work immediately as head of the National Revolutionary party.

SUIT OF TAN CONSIDERED BEST GARB FOR BABY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—No nightie, no socks, no shoes, no slip, no shirt for baby this hot weather.

That's today's advice from the United States Children's Bureau.

The 1930 August costume, which for quite a good many adults has simmered down to "shirts-n'-shorts," should omit the shirt for the infant.

"The fewer clothes he wears, the better," the Bureau set forth as its official opinion.

The Children's Bureau advice coincided exactly with the health habits of the most modern babies of the capital city.

Instead of the hemstitched and beribboned wardrobes of yesteryear, many a 1930 baby here has as its chief pride one delicate suit of suntan.

By the Children's Bureau, by physicians of the capital city, and by mothers, the loss of much of the old-fashioned "layette" is regarded as baby's gain.

BOY INCENDIARY SENTENCED

DUNCAN (Okla.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Eldores Taylor, 9-year-old boy who set a $75,000 lumber yard fire here Saturday night, was committed by County Judge Scott today to the Boys' Training School at Pauls Valley, to serve until he is of age. Eldores said he "was after chain stores," but gave no reason.

CAPONE LIQUOR FORAY ORDERED

Judge Acts After Reports of Bugs Moran "Deal"

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—The North Side gang headquarters supposedly set up by Al Capone to take over Bugs Moran's liquor and vice business was ordered raided today by Judge Lyle.

Judge Lyle, having read newspaper stories in which Capone was said to have installed Ted Newberry as his North Side chief, ordered Newberry's cabaret raided and offered to issue the necessary warrants.

Newspapers published stories which said Bugs Moran had been forced out by the slaying of his chief operator, Jack Zuta, in a Wisconsin summer resort eleven days ago. Capone was purported to have taken advantage of his rival's absence from the city since the Lingle and Zuta killings.

No, let's go see china at Parmelee-Dohrmann's
Let's go to a matinee

I TRIED to get Parmelee-Dohrman (Flower at 8th) to charge 50 cents or $1 admission to their store. I said there would be a line down Flower Street, clear to Seventh — because it would be a good show for the money.

They thought it over and voted me down.

But the Parmelee-Dohrmann store is a REAL showplace, and well worth a visit—for pleasure.

This week I especially suggest the china department (where, incidentally, there are three sets at bargain prices for the week.) This department is a small world's fair in itself, of china and semi-porcelains — the largest and finest selection in town, and, I believe, the best-looking and best-equipped department of its kind in America—some territory!

HOW LONG IS A FOOT?

THE beauty, as well as the comfort, of a shoe depends on how well it is fitted on your foot. Ill-fitted shoes can neither look nor feel right after a week or two.

The total length of your foot has little to do with correct fitting.

When you buy your first pair of Selby Arch Preserver Shoes at Gude's (725 S. Broadway and 625 W. 7th,) you will note that not the usual yardstick is used under your foot, but a device with a sliding side "cup" which measures the length of your inside long arch. THIS IS THE REAL LENGTH OF YOUR FOOT.

This insures your enjoying every exclusive feature of beautiful Selby Arch Preserver shoes. The world sees their style; their scientific inner correctness is a confidential matter between them and your feet.

NO IFS

SOME town on the Santa Fe (in New Mexico, I believe) advertises itself as having the largest oil painting on elk's skin in the world.

In other words, it's easy to set a world's record if you specify enough qualifications.

Since Marmon-Roosevelt became the lowest-priced eight in the world (without any ifs, buts, or other qualifications,) a lot of miscellaneous eights have been announcing themselves as the lowest-priced eight in the world —with a square horn,

—with green wire spokes,
—with saxophone valves, etc.

MARMON-ROOSEVELT still remains the lowest-priced eight in the world, without any qualifications.

The price is $950 factory. This is a day of eights. In a year or so there may be few fours or sixes out of the midget class. Eights will have highest resale value.

All Marmon models are guaranteed for a full year.

You look prosperous in that suit
I am. I made money buying it at Desmonds

THAT ole debbil "business depression" is getting a kick in the face at Desmond's this week at their annual Clothing "Event" at their Broadway and Wilshire stores.

I wish you had been with me yesterday up on the fifth floor of their store at 616 Broadway. It was the first day of the second week of their "Event," and the place was jammed with gentlemen who had at least decided to dress "prosperous." (Without much outlay, I'll admit—$28.50, $38.50, $48.50 and better—startlingly low on some of the suits I saw.) Well, if we all dressed like good times, we'd soon have good times.

POLITICS FOUND BANE OF NATION

Will Durant Sees Democracy Dominated by Machine

Education of Officeholders Only Salvation, He Says

Institute of Public Affairs Addressed by Philosopher

UNIVERSITY (Va.) Aug. 11. (AP) Will Durant, New York author, told the Virginia Institute of Public Affairs here today there is no way out of the domination of political life in the United States by men of third-rate ability except to make education a qualification for public office.

In his address on "Is Democracy A Failure?" Mr. Durant asserted the final "breakdown of democracy appears in the increasing insecurity of life in our cities where political machines are in league with the world of crime and in the inability of Congress to face the complex economic problems confronting it every day."

STUDY FOR OFFICE

"I should like to see in all our great universities schools of public administration in which students would be prepared as specifically and technically for the tasks of government as they are now prepared for medicine, for engineering and law; and no one should be eligible to municipal office unless he had received such training," he said.

Besides higher educational training, the speaker proposed a graduation of public office, giving as an example the suggestion that the Mayor of a first-class city should first be Mayor of a second-class city and the Mayor of a second-class city should first be a Mayor of a third-class city.

EDUCATION HOPE

Education, he said, is his suggestion for salvaging democracy.

Under his plan, he continued, every adult would vote, but no one could vote for an unqualified candidate; "Democracy would be made fool proof."

There is no way short of dictatorship, he said, to escape from the clutch of the political machines, except education.

He held democracy had become unreal because of the decay of the economic basis on which it once rested in America—"Free land, free competition, national isolation and the comparative self-efficiency or economic independence of the individual homestead."

The speaker opened his address by asserting democracy has given neither government by the people nor government by the best, and that the path of office lay now not in honest service to the people but in dishonest service to the machine.

Illinois to Vote on Liquor Law

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—A State referendum on the prohibition question is believed assured tonight. A petition calling for a popular expression of opinion on the matter at the fall election was completed and mailed to the Secretary of State for filing.

The petition, sponsored by Bernard W. Snow, chairman of the Cook County (Chicago) Republican Central Committee, bears a total of 1,200,000 names. Three proposals are contained in the petition, repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, modification of the Volstead Act and repeal of the State prohibition law.

TEXAS G.O.P. WILL CONDUCT NO RUN-OFF

BROWNSVILLE (Tex.) Aug. 11. (AP)—The Republican State executive committee decided today not to hold a run-off primary for State officers the 23rd inst.

High candidates who did not receive a majority in the first primary will not be opposed by the runners-up.

DEATH FAILS TO END FIGHT OVER UNGER

"Captor-Financee" of Rich Candy Man and Widow Try to Obtain His Body

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 11. (AP)—The legal battle over the custody of Aaron Unger, wealthy New York candy manufacturer, did not end with his death yesterday, but was continued today for possession of his body.

Unger died in the apartments of Amelia Phillips at Landsdowne, near here, while proceedings were pending, instituted by his wife and other New York relatives, seeking to have him released from the custody of Miss Phillips, his nurse.

It was asserted Unger, an invalid, was held virtually a captive in Miss Phillips's apartment. She fought the proceedings, declaring she was engaged to marry him.

Mrs. Unger today obtained a court order halting the funeral arrangements. After a conference of lawyers Unger's body was given to the widow and the funeral services were conducted in an undertaking parlor. Miss Phillips was among those present along with the widow and her children.

DEATH OF OFFICIAL BRINGS BANK CLOSING

GARY (Ind.) Aug. 11. (AP)—The American State Bank of Gary was closed by its directors today after the body of its president, Albert De Fries, 42 years of age, was found in his home. He was a victim of gas and authorities believe he took his own life.

The directors decided to close pending an audit by Thomas Barr, Chief of State Bank Examiners. Barr said he believes the bank is in satisfactory condition, with possible exception of cash on hand. The bank had total resources of $886,000 on July 1, last.

HUSBAND SLAYS WIFE, DAUGHTER AND SELF

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—Salvatore Tesereаro, his wife, Concetta, and their 18-year-old daughter, Emilia, were found dead in their Brooklyn apartment today after neighbors had been aroused by shots.

Tesereаro was shot through the head and his wife had died from bullet and stab wounds. The girl had been stabbed to death.

Police believe Tesereаro killed his wife and daughter and then shot himself.

GIRL'S WILES HELP THIEF TAKE FLIGHT

Blonde Vamps Captor and Burglar Twists Free and Dashes to Safety

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11. (AP)—The pleading of a comely blond enabled a burglar to escape after having been caught last night in a street chase by Kurt Siebauer, a clerk in the Presidio quartermaster's department.

The burglar was robbing the home of Mrs. George A. Long and fled when Mrs. Long surprised him. With Mrs. Long in pursuit and calling for help, the burglar fled. Siebauer took up the chase and overtook the housebreaker, who drew a gun.

Siebauer knocked the burglar down and disarmed him. While holding his captive for the police the comely blond appeared. As the girl pleaded with Siebauer to release the prisoner, Siebauer divided his attention. The burglar twisted loose and escaped. The blond followed.

Death Seeker's Poisoned Soda Fells Tasters

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Agnes Orlikowski, 19 years of age, attempted suicide last night.

She went into a Logan Square confectionery and ordered a pineapple soda. Unnoticed, she mixed twenty grains of poison with the soda, took several swallows, walked across the street and collapsed in a park.

Mrs. Anna Graves and Mrs. Hope Dwelly, managers of the shop, noticed the abandoned soda and thought Miss Orlikowski walked out because it was spoiled. Each took a swallow and pronounced it satisfactory. A few minutes later both became ill and collapsed. A physician administered an antidote. Miss Orlikowski is in a critical condition.

THREE INJURED BY GASOLINE EXPLOSION

BUFFALO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Three persons were injured, one critically, by an explosion of gas in an abandoned gasoline tank in a vacant lot this afternoon. The explosion occurred when sparks from a rubbish fire entered a vent in the tank. Walter Kowala, 20 years of age, is reported in a critical condition.

HUSBAND OF DEAD BRIDE KILLS SELF

Hungarian Engineer's American Wife Victim of Poisoning by Mistake

BUDAPEST (Hungary) Aug. 11. (AP)—A telegram from Nidaros, Sweden, today said Julius Konkoly-Thege, whose American bride, Dorothy Arents, of New York, died from poisoning last month, had killed himself there.

Young Konkoly-Thege was to have accompanied Mr. and Mrs. George Arents, of New York, parents of his bride, to America today.

The girl, who was 23 years of age, died in a Budapest hospital on July 7. Her husband was a Hungarian engineer, whom she married in America.

The death of the former Miss Arents was investigated by both the Budapest police prefect and public prosecutor. Both officials concluded the girl was the victim of a mistake, in which she took poison, thinking it medicine.

Death Laid to Lovers' Quarrel

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Aug. 11. (AP)—A lovers' quarrel instead of bootleggers' vengeance was blamed officially tonight for the death of a young woman whose body was found on a lonely road near here Saturday.

Sheriff Knight announced deputies are searching for a man they believe was involved in a quarrel on the road last month. The Sheriff abandoned the theory of his chief deputy that bootleggers killed her because they believed she was an informer.

Tacoma-Tokio Plane Crashes

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Aug. 11. (AP) Plans of Bob Wark, Seattle, and Eddie Brown, Kansas City, for a Tacoma-Tokio flight across the Pacific, were definitely called off for this year when their plane crashed today at Ladner Airport, near here.

The propeller of their plane, Pacific Era, was smashed and the undercarriage badly damaged when they were landing at Ladner after a few minutes' flight from Vancouver airport. The plane overran the runway and crashed into a ditch.

TRAIN HITS CARS AND SIX INJURED

Five Hurt When Hay Truck Struck on P. E. Track

Five Minutes Later Another Crash on Same Track

Another Hit-Run Victim in Pasadena Within Week

PASADENA, Aug. 11. — This city's second hit-and-run accident case within a week and injury of six persons in a collision between a Pacific Electric interurban train and hay truck and a similar accident five minutes later, injuring one person, featured a series of accidents here during the last twenty-four hours.

Those who were treated for minor injuries following the two train-and-truck crashs today are: Harry K. Kellett, national deputy chief-of-staff of the Veterans of Foreign Wars; Mrs. Clifford Thoms, wife of a prominent Los Angeles attorney; Jeff Wick of 428 Aliso street, Los Angeles; Harry Hanson of 233 East Fourth street, Los Angeles; Victor Weins of Covina, and Virginia Schottenberg of 58 North Madison avenue, Pasadena. Mrs. Thoms was given first aid for bruises and shock and National Deputy Kellett incurred cuts about his face. The injured were taken to the Pasadena Emergency Hospital, where they were treated by Chief Surgeon C. C. Troensegaard.

HAY STREWS GROUND

The truck, driven by James Hofland of Los Angeles, was struck by the interurban at the intersection of Garfield avenue and Huntington Drive, South Pasadena. Hay was strewn in all directions by the impact. Hofland, the driver, escaped uninjured. Witnesses reported that Hofland drove onto the tracks in the mistaken belief that the train would stop before entering the intersection.

His helper, Wick, who was sitting on the side of the cab struck by the train, was severely cut by flying glass.

The intersection comprises the boundaries of Alhambra, South Pasadena and San Marino, and aid was summoned from all three cities.

Three passengers in the train, Mrs. Thoms, Miss Schottenberg, and Hanson, were injured by broken glass.

While work of clearing away the wreckage of the hay truck was going on, another train hit the automobile driven by Weinz. The machine was turned over, but the driver escaped with mnior injuries.

HIT-RUN VICTIM MAY DIE

Left lying unconscious in the gutter by an unidentified driver who struck him as he stood in a safety zone at Congress street and Fair Oaks avenue shortly before midnight last night, Martin Fernandez, 54 years of age, of 665 South Madison avenue, is reported near death at the Pasadena Hospital this afternoon. Witnesses reported that the driver of the small green roadster which figured in the accident, sped away without looking back to see what damage he had done. Three-year-old Charles Almandaraz of 871 Cypress street, victim of a hit-and-run driver, who left him bleeding in front of his home a week ago Saturday night, had failed to recover consciousness late today and his life is despaired of. Police have been unable to locate the driver of the dark-hued sedan which sped away after the accident.

Octogenarian Woman Passes

SANTA ANA, Aug. 11.—Arrangements were being completed today for the funeral of Mrs. Ophelia Powers, 80 years of age, who died suddenly Saturday at the home of her son, C. H. Powers of 614 South Birch street. Death was attributed to a heart malady.

Mrs. Powers came to this city twenty years ago with her husband, Phineas Powers, from Powersville, Iowa, a town which her husband had founded. Mr. Powers died here fifteen years ago.

Besides her son, C. H. Powers, with whom she had made her home here, Mrs. Powers leaves another son, L. J. Powers of Waterloo, Iowa, and a daughter, Mrs. Clara Springer of Powersville.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 10 a.m. from the Smith & Tuthill chapel. Interment will be made in Fairhaven Cemetery.

DAHLIA SHOW HEARS ANGELENO SPEAKER

TORRANCE, Aug. 11.—G. W. Gorton, Los Angeles county deputy Horticultural Commissioner, was the principal speaker at the dahlia show and regular meeting of the Garden Club here tonight. Gorton spoke on the commission's plan of inspection and its relation to pest eradication and control in the district.

REDLANDS WOMEN FOR FITTS

Enthusiastic Meeting Held and Club Organized to Aid His Campaign for Nomination as Governor

REDLANDS, Aug. 11.—Local women held an enthusiastic meeting and formed a Fitts-for Governor club here with Mrs. J. C. Gregory as the president. Mrs. Gregory, in sounding the keynote of the meeting, said in part: "The women voters of the State of California have finally come to the realization that if they expect to find fearlessness, honesty and ability in their public officials they, themselves, must honestly and fearlessly express their preference at the polls. If we, the women of California, expect to free ourselves and our families from the obnoxious yoke of political control, we must have the courage to vote according to our consciences.

"We have been called together for the purpose of unifying our support of Buron Fitts for Governor and it is my belief that the women of California will solidly support the one candidate for Governor who has shown himself to be free from any political obligations; the one man who is able, through his great courage, through his ability and through his utter honesty, to give California the kind of government which it has a right to expect."

After determining on forming themselves as the Women's Fitts-for-Governor Club for Redlands, the meeting proceeded to the election of officers and members of the executive committee. Mrs. Gregory, 123 Cajon street, was nominated and unanimously elected permanent chairman. Mrs. Frederick Johnson, 951 East Cypress street, and Mrs. Ray Church, 404 Brookside avenue, were chosen vice-chairmen, Mrs. Church being also appointed by Mrs. Gregory as chairman of the committee on organization. Other officers elected were Mrs. J. F. Richardson, 217 West Cypress street, treasurer, and Mrs. Camilla F. Hudson, East Citrus avenue, secretary.

Mrs. Richardson announced that she would receive contributions for the furtherance of the Fitts campaign at her Cypress-street address. The secretary, Mrs. Hudson, issued an appeal to the local women voters who are supporting Fitts to mail their names to her at the Fitts-for-Governor headquarters, 26 West State street, where campaign material and pamphlets may be obtained.

The executive committee chosen includes Mrs. J. L. Andrews, 325 Sonora street; Mrs. May Dunniway, 919 Columbia street; Mrs. Jennie Cromas, 303 Fourth street; Mrs. Austin Park, Valle Vista Drive; Mrs. E. M. Wincher, 628 Sunnyside avenue; Mrs. Otto Knudsen, 834 Campus avenue; Mrs. Louise McDaniel, 621 Alvarado and Mrs. Tatum E. Cain, 1747 Orange street.

FITTS WILL ADDRESS THRONG IN PASADENA PARK TONIGHT

PASADENA, Aug. 11. — Accommodations have been provided for 5000 persons to hear Dist.-Atty. Buron Fitts, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, deliver an address tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Memorial Park.

Fitts will tell not only of the great inequalities of the present tax law, of the unfairness in the State representation given Southern California and of the need for more efficient administration, but he will reveal the steps he would take to aid taxpayers in securing dollar-for-dollar value for their money.

Joseph Scott, Los Angeles attorney, will preside, and the arrangements are in charge of Capt. Orson L. Early of this city. Dr. Daniel F. Rittenhouse, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, will deliver the invocation at the mass meeting.

Mr. Fitts will be accompanied by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Buff Fitts.

RANCHER DROWNS IN STANDPIPE

G. H. Peters of Hansen District Believed to Have Become Dizzy and Fallen In

ANAHEIM, Aug. 11.—An attempt to regulate the flow of water in the irrigation ditch on his ranch at Hansen, six miles west of Anaheim, early this morning, cost the life of George H. Peters, 67 years of age.

Shortly after 5 a.m. Peters left his home to arrange for water to flow onto his grove. In order to do this he had to climb a ladder to the top of a twelve-foot-high standpipe in which there was five feet of water.

After adjusting the water flow as desired, he is believed to have lost his balance and toppled head first into the pipe, where his body was found six hours later.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Lizzie Peters, and a son, Charles W., of Hansen, besides relatives residing in the East.

Physician Held for Kidnaping in Crown City

PASADENA, Aug. 11.—Dr. Clifford Loomis Bartlett of 536 South Arroyo Boulevard was taken into custody this afternoon on a felony warrant charging kidnaping, local police reported.

The suspect was booked at the local police station, but not confined. He was turned over to police officers from San Rafael, who asserted they would take Bartlett to that city.

No details of the charges could be obtained here, the San Rafael police officers declining to discuss the case.

SAN RAFAEL, Aug. 11.—A warrant for the arrest of Dr. Clifford Bartlett, former Fairfax physician now in Los Angeles, charging kidnaping, was given to Deputy Sheriff J. C. Ethridge for service today and he left at once for Los Angeles. The complainant is Dr. Bartlett's former wife, Mrs. C. C. Busschaert of Lansdale, who declares she is entitled to custody of two children, Rachael, 15 years of age, and Mary Alice, 13, whom Dr. Bartlett refuses to surrender.

Miniature Golf Crown Goes to Paddock Now

PASADENA, Aug. 11.—Sir Charles William Paddock, knighted by the King of Montenegro in recognition of his victories on the cinder path, is now scheduled to step up the royal ranks by being crowned king of local miniature golf artists.

Last night, the former sprint king, who is now studying law at the University of Southern California, surprised local fans by buzzing around the Oak Knoll links in forty-two strokes. The par on that course is fifty-five and seldom equaled.

Charley's performance stamps him as a favorite to capture the Pasadena American Legion's miniature golf crown. Paddock's victim yesterday was Commander Albert Engvall of Post No. 13, American Legion.

FIVE MILES OF PHONE CABLE LAID IN VALLEY

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 11. Installation of about five miles of telephone cable in the north section served by the North Hollywood exchange is almost completed, according to R. E. Nunn, manager of the Southern California Telephone Company. The work, requiring an expenditure of about $18,500, was started the middle of last year. Parts of the cable were in service early in the spring. Two miles of the cable is underground. The new cable provides additional facilities which are needed to care for the growth of this area. According to Mr. Nunn, the North Hollywood exchange now serves more than 2790 telephones.

Hotel Laguna Open to Guests

LAGUNA BEACH, Aug. 11. — After eight weeks of rush work on the $450,000 Hotel Laguna, it was officially opened here this evening with a formal banquet given by the local Chamber of Commerce with 200 distinguished guests present.

The Laguna Beach orchestra provided the musical program at the dinner and dance following. W. B. Hanner, manager of the hotel, presided.

The three-story, modern hostelry, located on Coast Highway, is one of the marks of the progress of the little art colony. In speaking of the progress of Laguna Beach, Stuart Avis, merchant, said that the community is enjoying a good business which is equivalent to last year's business, and 1929 was greater than all previous years. Postal figures according to Postmaster L. F. Waldon, showed an increase from 6 per cent to 20 per cent in postal receipts.

The Associated Chambers of Orange County will hold a banquet here on Friday, the 29th inst. One hundred reservations have been made.

NUNS' MONASTERY TO BE DEDICATED TODAY

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 11.—Solemn high mass at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning will open dedication services in the new chapel and monastery of the Poor Clare nuns at 215 Los Olivos street, with Rt. Rev. John J. Cantwell, Catholic bishop of the diocese of Los Angeles and San Diego, officiating. The bishop will preach the dedicatory sermon following mass. The new structure, consisting of a monastery wing and a complete chapel, is of Spanish architecture. Brother Leonard of the Old Mission was architect for the buildings and J. P. Sullivan the contractor. Interior of the chapel is in plain style, with a set of imported stained-glass windows, the gift of benefactors of the sisters, featuring the decorative work.

NEW PASTOR PREACHES

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 11. Rev. R. E. Genter, new pastor of the North Hollywood First Baptist Church has arrived here and yesterday preached his first sermon. Soon after Mr. Genter's arrival a reception was given to him by the congregation in the church parlors at Otsego and Fair avenues.

IMAGINE THEIR EMBARRASSMENT

Truckmen Believed to Have Stolen Woodpile Had Just Come to Wrong Address

ONTARIO, Aug. 11.—Imagine their embarrassment!

Two men and one boy drove their truck to the home of Miss Charlotte Reed, I street and Campus avenue, and in broad daylight hauled away her carefully hoarded woodpile that was to provide her fireplace with fuel during the winter.

Neighbors called the police, but the men were gone. So was the wood. Next day the truckload of wood came back. The men and one boy piled it up more neatly than it had been.

They then went next door where there was another woodpile and hauled it away. But before going, they informed the curious neighbors they had become mixed up on addresses the previous day and got the wrong woodpile. The second pile they hauled away was the one that should have gone first.

MAN HIT BY ROLLER HE HAD DRIVEN

Glendale Resident May Lose Legs; Road Machine Runs Him Down

GLENDALE, Aug. 11.—Knocked down and run over by a steam roller, Fred Art of 1184 West Thirty-seventh street, Los Angeles, today is in a serious condition at the Physicians' and Surgeons' Hospital here.

Art, an employee of Charles U. Heuser, local contractor, had driven the roller to a hydrant to fill it with water, leaving it in gear as it was on a slight grade. The gears became disengaged and Art was knocked down, the heavy roller passing over his body below the hips. He suffered a crushed right thigh, fractures of both legs below the knee and smashed knee caps, according to Dr. R. L. Kauffman, attending physician.

Amputation of both legs may be necessary, hospital authorities stated.

Orange County Tax Delinquency Lowest in State

SANTA ANA, Aug. 11.—Orange county has the smallest delinquent tax list of any county in the State, again this year, with all but 2 per cent of its taxes, totaling more than $60,000,000, collected, it was shown today when County Tax Collector J. C. Lamb announced his tax settlement with the County Treasurer.

The total delinquency out of $6,305,683.25 in taxes charged to him for collection was only $138,265.64, Lamb's statement showed. He collected $6,167,417.61.

Lamb's remarkable record for collections, which has been repeated each year, the records show, places Orange county at the head of the fifty-eight counties of California in point of small delinquency.

Couple Sues on Unusual Charge

ONTARIO, Aug. 11.—Albert and Laura Hayes, local residents, are of the opinion that to be called "bootleggers" is worth at least $10,000.

And so they are suing Mrs. Carrie Hardwick in Superior Court for that amount.

According to the complaint filed by Mr. and Mrs. Hayes against Mrs. Hardwick, they were living in a house rented from the defendant, and were ordered to vacate. In ordering them to get out Mrs. Hardwick called them "bootleggers" and "undesirables," the complaint sets forth. Mrs. Hayes asserts she suffered a long illness as a result of the verbal attack and the insinuations hurled at her, for which she asks $5000 damages. Albert Hayes asks another $5000, declaring he was damaged to that extent through loss of the services of his wife as housekeeper and companion.

Mrs. Hardwick declares she did not use such words in seeking to oust her tenants.

LEMON GROWERS NOT SOUR

Orange County Exchanges Experiencing Best Prices in Five Years, Figure Averaging $10 Per Box

SANTA ANA, Aug. 11.—Lemon growers of Orange county are experiencing the best season in five years, according to the Orange County Fruit Exchange, Orange, which quotes average lemon prices at $10 a box at the present time. From the southern half of the county twenty carloads of lemons and 155 cars of oranges were shipped out last week by the exchange, while, including all packing-houses, twenty-nine carloads of lemons alone left the southern portion of the county.

Weather conditions have been favorable throughout the year, according to the exchange officials, and have aided the farmer in producing a good run of fruit. Excessive hot weather in the East is said to have made an increased demand for the fruit.

The large quantity of fruit shipped from the county each week may be seen through the reporting of packing-houses and exchanges for shipments during the past week. The Northern Orange County Citrus Exchange shipped 132 cars of Valencias and, in all, 214 cars of citrus have been sent from that district of the county within the past seven days. Combined exchange shipments of 389 carloads of all kinds of citrus fruits have gone forward in the past week.

Market conditions are declared to have held up well during the season, except for the smaller-sized fruit, which has suffered a drop in price recently, it was reported.

THREE-SCORE CARS OF FRUIT SHIPPED IN APRIL

OLIVE, Aug. 11.—The Olive Hillside Groves has paid out $145,480 on sixty-two carloads of fruit shipped during the first pool, which was open from April 26 to July 7, packing-house records show.

The packing-plant expects to ship approximately 140 carloads of fruit in the four pools of this season, according to Frank B. Maxwell, manager of the association. The second pool is scheduled to close the 16th inst.

ANACAPA ON AIR WITH NEW RADIO

Bleak Island Twenty Miles Off Coast Linked to Shore with Short-wave Set

VENTURA, Aug. 11.—After being cut off from communication with the rest of the world except by ship or airplane, Anacapa Island has been linked to civilization by a short-wave radio set.

Installation of the broadcasting equipment on the bleak speck of land twenty miles across the channel has been revealed by Walter White, keeper of the Point Hueneme lighthouse.

Report of accidents or emergency calls are the only uses to which the set will be put, it is said. The radio is attuned with the Coast Guard station at San Pedro.

Rear-Admiral Leaves Sword to His Stepson

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 11. — Rear-Admiral Ashley H. Robertson, who died July 13, last, left the bulk of his estate to his widow's son, Harry Llewellyn Bixby, under the terms of a will filed in Superior Court today for probate.

Nothing is left by the will to Mrs. Juliette G. Robertson, the admiral's widow, "for the reason that she is already amply provided for," the document explains.

Bixby inherits all Admiral Robertson's interest in the Jotham Bixby Company, Bixby Land Company, and Alamitos Land Company, and, in addition, the admiral left his sword, medals, and "naval outfit and accoutrements" to Bixby.

The residue of the estate, apparently valued at $3000, according to a property list appended to the will, goes to Leon Clarke Robertson of 2565 Albatross street, this city, and to Aurelia R. Pennell of Kansas, Ill., brother and sister of the admiral. They are to share alike, the will specifies.

PAST EXALTED RULERS, ELKS IN JOINT MEET

REDONDO BEACH, Aug. 11.—Members of the Past Exalted Rulers' Association, California South Central District, will meet with the local lodge of Elks tomorrow night. Jack Funk, Past Exalted Ruler of the Redondo Beach lodge, is the newly elected president of the association, and preparations are being made for an attendance of about 250 members and visiting Elks.

OFFICERS IN SESSION AT VALLEY CITY

Deputy Sheriffs and Police of County in Meeting at Pomona Today

POMONA, Aug. 11.—Peace officers of Los Angeles county to the number of 150 or more will swarm upon Pomona Tuesday for the sixth monthly session of the Los Angeles County Peace Officers' Association, at which time they will discuss various problems and formulate plans to increase efficiency in law enforcement, besides participating in golf and sightseeing in the Pomona Valley.

Chief of Police W. S. Kirby and E. G. Stahlman, police commissioner, were today completing arrangements for the entertainment and announced that the morning meeting would be held at the Mountain Meadows Country Club, to be followed by a luncheon there. Sheriff Traeger will preside over the meeting at which Eugene W. Biscailuz, superintendent of the California Highway Patrol, will give an address on "Traffic and Law Enforcement and Co-operation."

Musical entertainment will be furnished by Harry Hinman, deputy inspector of the Division of Motor Vehicles for this district, who will give vocal solos, while Dan Depry and M. W. Ovitt, local patrolmen, will also contribute musical selections. Sheriff Traeger will bring a quartet with him.

County Farm Inmate's Death May be Sifted

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 11. — The mysterious death of Joseph Lee Woods, inmate at the County Farm, last December 10, was understood to be the subject of a grand-jury meeting this afternoon.

The District Attorney's office was notified of the impending meeting. Dep. Dist.-Atty. Oran N. Muir, legal adviser of the grand jury, admitted he was prepared for the meeting, but declared he did not know why it had been called.

Prominent on the list of witnesses, it was learned, appeared Coroner Kelly. The Coroner likewise, insisted he knew nothing in advance of the meeting, but pointed out he has often heretofore, been called in investigations concerning deaths, because of his official capacity.

Rumor at the Courthouse, however, was persistent that the grand jury was concerned with the Woods case.

Woods died under mysterious circumstances at Edgemoor County Farm. He was an aged inmate in the men's ward. A Coroner's jury at the time reported that Woods met death because of injuries inflicted upon him. The aged inmate appeared to have been severely beaten by some blunt instrument, according to this report. The District Attorney, at the time, conducted a brief inquiry, but took no decisive action.

ONTARIO-CHINO PEACH POOL MEN SELL HALF

CHINO, Aug. 11.—Discouraged for several weeks over the outlook regarding disposal of their peach crop for the season, members of Ontario-Chino peach pool were happier today, having sold half of their crops to green-peach buyers, it was indicated. Canneries in Ontario are now putting half of the crop through the process of canning. They paid the growers $20 per ton for fruit two and one-fourth inches in size, and $12.50 for fruit under two inches. The green-fruit buyers who wanted the entire crop of Tuscans, but came in too late, paid $30 per ton for the tonnage they were able to purchase. Had the green-fruit buyers not come into the field when they did the pool members would not have made any profit whatever on their crops, it was said today. Disposition of the midsummer crop hasn't been announced yet by pool officers. A meeting of pool members is to be called soon.

CHILDREN ENGAGE IN NAIL-GATHERING BEE

BELL, Aug. 11.—With Little Hedda Dees as captain of one group of children, and Marjorie Monroe heading the other, a nail-gathering contest was engaged in for a few days at the Fishburn school grounds, the contest finally coming to a close with the result that the Dees team gathered 3488 nails and the Monroe team 2705. The children not only held this contest, but at the same time cleared the large grounds of rubbish, getting them in readiness for the beginning of the next school year.

POLICE ASSOCIATION PLANS ANNUAL PICNIC

HUNTINGTON PARK, Aug. 11.—Arrangements are being made by the Huntington Park Police Association to hold its annual picnic at Municipal Park on Miles avenue, on Sunday, the 31st inst. A grand ball is also being arranged by the police to be held at La Doma ballroom on the night of September 26.

APPLE TREE'S DATES MIXED

Flirts Over Garden Wall With Orange Neighbor, and Now Look!

NORTH LOS ANGELES, Aug. 11.—Apparently this apple tree has got its dates mixed, so to speak. It has been flirting with an orange tree "over a garden wall" here, and as a result shows queer aspects.

The apple tree is the property of W. P. Taylor on Etiwanda street. This season it has taken on the habits of the orange tree, continuing to blossom and bear fruit much like an orange tree. Local nurserymen have inspected the freak growth and are without explanation. Last year the apple tree bloomed until Christmas season carrying its leaves all winter. The fruit of the tree is flat and green and most palatable.

A visiting fruit tree expert today saw the apple tree. He says the tree has been affected by some sort of freak pollination that once in a while takes place where orchards of different types of fruit adjoin.

Novelist's Wife Injured in Freak Auto Accident

ALTADENA, Aug. 11.—Mrs. Zane Grey, wife of the novelist, was injured slightly last night in a freak automobile accident at Michigan Boulevard and Ocean View avenue, in Montrose. Her nose was cut and she was bruised.

Mr. and Mrs. Grey were riding in their sedan which was being towed following engine trouble in the Mojave Desert, when J. J. Frost of 115 Oak Knoll avenue, Pasadena, is asserted to have driven over the tow rope, causing the novelist's machine to veer into a bank, breaking the windshield. Mr. Grey was uninjured, according to a report made to the local Sheriff substation.

Violation of Air Traffic Charged and Ship Held

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Police of Tia Juana, Baja California, today continued to hold a monoplane which W. D. Wood, Bloomington (Ill.) aviator, flew from that city to Agua Caliente with three women passengers and which he is alleged to have flown over Tia Juana at a low altitude.

Tia Juana officials stated that a report on the alleged air traffic violation had been forwarded to Mexico City and that the plane will be held until word is received stating the penalty for low flying.

The plane flown by Wood is listed as belonging to the Illini Air Transport Company of Bloomington, Ill.

Missionaries to Leave for China

REDLANDS, Aug. 11.—Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Stannard, both formerly of this city, she being the daughter of Mrs. Milo Smith of East Lugonia avenue, are under appointment of the American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society for medical mission work in China, and at the First Baptist Church here on September 7 a commission service will be held.

Dr. and Mrs. Stannard are graduates of the University of Redlands, later attending and graduating from the University of Kansas. After completing his medical course in the University of California, Dr. Stannard was interne in the General Hospital in Los Angeles. He and his wife will sail September 18 for Ning Po, China, where they will be in a large Baptist hospital in a city of 500,000 people.

Colton Coach to be Principal

COLTON, Aug. 11.—Donald McIntosh, the efficient and well-liked coach of Colton High School for several years, was named as principal of the high school here Saturday, when the resignation of F. Stillwell Moore was accepted.

McIntosh has been coach and social science teacher at the high school with a salary of $3200 a year, and it is understood he gets a substantial rise in his new work.

Moore resigned yesterday to take effect September 1. He plans to continue in school work, but has not announced where he will be next year.

ATMOC CLUBS TO BOOST CITY

Junior and Senior Organizations in Coast Tour to Emphasize "Everything Grows in Chino"

CHINO, Aug. 11.—To let the rest of the State know that "everything grows in Chino," thirty members of the junior and senior Atmoc clubs plan to leave here Friday on a trip that will carry them as far north as Klamath Falls, Or. On the way the boys will be entertained by various civic organizations.

A fleet of sport model Ford roadsters will carry the boys on their journey. The journey north is to be made on the inland route, and the return will be on the coast highway.

Accompanying the youthful travelers will be Arthur Wagner, sponsor of the club; an undesignated representative of Chino Chamber of Commerce, and Chief of Police Fred Derbyshire, who has been granted a ten-day leave of absence for purpose of escorting the caravan.

Basketball and baseball equipment is to be carried along, and a series of games will be staged with boys' organizations en route.

Rousing receptions will be given the boys at Crescent City, Ventura, Santa Barbara, Sebastopol and other cities along the itinerary, according to word sent to those in charge of the caravan.

Greetings will be taken from the population of Chino Valley to city officials of each city visited.

Anonymous Mate-Hunter Addresses County Clerk Backs at Santa Ana, in Search for Wife, and Sets Forth All His Likes and Dislikes

SANTA ANA, Aug. 11.—County Clerk J. B. Backs, whose ear has developed callouses from listening to the pleas of mate-hunters, today was urged to further undertake management of another matrimonial campaign.

Contrary to the usual frank and open agency assigned in such cases, the heart laid in Backs's hands today for delivery to some feminine pattern of old-fashioned perfection was screened by shy anonymity.

The girl who wants a wedding date with this 40-year-old suitor must take a chance with a Los Angeles postoffice box. Just like a blind advertisement in the newspapers. All she will know beforehand is that he is 40 years of age, likes music, theaters, beaches and outdoor sports, but doesn't care for dancing, and decidedly disapproves of girls who use rouge and smoke cigarettes.

He issues a blanket indictment of all Los Angeles girls, saying he has met none there who doesn't rouge and smoke to extreme. That, he says, has driven him to look elsewhere, with the aid of County Clerk Backs.

His preference, he says, runs to a plain, true, home-loving girl, not extravagant, willing to live in country or city, one who can cook and who will not fuss. Mail addressed to Box 1446, Los Angeles, will receive prompt attention, it is intimated.

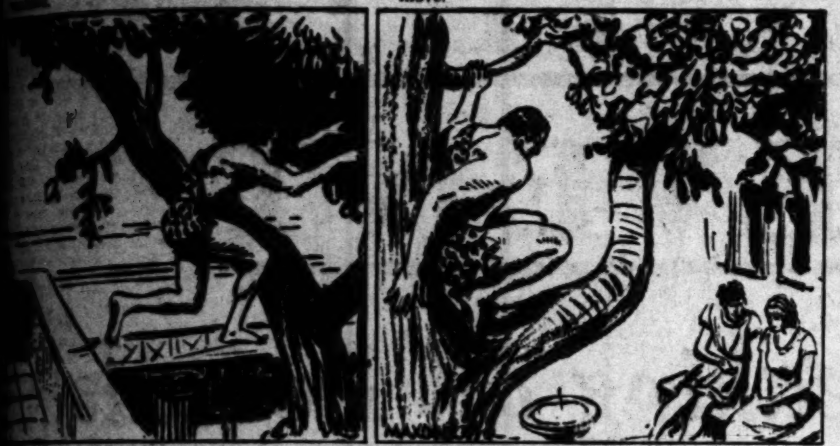
the guardsmen rushed with javelins poised to Tarzan, they saw their quarry turn and take a quick steps, leap high into the air and disappear the foliage of an overhanging oak. A dozen hurled among the branches of the tree. soldiers rushed forward, but their quarry had vanished.

Sublatus, the Emperor, was close upon the heels of his soldiers. "Quick!" he cried. "After him. A thousand denarii to the man who brings down the barbarian!" "There he goes!" cried one, pointing. "No," cried another, "I saw him there among the foliage. I saw the branches move."



In the meantime, the ape-man made his way through the trees along one side of the avenue, dropped to a low roof, crossed it and sprang a tree that rose from an inner court, pausing to listen for signs of pursuit. After the manner of a wild beast hunted through the jungle, he moved as silently as a shadow.

There were two people in the courtyard below him, but his movements were so quiet that they were unaware of his presence. Tarzan, however, was not unaware of theirs, and as he listened to the noise of the growing pursuit, he took note of the girl and the man in the garden beneath him.

FRANKLIN FUND RULING SOUGHT

Boston Treasurer Refers Dispute to Court

Conflict Develops Over Administration

Bequest of $5000 Grows to Half Million

BOSTON, Aug. 11. (Exclusive)—Dispute has arisen over management of the fund bequeathed to the city of Boston by Benjamin Franklin as an object lesson on thrift.

The fund, originally $5000, has grown to nearly $500,000, despite disbursements, and Edmund L. Dolan, City Treasurer, today asked the Supreme Court to settle questions that have arisen over its investment and administration owing to changed conditions since Franklin drew his will.

WILL PROVISIONS

Under the will, the $5000 (it was then £1000) was left to "inhabitants of the town of Boston in Massachusetts."

The will provided that the gift be invested and controlled by the town select men and the ministers of the oldest Episcopal, Congregational and Presbyterian churches in the city.

One clause of the will—Franklin was a great believer in family life—provided that portions of the fund were to be loaned at 5 per cent interest to "worthy young married men less than 25 years old."

The will further provided that at the end of 100 years the managers should spend in public works 100-131sts of the fund, the remainder to be retained and reinvested. At the end of the second 100 years the entire fund accumulated was to be divided between Boston and the commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MANAGERS NAMED

The fund was paid over to the managers in 1791. It was invested and in 1891 the $5000 had grown until the 100-131sts to be distributed amounted to $329,300.48.

This was paid over to the city but court litigation held up the fund until a final Supreme Court decree in 1904 named nine persons as a board of managers.

Then, from the accumulated fund the managers spent $429,091.64 on the construction of what is now the Franklin Union, an institution affording persons working at a trade opportunity to increase their knowledge. Increase in the city's share was due to interest during the thirteen years the share was held in escrow.

Meanwhile the residue 31-131sts was at work and now it has grown to $476,348. The reader may figure what it will be in 1991.

Arizona Area Hit by Heaviest Rain in Twenty Years

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Aug. 11. (AP)—The heaviest rain in twenty years was reported from the Kirkland Valley near Prescott today. Kirkland Creek is running bank full. Granite Creek, also near this city, is experiencing its heaviest flow in ten years.

It rained here today. Precipitation yesterday measured 1.56 inches, bringing the total so far this month to 2.99 inches.

ONE KILLED IN BLAST'S RAMPAGE

Two Hurt, Dozen Buried When Explosion Wrecks New York Building

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—One person was killed, two were injured and twelve others were burned in debris for more than an hour late today after a chemist's experiment exploded and wrecked a downtown building.

The body of Erke Malino, 19 years of age, a press feeder, was dug out of the wreckage hours after the blast. Mrs. Lillian Leff, 40, suffering from severe contusions and abrasions, and Dominick Signorelli, 20, with a dislocated hip, were taken to a hospital. The others returned to their homes after first-aid treatment.

The explosion, which police say resulted from an attempt by Marcus Cohen, the chemist, to find a new formula for vanilla products, blew the roof from a five-story building and dropped it on a nearby structure housing the David Kroeger Company, printers. The added weight caused the roof and floors of the smaller building to collapse. Occupants were swept down two floors into the basement.

SIX DIE IN TENNESSEE HOME BLAZE

One Escapes but Loses Wife, Children, Father and Brother in Flames

JOHNSON CITY (Tenn.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Six lives are the toll of a fire which early today destroyed a four-room cottage near here.

Charles Witt died late today of burns received when he stumbled through flames and falling timbers. Hugh L. Witt, his son, who barely escaped the fire which burned to death his wife, two small children and brother, I. C. Witt, and Paul Reeder, of Elizabethton, is in a critical condition at a hospital here tonight.

Fire Chief Whaley, after an investigation, said evidence indicated a lighted cigarette might have started the blaze which a few minutes later reached fireworks stored in a back room.

Mrs. Hugh Witt, 24 years of age, her children, Hugh L., Jr., 3, and Marie, 18 months; I. C. Witt, 18, and Reeder, were trapped in the flames.

THEFT CHARGE JAILS YOUTHS

Accused of Stealing to Illuminate Church

Movietone Light Dimmers Found in Basement

Confess Taking Them from Pasadena Theater

PASADENA, Aug. 11. (Exclusive) Two youths with asserted zeal to equip a new church auditorium with modern lighting effects were in jail here tonight charged with suspicion of grand theft in connection with the disappearance of nine Movietone light dimmers from the Pasadena Theater.

The nine dimmers were found in the basement of the First Baptist Church where the youths confessed hiding them after taking them from the property room of the theater Saturday night. The youths are Eugene Smith, 22 years of age, 643 North Chester street, and Wilber Griffin, 766 Santa Barbara avenue.

The prisoners told Detective Lieutenant Cropsey they had taken the dimmers with the expectation of getting a contract to install them in the auditorium of the church.

L. T. Clark, assistant manager of the Fox West Coast Theaters in Pasadena, said he will swear to a complaint against the youths tomorrow.

Daughter of Late Senator W. A. Clark Gets Divorce on Grounds of Desertion

RENO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Mrs. Huguette Clark Gower, daughter of the late Senator W. A. Clark of Montana, was granted a divorce here today from William Macdonald Gower on grounds of desertion.

The couple married in Santa Barbara, Cal., Aug. 18, 1928, and separated more than a year ago. There are no children.

The decree was granted without contest and there was no property settlement or alimony award. Each of the parties released any interest he or she may have had or acquired in the property of the other.

Churchmen Join Drive to Purge Broadway Stage

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—Bishop William T. Manning of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise of the Free Synagogue today joined the crusade of the Catholic Church to purge the Broadway stage.

In a telegram to Mgr. Michael J. Lavelle, director of the campaign, Bishop Manning said:

"The present degradation of the stage is a calamity and a reflection upon all of us. It is time that such a crusade was undertaken and it should have the support of all decent elements in the community and especially of all who are friends of the theater and wish to see it fulfill its true and great function."

Phelan's Body Laid to Rest

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Final tribute was paid today to James D. Phelan, one of California's first citizens.

After funeral services in St. Ignatius Church the body of the man who served California as United States Senator and San Francisco as Mayor was laid to rest in the family vault in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Representatives of the nation, State, county and city gathered at the church as Rev. Dominic Giacobbi celebrated low requiem mass. No eulogy was delivered at the request of relatives.

PARAFFINE NET SHADES LOWER

Profits During Fiscal Year Equal $5.42 a Share

Management Cuts Production Costs Sharply

Investments in Affiliated Units Increased

Net profits of the Paraffine Companies, Inc., for the fiscal year ended June 30, last, were $2,556,041.76, equal to $5.42 a share on the average number of shares outstanding during the year, according to a report to stockholders by R. S. Shainwald, president, which was released yesterday. In the preceding year the company reported net profits of $2,863,259 after all charges and Federal taxes, equal to $6.37 a share on the 444,786 shares of common stock outstanding during the year.

While the net profits for the year just closed show a decrease of 10.73 per cent as compared with the prior year, an increase of $91,565.69, or 3.715 per cent over the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928, is shown, the report pointed out after calling attention to the fact that the past year included nine months of the business depression which began in the fall of 1929. The per share earnings of $5.42 per share were well in excess of dividend requirements at the present rate of $4 per share.

EFFICIENCY STRESSED

"As mentioned in prior reports, the efforts of the management have been continually directed to the improvement of our organization," the report continued, "and to the betterment of manufacturing facilities at our plants. No expense has been spared to bring these up to the highest point of efficiency, as is shown by the fact that in the two years ending June 30, last, there has been expended at the Emeryville plants the sum of $1,540,173, which has resulted in a marked reduction in manufacturing costs and increase in capacities. In addition, the sum of $1,436,871.69 has been added to our investments in other companies, largely through the issuance of treasury stock. Our records show that all of these expenditures and investments have been wisely made.

"As noted in last year's report, it was determined to give the shareholders a permanent interest in these expenditures by capitalizing them in part through the issuance of stock dividends. Three dividends of 2 per cent each have been declared and paid in June, 1929; December, 1929, and June, 1930, totaling 27,820 shares. Our floating debt has been increased, but this is more than outweighed by the increase in earning power. As there are no major appropriations now in prospect, all plants being in very excellent condition, a very large share of the future earnings of the company will be available for the rapid reduction of the floating debt and the improvement of the company's balance sheet. Subsidiary companies have also improved their plants and are now in a position to profit as soon as there is a resumption of business activity."

TRADE PROBLEM CLEARED

Through the cancellation of an agreement with six corporations in the United States, Canada, England and Germany restricting the use of trademarks to certain territories, the company is now in a position to distribute any of its manufactures anywhere, the report stated.

Stockholders increased to 2666 at the last dividend payment, of which 369 are employees.

The company has made no reductions in the personnel of its manufacturing, sales or office organization, nor has it made any wage cuts before or since the business depression last fall, according to a recent announcement. Besides continuing the normal wage and employment scale for its 3500 employees, the company maintained its regular vacation plan. Under a plan inaugurated six years ago the company was one of the first industrials in the United States to give all factory employees annual vacations with pay.

REDUCTION IN LOSS BY LUDLUM STEEL

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. — For the quarter ended June 30, last, the Ludlum Steel Company today reported net loss of $45,579 after charges and taxes, against net loss of $49,843 in the preceding quarter and a net profit of $311,958 in the second quarter of 1929. Net loss for the six months of this year totaled $95,428 after charges, compared with net income of $701,395 or $3.26 a share in the first half of the previous year after allowing for preferred dividends.

Browning Sees Trade Outlet

Prospects of greater trade expansion in many lines of business between Canada and Southern California are recited in a report received yesterday from George L. Browning, president of the Seaboard National Bank, who is on a vacation at Banff Hot Springs in Alberta. Before returning to this city, Mr. Browning will continue his vacation tour this month in the Canadian Rockies.

"I am greatly impressed with the progressive business spirit of the cities and towns I have visited in this section of Canada," writes Mr. Browning. "I find here many opportunities in every field of commercial endeavor for an increase in export and import trade with Southern California."

TURN IN PICTURE TIDE DUE

Fraser of Lloyd Productions Predicts Normal Times for Film Industry by September

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Promise of better times for the motion-picture industry before the close of the current month is held out by William R. Fraser, general manager of the Harold Lloyd Corporation. The picture business, like others, is having its share of worries, but Mr. Fraser is confident the turn will come by September.

"We have been going through the annual period of summer dullness which has been aggravated by extreme heat in all portions of the country, by the Midwest and eastern drought, and by a slump in general business and industrial conditions," said Mr. Fraser yesterday.

NORMALCY NEAR

"But when the calendar heads for September, the average American's mind turns toward motion-picture entertainment, and I confidently predict that near normal, if not normal conditions, will be reached in the motion-picture theater business by the middle of September."

This is encouraging news. The picture industry is an employer of labor in considerable volume, and its pay roll is an important factor in the prosperity of this community. Since the recent falling off of theater attendance, decline in profits and dividend omissions and reductions, the purveyors of pessimism have consigned the picture companies to temporary oblivion.

Mr. Fraser's semiannual survey of picture conditions, preparatory to launching the new Lloyd production schedule, refutes all this idle gossip.

"There is no question," he replies, "that the past two months have been a trying period for pictures. The force of counter-attractions, as well as general conditions, has furnished the industry with numerous problems. 'Putt-putt' golf courses have cut heavily into box-office receipts, it is claimed, but from my point of view it has been the beaches and kindred attractions that have suffered most from this golf craze.

"Producers are aware of what they have to face this coming fall, and the result unquestionably will be a grade of pictures that will place the industry on a new art pinnacle. Every major company is putting its best foot forward to meet the obstacles placed in the way of business this season.

BETTER PICTURES DUE

"Good pictures are always the best ammunition for depressed times and I am prepared to state now that this year should see better than the average collection of 'big pictures'—big in an entertainment sense."

Mr. Fraser pointed to the fact that the industry plans to spend in the next year nearly $225,000,000 for pictures. This amount is an increase of about $50,000,000 over last year and indicates, he said, the confidence of producers in the outlook.

Producers, said this authority, will turn out fewer pictures, but the quality will be much higher. The "filler" picture, in his opinion, is a thing of the past, and no theater can play them at a profit. The current depression has taught picture companies the outstanding lesson that high-quality pictures pay in bad times as well as good.

Loan Ratio to Listed Stocks Shows Decline

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (Exclusive) Total borrowings by members of the New York Stock Exchange against stock collateral on the 1st inst. amounted to 5.49 per cent of the market value of all shares listed on that date, compared with 5.83 per cent on July 1, a decrease of .34 per cent during the month. On August 1, 1929, this ratio stood at 8.87 per cent.

Market value of all shares listed on the exchange totaled $67,221,337,495, compared with $63,892,327,059 on July 1, an increase of $3,329,010,436. During July loans to brokers decreased $38,228,892 to $3,689,482,297 at the end of the month.

There were 1316 stock issues aggregating 1,269,861,473 shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange, against 1319 issues aggregating 1,231,273,258 shares on July 1.

County of Santa Cruz Bonds Out

G. F. Rogers & Co., Los Angeles investment banking house, yesterday announced the offer of $300,000 county of Santa Cruz municipal improvement 7 per cent serial bonds, due 1931 to 1940 inclusive, at prices to yield 6½ per cent.

Proceeds of the issue have been used for the installation of paving, curbs, sidewalks, water system, etc., in the Rio Del Mar district of Santa Cruz county. The improvement embraces 1400 acres of residential property, the major portion of which lies between the State highway and Monterey Bay.

BATTERY COMPANY IN YEAR REPORT

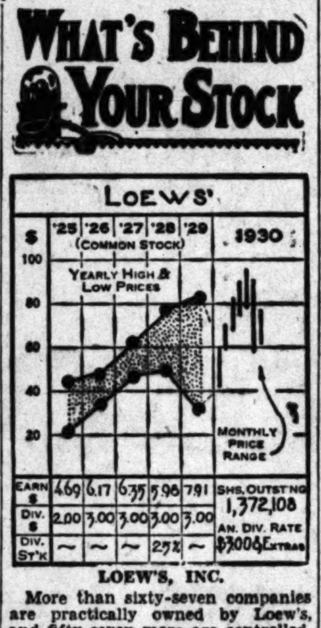
CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (Exclusive) National Battery Company for the fiscal year ended June 30, last, today reported consolidated net income of $480,526 after all charges, including Federal taxes, equal after preferred dividends to $4.52 a share on 898,049 common shares. In the preceding year the net income for the parent company only was $436,041, or $4.09 a share on 85,000 common shares.

EARNINGS TOLD

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (Exclusive) June quarter profits of Universal Pipe and Radiator Company were $28,505 after depreciation, Federal taxes, etc., equal to $1.69 a share on 26,097 shares of 7 per cent preferred stock.



LOEW'S, INC.

More than sixty-seven companies are practically owned by Loew's, and fifty-seven more are controlled, giving the company a wide interest in the motion-picture and vaudeville theater business in the United States and in many European capitals. Control is held by the Fox Film Corporation in turn controlled by the General Theaters Equipment Company. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, producing subsidiary, is a heavy contributor to earnings.

Earnings in 1929, available for the common stock, amounted to $11,756,900, or $7.91 per share, comparing favorably with $8,568,200, or $5.98 per share in 1928. Continuation of this expansion into 1930 was recorded, when income for the twenty-eight weeks ended March 14 was $8,244,000, or $5.70 per share on the common stock. In the period beginning January 1 and ending March 10 in 1929, net was $5,252,000, or $3.49 per share. The balance sheet as of March 14, 1930, shows current assets of $35,737,000 against current liabilities of $6,990,000, leaving as indicated, net working capital amounting to $28,747,000. The book value per share on this date was $41.16.

Net Income of Holly Oil Off for Past Year

Net income of Holly Oil Company for the fiscal year ended June 30, last, was $75,033.76 after all charges, including depreciation and depletion, equal to 41 cents a share on 182,000 shares of $5 par capital stock, as against $119,029.11, or 66 cents a share on the same capitalization in the preceding year, according to the pamphlet report issued yesterday. Net profits before depreciation and depletion were $127,176.70, or 70 cents a share, as against $167,592.69, or 92 cents a share in the year ended June 30, 1929.

Crude oil sales less royalties amounted to $273,240.74, as against $329,157.62 in the previous year. Monthly production averaged 9471 barrels, compared with 11,700 barrels last year.

Earned surplus decreased from $290,173.19 on June 30, 1929, to $180,642.15, while net current assets showed a decrease of $56,451.83 from $367,584.41 at the end of the year just closed.

Reduced earnings were due about equally to the decline in oil production and the closing down of the company's refinery because of unsettled market conditions for finished products, A. E. Carlton, president, stated in the report. With the recent termination of the so-called gasoline price war on the Pacific Coast, the refinery will soon start processing approximately 125,000 barrels of crude oil in the company's storage tanks, Mr. Carlton said.

Forbes Believes Deflation at End

B. C. Forbes, leading financial writer for the Hearst newspapers, expressed the opinion at a luncheon given in his honor yesterday at the Biltmore by the Los Angeles Examiner, that business and the stock market both have been thoroughly deflated. Wall street opinion, he said, is now as unreasonably pessimistic as it was enthusiastic at the top of the bull market.

George I. Cochran, president of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, introduced the speaker, and W. Kenneth Hayes, financial editor of the Examiner, presided.

WARNER BROS. CLOSE NEW BOOKING DEAL

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. — Warner Brothers' Pictures, Inc., has closed a booking transaction with the Butterfield Circuit in Michigan, whereby the entire product of Warner Brothers and Vitaphone will be shown in the Butterfield Circuit, comprising about sixty houses in more than twenty-five cities throughout Michigan.

CALIFORNIA CROP YIELD HOLDS FIRM

Santa Fe Survey Points to Return for Growers Near Normal

Most California crops are made or in the last stages of making with yields from fair to good and selling is now the State's main business, according to the review of agricultural and business conditions in States served by the Santa Fe Railroad which was released yesterday.

Production costs have averaged lower this season and notwithstanding a possible lower average return per unit on many crops, the growers' profit per acre may be equal to, or above, that of other years of normal production in this State, the report points out.

The high price level of California citrus fruit continues with the hot weather in the East causing a heavy demand for both lemons and oranges while avocados are bringing the highest prices in history. The harvesting of deciduous fruits is under way and the movement of grapes will start this month.

Despite the drought, live stock has been in fair condition, but reports of suffering in the last few days have come from various parts of the Southwest.

Western Steel Volume Nearly on Normal Basis

Completion of a satisfactory half year, both in respect to volume of business and net profits, was reported yesterday by Howard G. Tallerday, executive vice-president of the Western Pipe and Steel Company of California, at the regular dividend meeting in San Francisco. Directors declared the regular quarterly dividend of 50 cents, payable September 5 to stock of record the 25th inst.

Operations of the San Francisco plant, he announced, have been running at capacity and will continue at that rate. Activities at the Los Angeles plant have been somewhat curtailed, due principally to inactivity in the oil industry.

Unfilled orders on the books of the Western Pipe and Steel Company as of June 30, last, were on a comparable basis with the preceding quarter, he said. Indications are that 1930 will be one of the best years in the history of the company, Mr. Tallerday predicted, with the possible exception of the phenomenal business done in 1929.

Bonbright to Open Branch Office Here

Entrance of the nationally known investment house of Bonbright & Co. into Los Angeles was announced yesterday, as well as changes in the management of the various offices now operated by the company on the Pacific Coast. Hayward C. Thomas, who has been in charge of the San Francisco office, will have charge of the new Los Angeles branch, formal opening of which will be announced later.

Fred Loomis, formerly in charge of the Seattle office, will be transferred to San Francisco and Robert Sheppard, formerly at Portland, will succeed Loomis at Seattle. A. D. Wakeman, recently of A. D. Wakeman & Co., will assume management of the Portland office.

Bonbright & Co. is one of the largest investment houses specializing in the underwriting and distribution of public utility securities.

MINING COMPANY TO BUILD LOCAL PLANT

Fernholtz Machinery Manufacturing Company, Ltd., has signed a contract with the Goldfields Consolidated Mines Exploration Company whereby it will construct the first of a series of plants in Los Angeles for the company, it was announced yesterday. These plants will use a heretofore waste product, petroleum coke, coke breeze and coal screenings, through a patented process to form briquettes. The first plant will be at Wilmington on property leased from the Shell Oil Company.

EQUITABLE BUILDING PROFITS INCREASE

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. — For the quarter ended July 31, last, the Equitable Office Building reported net profits of $610,834 after charges and taxes, equal after preferred dividends to 68 cents a share on 893,784 shares of common. This compares with $600,076, or 67 cents in the same three months of last year. July net profits were $195,845 after charges, compared with $210,565 in July, 1929.

SOVIET ORDER FOR OLIVER COMPANY

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—Oliver Farm Equipment Company has received a substantial order from the Amtorg Trading Corporation for tractors and combines for use on state farms in Russia. Shipments will be made over a period from now to April. No information could be obtained as to number of units involved or aggregate amount of the contract.

DIVIDEND OMITTED

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—Directors of the Hardison-Walker Refractories Company today omitted the extra dividend of 25 cents a common share due at this time. Regular disbursements on the common and preferred were authorized.

BUSINESS TEMPO OUTLINED

Survey Presents Current Condition of Industry and Prospects for Immediate Future

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

This is the first of a series of ten special articles by John F. Sinclair, discussing and analyzing the business depression and present economic conditions, with speculation regarding what the future may hold in store.

"Business has been sick! It still feels pretty tough—but it's getting on its feet again, and soon we'll have forgotten the business headache we've had for a few months."

This was the view of "R. S.," expressed in a letter to me.

It set me thinking. Here we have had nearly a year of major depression, evidenced by a dropping commodity and stock-price level, unemployment, slackening trade—both foreign and domestic—and wage reductions.

Let us begin by saying that some students believe the bottom has already been reached, and that the worst of the business storm is over.

The Business Week recently gave eight solid facts that point to a business upturn: (1) Expanding bank credit; (2) idle money seeking a job; (3) bare shelves; (4) sustained public buying power; (5) farm income prospects; (6) raw material imports; (7) home building; (8) automobile outlook.

R. W. McNeel, Boston, makes his remarks a little more personal to those who are interested in the stock market by saying:

"Those who hold good and sound stocks, or purchase them at current levels, can, therefore, look ahead confidently to receiving some time in the future substantially higher prices for them, regardless of immediate fluctuations."

This opinion is fairly widely held at the moment.

Others believe that business may be a little slow in coming back, with good prospects, however, that it will be back to normal in a few months.

The Brookmire Economic Service in a recent summary of business conditions says:

(1.) Business has entered upon the last stage of the 1929-30 decline. The bottom will probably be found well below June levels.

(2.) Unless the decline becomes sharper, ending in a veritable slump there will be little or no recovery before November.

(3.) The whole of the third quarter will probably fall below the average of the second quarter.

(4.) The return to fully normal business conditions will be deferred to some period during the first half of 1931.

Dr. W. Randolph Burgess, Federal Reserve Bank of New York, said recently that improvement in the business world could be expected before many months because of two factors.

(1.) The actual decline in volume of business activity is nothing like as severe as might be assumed from much of the public discussion . . . The decrease in business since May of last year has been about 12 per cent.

(2.) While production is considerably depressed, consumption is very little depressed.

Then this New York banker said: "It is the continuation of the consumption of goods at a fairly even pace by 120,000,000 people, requiring a continued flow of goods from the wholesaler to the consumer and from the producer to the wholesaler, which gives us assurance that just as in former times, the economic maladjustments of this period will be ironed out before many months have elapsed."

There is another group who feel that in this period of declining world prices certain facts not ordinarily discussed must be understood and accepted by the business world before major improvement will come.

Which is right? Is the business storm over, half over or just starting?

Who is there to say definitely?

Goodyear Tire Profits Decline; Raw Stocks Cut

AKRON, Aug. 11.—Net profits of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company for the six months ended June 30, last, today were reported at $5,592,309 after interest and depreciation of $6,381,250, taxes, etc., and after marking down raw materials to cost of market as of June 30, last. These earnings compare with net profits of $12,633,865 in the first half of 1929.

Net sales totaled $110,804,582 compared with $136,747,841 in the 1929 period.

Inventories of raw materials and commitments for future deliveries of raw materials were written down to lower than cost or market on June 30, last, out of current earnings. The reserve of $5,000,000 provided in previous years against raw material declines remains intact. Inventories of finished products are carried at cost without writing down the rubber and cotton content as it is expected inventories of finished products will be liquidated during the present quarter without loss.

Chapman Ice Cream Net Up

Gross sales of the Chapman Ice Cream Company for July amounted to $85,150.85, as compared with $62,511.97 for June, an increase of $22,638.88, while net profits before Federal taxes were $25,470.73 in July, as against $14,620.63 in the preceding month, a gain of $10,850.10, A. A. Comey, president, reported yesterday.

The company's expansion program for this year has been fully completed. The third regular quarterly dividend of 31 1-4 cents will be paid when due on October 15 to stock of record September 25 and in addition there is a probability that an extra cash dividend may be paid, Mr. Comey stated.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—Activity on the bond market in the New York Stock Exchange was at low ebb today. In one of the dullest sessions of the year, a mixed movement developed which extended to the best grade bonds. Total sales were only $5,923,000.

A few railroad and utility issues climbed to new highs for the year, but the moderate selling which came into the market depressed some leaders ½ or ½ point. The rally of Atchison 4½s, which soared 3 points, was outstanding among convertible bonds. Railroad bonds in this group were steady to firm, while other stock privilege issues were irregular. Warner Brothers convertible 6s dipped further to another new low for the year. Leaders in the foreign section were steady.

The turnover in United States governments was very small. Liberty issues holding firm. Treasury issues moved lower. Bankers expect the government will be able to market $120,000,000 in Treasury bills at a favorable rate.

(In thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in order given. To expedite transmission the close is omitted when the same as the high, and both low and close when same as high.

Five Sound Features
...recommending the 15 year 6½% Convertibles of Signal Oil and Gas Co.

GROWTH of this company, today the largest independent producer of natural gasoline in California, has been due to efficient manufacturing, and merchandising practices... not to any unusual oil discovery.

NET EARNINGS for 1929 were 4.75 times the combined maximum annual interest and sinking fund requirements of these bonds. For the first quarter of 1930, net earnings increased over the same period last year.

ASSETS equivalent to $3,800 per $1,000 applicable to this issue. Valuable producing properties located in California's major oil fields, also in Texas and Oklahoma.

YIELD of 6½%, at current prices.

CONVERTIBLE into the company's Class "A" common stock (listed on the L. A. Stock Exchange) at the holder's option, this direct obligation provides an opportunity to share in the company's earnings.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—Considerably lighter receipts and some improvement in demand put the week's opening trade on a more active basis, with prices mainly fully steady and some sales showing a 15@25c advance. Majority of offerings changed hands by the noon hour. While the market was rather uneven the stronger tone was encouraging and with continued moderate receipts most members of the trade look for a fairly even market. No eastern fed steers were available, but several loads of Colorado cows were sold, including some held over from Saturday.

Two loads of 1190 to 1213-pound fed Idaho steers topped at 8.50 and were of medium to good quality. Two loads of medium 826-pound Texas steers cashed at 7.65 and three loads of 807 to 998-pound Imperials at 7.40@7.60. A load of California cake and barley fed steers made 8.00 and a few loads of native and Imperial steers turned at 6.75@7.25. Mexican steers from Imperial Valley and Arizona scored 6.35@6.75, with odd head of low grade natives down to 5.25.

Small lots of medium to good heifers turned at 6.75@7.50, with very common kinds down to 5.00 and below. Five loads of 1000 to 1091-pound Colorado cows of medium to good quality made 6.10@6.65, with bulk of common to medium native, Imperial and dairy type she stock going at 4.75@6.25. Low cutters and cutters sold mainly at 2.50@4.50, with thin shelly cows down to 2.00. Bulls showed some of the advance with good butcher bulls selling at 5.60@6.35 and common to medium kinds at 4.00@5.50.

CALVES—Very moderate receipts were sold readily at around 25c higher rates and a few choice vealers made considerably more gain. Odd head of such kinds sold up to 13.00, with practical top standing at 11.75. Bulk of common to medium calves brought 9.00@11.50, with culls down to 6.00.

HOGS—An active trade took all offerings at prices 25@40c above last Friday. Three loads of 185 to 188-pound Colorado butchers topped at 11.15, with a load of 174-pound weights at 11.00. A load of 200-pound Imperials made 10.75, with a load of 158-pound Nebraskas at 10.60. Local fed and Californias made 10.00@10.35, with heavier kinds at 9.75. Packing sows cashed at 8.25@8.85.

SHEEP—Lambs were fully steady, but nothing of quality was offered. Three decks of common 87-pound Californias made 6.50 and choice light lambs are quoted to 8.00. A deck of good 122-pound ewes were strong at 4.50, sorted 10 per cent at 2.50.

These bonds have been issued by the County of Santa Cruz under the provisions of the Municipal Improvement Act of 1915. The proceeds of this issue have been used for the paving, curbs, sidewalks, water system, etc. and otherwise improving the main street Rio Del Mar District.

This improvement district embraces 1400 acres of residential property, the major portion of which lies between the State Highway and the Monterey Bay. This district is a dential community restricted to modern high class homes. It includes a new $250,000 type hotel and an 18-hole all grass fairways golf course and Club House serving 1,000 members. The beach frontage of the district lies in Monterey Bay which is widely for its scenic beauty and ideal bathing conditions.

Both the interest and the principal due on these bonds is collected with and as a part of the general County taxes.

Legality of these bonds has been certified by the approving opinion of Messrs. Wilson & Brooks, San Francisco.

Corn Features Grain Exchange in Sharp Rise

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Sensationally pessimistic unofficial field advices turned corn values upward late today, despite good rains in drought territory and notwithstanding widespread relief from abnormal heat. Wheat values sympathized to some extent with the renewal of corn price advances, but fell back again at the finish, dominated by general and correct belief that the government crop report, due after the close, would make a bearish exhibit as to wheat. Besides, export demand today for wheat from North America appeared to be at a standstill, and the United States visible supply total showed a fresh increase of 10,307,000 bushels.

Closing quotations on corn were firm, ⅜@1⅛c a bushel higher than Saturday's finish. Wheat closed unsteady at 1⅛@2⅝c net loss, with oats ½@1c off and provisions showing 5@25c sag.

Corn traders focused their attention on comprehensive summaries issued by leading private experts, who have returned here from first-hand examination of crops, and who have covered the corn belt from end to end. One of these experts furnished information about corn in Iowa and Northern Illinois which temporarily tended to give an advantage to the selling side. He said the crop both in Iowa and in Northern Illinois is still promising a yield of not far below normal, as a result of the stand of corn in the region referred to being heavier than elsewhere.

Subsequently, however, the bearish effect of encouraging references to Iowa's probable corn crop and to that of Northern Illinois was more than offset by general notice being taken that the same authority said the corn crop in other sections had suffered more from drought and heat than he had ever witnessed before in forty-two years of traveling. Advances which ensued were greatly accelerated toward the last by assertions of another of the country's foremost unofficial crop experts the corn crop as a whole is in a deplorable condition, and the yield will be lighter than generally expected. Early price declines which had resulted from general lowering of temperatures and from moisture relief in various localities were more than overcome in the corn market as the day drew to an end.

It was generally anticipated also that, as shown after the close, the government crop report about corn would prove even more radically bullish than Secretary Hyde's recent forecast of 500,000 bushels drought damage.

Wheat rallied with corn somewhat late, but quickly resumed a downward swing which had begun at the opening of business. An estimate that the European carryover of wheat this season is 116,000,000 bushels less than last year had only a transient stimulating influence. Emphasizing slackness of European demand for North American wheat was a report Russia has sold 3,500,000 bushels to other trans-Atlantic countries at about 5c a bushel under quotations on Canadian wheat of equal grade. Oats went lower with wheat, but met good demand on declines.

Holders of provisions showed themselves disposed to realize profits, and to ignore an upturn in hog values.

AMERICAN COMPOSITE TRUST SHARES

CUMULATIVE SERIES

A Definite Method of Investment

which provides in a Single Purchase a Composite Investment in Forty Selected Corporations

THE CHASE NATIONAL BANK OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

AMERICAN COMPOSITE SHARES CORPORATION

Dividends payable semi-annually on June 30th and December 31st of each year at the principal office of the Trustee, in the City of New York or at any other duly designated paying agency in the United States or in foreign countries. Coupon certificates registerable (but not as to coupons) at the option of the holder at the principal office of the Trustee, otherwise transferable by delivery. Certificate denominations: 4,000, 1,000, 500, 100, 50, 25, 10 and 5 shares.

A Trust Agreement has been entered into between The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, as Trustee, and American Composite Shares Corporation, a New York corporation, as Depositor, under the terms of which shares of common stocks and accumulations thereon comprising not less than a quarter of a Unit as therein defined or a multiple thereof may be deposited with the Trustee in trust for the benefit of the holders of American Composite Trust Shares issued against the stocks so deposited under said Trust Agreement. The life of the Trust Agreement is in perpetuity except that it may be terminated by the Depositor and/or the Trustee for reasons set forth in the Trust Agreement.

The Deposited Stocks

Each American Composite Trust Share Cumulative Series represents a 1/4000th undivided beneficial interest in a Unit consisting of the following shares of common stocks deposited with the Trustee. No substitutions may be made except in the event of a recapitulation, merger (including conveyance), consolidation, reorganization, or exchange of shares on the conditions set forth in the Trust Agreement.

MOODY'S COMPOSITE RATING "A"

Diversification

Three major factors should be provided if a composite investment is to enjoy true and complete diversification and correct balance. These are: (1) The number of dollars invested in each stock should be as near an even percentage of the total fund as possible; (2) Industrial diversification; (3) Wide geographical diversification.

These three major factors of successful investment are combined in American Composite Trust Shares through careful grouping and selection of the deposited stocks and initially placing the amount of dollars invested in any one stock as near 2½% of the value of a Unit as practical.

Retention of Common Stock Dividends, Stock Split-ups, etc.

All shares of common stock received by the Trustee in respect of the deposited stocks from stock dividends, stock split-ups or otherwise, are required to be retained and added to the Unit to the extent that they are divisible by four with respect to each Unit (or by the appropriate divisor with respect to then existing fractional Units.) Such whole or fractional shares of common stock remaining after such division and all rights, warrants and all other securities or property received by the Trustee in respect of any of the deposited stocks are required to be sold by the Trustee and the net proceeds thereof, together with any other cash received by the Trustee, distributed as part of the semi-annual dividends on the Trust Shares, all as more fully set forth in the Trust Agreement. Such division and sale provide for an even convertibility of 1000 Trust Shares or multiples thereof into the deposited stocks.

The Depositor Pays Trustee's Fees

The Depositor has agreed to pay all charges of the Trustee for holding the deposited stocks, authenticating the Trust Certificates, paying the dividend coupons, exchanging the Trust Certificates for stock and/or cash, and disbursing the proceeds of the deposited stocks upon the termination of the Agreement as well as of the Trustee's annual fee under the Trust Agreement. Neither the Depositor nor the Trustee is given any line upon or beneficial interest in the deposited stocks or the dividends thereon for the payment of such charges. The Depositor is entitled to have paid to it the interest allowed by the Trustee on moneys held by the Trustee awaiting semi-annual distributions.

Dividend Record and Appreciation

A statistical record which is available indicates that had American Composite Trust Shares been created December 31, 1928, the dividends on each Trust Share for the year 1929 would have been slightly over $1.00, and that had they been created December 31, 1919, the average annual dividends for the ten-year period ended December 31, 1929, would have been at least $1.42 on each Trust Share and the value of each Trust Share would have increased from $13.75 to $55.27 on March 31, 1930.

Convertibility

Holders of American Composite Trust Shares may, upon surrender thereof to the Trustee, receive for 1000 Trust Shares or multiples thereof their proportionate share of the deposited stocks and accumulations thereon, and for less than 1,000 Trust Shares cash equal to the net market value of their proportionate share of the deposited stock and accumulations thereon, all without penalty, as provided in the Trust Agreement.

Market

All of the deposited stocks are listed on the New York Stock Exchange with the exception of Consolidated Gas, Electric Light & Power Co. of Baltimore, Commonwealth Edison Company and Electric Bond and Share Company, which are traded in on the New York Curb Exchange. In addition the first two are listed on the Baltimore Stock Exchange and Chicago Stock Exchange, respectively. A market for American Composite Trust Shares based upon the aggregate current market prices of the deposited stocks is quoted in leading newspapers.

The above summary of the salient features of American Composite Trust Shares Cumulative Series is subject to the more complete description contained in the Standard offering circular and within the Trust Agreement under which they are issued. All legal matters pertaining to the Trust Agreement and the creation of these Trust Shares have been approved by Messrs. Hornblower, Miller & Garrison and Messrs. Menken, Ferguson & Hills, New York, N. Y. Statistics upon which compilations are based have been prepared by Standard Statistics, Inc., and while not guaranteed have been taken by them from sources to be reliable.

Current Market Price about $9.50 per Trust Share

These Trust Shares are issued continuously and offered by Security Dealers and Banks, throughout the United States, Canada, and European Countries. Inquiries invited from Investors, Dealers and Banks.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—The curb market resisted a further bear drive against the utilities today, and closed irregularly higher. Trading was in moderate volume, with a total of 489,300 shares transferred.

Electric Bond and Share was heavily sold by the bear element, and got down nearly 3 points, but it closed at 75¼, off only about a point. American Gas and Electric dropped about 5, then rallied 2. United Light A was bid up 1½, but then lost its gain. United States Electric Power and Utilities Power and Light were firm.

The natural gas issues were uniformly steady to firm, with a wide assortment showing fractional advances. Houston Oil, also primarily a gas issue, rose about a point.

Operations for the advance were resumed in Ford, Ltd., which shot up about 2 points to a new high at 23½. Industrials and specialties were dull. Deere and Technicolor mounted more than a point and Rubberoid, 3. Aluminum Company dropped 13½ points to 227. Johnson Motor tumbled 9½ to a new low at 14½.

Investment and holding company issues were steady to firm. Cities Service and United Founders closed about steady, after throwing off early heaviness. Goldman-Sachs moved up a little. Intercoast Trading, and affiliate of Transamerica, dropped more than a point to a new low at 11½.

Oils were quiet and irregular. Gulf gained 2 points and Humble a fraction. Cosden was neglected. Ohio Oil lost a point and Vacuum nearly 2.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

OIL NEWS

BY PORTER FLINT

That an excellent oil sand underlies the Potrero town-lot area below 6000 feet now is the belief of operators since York & Lockhart's Willis No. 2 on Prairie avenue between Queen and Aerick streets came in from a depth of 6377 feet for an estimated flow of from 1000 to 1500 barrels of 37-deg. gravity oil a day.

York & Lockhart's latest producer is several blocks southwest of the Richfield Oil Company's Coffin No. 1, which recently completed for 250 barrels daily at a depth slightly below 6200 feet and lends strength to the belief that the deeper producing formation underlies all of the town-lot district at Potrero.

Within the past week several unusually successful wells have been brought in. Richfield's Coffin No. 1 and its Sloan No. 1 were completed in the lower zones. The company's Sloan No. 1 had an initial yield of about 300 barrels of high-gravity oil a day and yesterday it had increased to approximately 800 barrels a day. Its Coffin No. 1 will be drilled this week to enable it to be cleaned out to bottom to improve flow. There are fifteen other projects in the Potrero town-lot area that are drilling ahead, majority of those will probably try for the deeper production.

Committee to Meet

New allowables and potentials will be set Thursday morning when the fact-finding committee headed by W. E. Dunlap meets in the offices of the California Oil and Gas Association.

At the present rate of activity, indications are that the fixed potential of the Venice oil field will be increased from 8000 barrels daily. The daily production there at present exceeds 15,000 barrels of oil. The Barnsdall-Cypress combination's Burks No. 3, a short distance southeast of the Ohio Oil Company's discovery well, is the latest completion. It came in for 1000 barrels daily from the lower zone. At least fifteen new completions are expected within the next three weeks and officials handling the oil-curtailment program now admit that Venice is a menace to the success of the plan and are studying means of handling the situation.

Activity Grows

Activity in the Venice field now includes at least forty drilling projects out of 104 actual locations. Of this group, eighteen wells have been completed since discovery of the field last December by the Ohio Oil Company. Sixteen of the completions are on steady production, most from the deeper zone. Two are cleaning out to bottom to be restored to production.

Fifty-two operators have gone into the Venice field since its discovery. Of the most active, Ohio leads the list with nearly a dozen projects. Other active operators include the Barnsdall-Cypress combination, Mohawk Petroleum, Venice Oil Syndicate, Deuel Petroleum, Star Petroleum, Union, Hancock and a number of the smaller operators. The field is second to the Signal Hill field in point of activity throughout the State.

Remains Steady

Daily production of oil in the Signal Hill field has remained

That an excellent oil sand underlies the Potrero town-lot area below [illegible] now is the belief of operators since York & Lockhart's [illegible] No. 2 on Prairie avenue between [illegible] and Aerick streets came in from a depth of 6377 feet with an estimated flow of from 1000 to [illegible] barrels of 37-deg. gravity oil a day.

York & Lockhart's latest producer is several blocks southwest of the Richfield Oil Company's Coffin No. 1, which recently completed for 250 barrels daily at a depth slightly below the gas [illegible] and lends strength to the belief that the deeper producing zone underlies all of the town-lot district at Potrero.

Within the past week several unusually successful wells have been brought in. Richfield's Coffin No. 1 and [illegible] Sloan No. 1 were completed in the lower zones. The company's Sloan No. 1 had an initial yield of [illegible] barrels of high-gravity oil a day and yesterday it had increased to approximately 800 barrels a day. Its Coffin No. 1 will be killed this week to enable it to be cleaned out to bottom to improve production. There are fifteen other projects in the Potrero town-lot area that are drilling ahead, majority of which will probably try for the deeper production.

Committee to Meet

New allowables and potentials will be set Thursday morning when the fact-finding committee headed by [illegible] Dunlap meets in the offices of the California Oil and Gas Association.

At the present rate of activity, indications are that the fixed potential of the Venice oil field will be increased [illegible] barrels daily. The daily production there at present exceeds [illegible] barrels of oil. The Barnsdall-Cypress combination's Burks No. 1, a short distance southeast of the Ohio Oil Company's discovery well, is the latest completion. It came in for 1000 barrels daily from the lower zone. At least fifteen new completions are expected within the next three weeks and officials handling the oil-curtailment program [illegible] that Venice is a menace to the success of the plan and are seeking means of handling the situation.

Activity in the Venice field now includes at least forty drilling projects out of 184 actual locations. Of this group, eighteen wells have been completed since discovery of the field last December by the Ohio Oil Company. Sixteen of the completions are on steady production, most from the deeper zone. Two are cleaning out to bottom to be returned to production.

Fifty-two operators have gone into the Venice field since its discovery. Of the most active, Ohio heads the list with nearly a dozen projects. Other active operators include the Barnsdall-Cypress combination, Mohawk Petroleum, Venice Oil Syndicate, Deuel Petroleum, [illegible] Petroleum, Union, Hancock and a number of the smaller operators. The field is second to the Signal Hill field in point of activity throughout the State.

Production Steady

Daily production of oil in the Signal Hill field has remained around the 100,000-barrel mark several weeks. Yesterday, it was flowing at the rate of 103,000 barrels a day. The Dabney-Johnston Oil Corporation's No. 49 was completed in the southeasterly portion of the field for 625 barrels a day.

On the south flank of the Signal Hill field, Tom Cannon's Jones No. 3 completed for 500 barrels a day. In the Los Cerritos field, F. M. Lanthrop's McAdoo & Coulter No. 1 came in for 350 barrels daily and the Community Monarch Oil Company's Reagan No. 1 came in recently for an undetermined amount of oil a day. Throughout the Signal Hill field there are 112 active drilling projects.

Spuds Soon

George F. Getty, Inc., is running in steel for a derrick to go up on its Nigger Heaven project in Yolo county, where the operator recently took over 2500 acres and will drill a test for gas in a district where a number of core holes were drilled a few years ago.

Getty's latest undertaking is about twenty-five miles northwest of Woodland, and will be located on Sec. 23, 12-3. The Nigger Heaven structure is said to be from fifteen to twenty miles long and from one to one-half mile wide. Getty's acreage takes in what is thought to be a dome about four miles long.

One of the first tests to be drilled on the Nigger Heaven structure went to 1200 feet and developed a gas well capable of flowing 6,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day. Getty's project will be drilling within two weeks.

Completes One

The Shell Oil Company has just completed Jewett No. 13 at Round Mountain. It came in for 275 barrels of 20-deg. gravity oil per day from a depth of 1650 feet. Shell is building road preparatory to building of derrick for Jewett No. 3-4 in the same field. The company has developed considerable shallow production there.

Six miles southeast of Bakersfield, Shell's Porter-Day No. 1 wildcat has developed a fishing job. The company is endeavoring to recover oil string at 4800 feet with bottom of the hole at 5035 feet and when cleaned out to bottom drilling will be resumed to deepen the oil sand.

Increasing Flow

Caroline Spaulding's Blue Goose No. 4 on Tideland Permit No. 93 which came in recently at the rate of 4000 barrels of oil a day in the Elwood field, has built up production and is said to have an excellent chance of surpassing the record established by the Pacific Western Oil Company when its Tideland Permit No. 92-5 set a potential in excess of 10,000 barrels daily.

Spaulding's latest producer offsets Pacific Western's Tideland Permit No. 92-5 and Tideland Permit No. 98 held by the Signal Oil and Gas Company where its first well was brought in two weeks ago for 1000 barrels daily. This permit is the most northwesterly development in the Elwood field at present and the company is preparing to extend its 1400-foot pier and drill another well still farther out into the ocean.

Acquires Deep One

The Tenacity Oil Company is preparing to resume operations in the California Well Drilling Company's Del Amo No. 1 wildcat which went to 8500 feet in search of an extension of the Dominguez oil field. Tenacity took over the project recently and is preparing to fish for about 800 feet of two and one-half-inch drill pipe. The Del Amo No. 1 has had a number of production tests and the former operators were unsuccessful in effecting a complete water shut-off.

Extension Sought

A northwesterly extension of its Doty permit in the Elwood field is being sought by the Barnsdall-Rio Grande combination. The operators have made location for Doty No. 7 at the northeast corner of the lease. The new project will be just south of the State highway.

Federal Land Banks Report

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—Outstanding farm mortgage loans of all the Federal and joint stock land banks on June 30 totaled $1,801,144,355, while the twelve intermediate credit banks, which deal largely with co-operative marketing organizations, on the same date had $91,665,342 outstanding in loans and discounts.

Federal Farm Loan Board officials said these figures, carried in the board's quarterly report, showed little material change from the same date last year, and did not reflect any conditions brought about by the drought. Assets and liabilities of the entire farm loan system were reported as $2,118,775,187.

HOTEL CHAIN ENTERS NORTHERN TERRITORY

Consolidated Hotels, Inc., subsidiary of Consolidated Public Service Corporation, has leased the six-story Turpin Hotel in San Francisco for fourteen years from the Bank of Italy, John L. Spicer, manager of operations of the hotel chain, announced yesterday. This marks the extension of the system into Northern California, Mr. Spicer stated. The company operates a chain of 110 hotels and apartment-houses in the Los Angeles area.

JULIUS KAYSER NET EARNINGS DECREASE

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. — Julius Kayser & Co. and affiliated companies today reported net income for the year ended June 30, last, of $1,410,607 after charges and taxes, but before inventory adjustment, equal after employees' preferred dividends to $2.83 a share on 478,120 shares of common. This compares with $2,810,268, or $8.56 a share on 322,747 shares in the previous year.

GLASS TRADE POSTPONED

Stockholders of the Pacific Coast Glass Company and the Illinois Pacific Glass Company approved yesterday the merger of the two companies as outlined last week, with the exception of the provision for the seven-year voting trust on the common stock of the new company. This is only a technicality, it was announced, and both meetings were adjourned until the 18th inst., to eliminate the difficulty.

NOTAS TELEGRAFICAS

Los Mejicanos Lanzan Furiosas Filipicas contra los Yanquis

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, Agosto 11. Dicen mensajes a La Prensa procedentes de Orizaba (Estado de Veracruz) que ayer hubo una manifestación de 20,000 obreros en dicha población, en el curso de la cual los Estados Unidos, particularmente el arancel y el estilo de vestir de ese gran país, fueron el blanco de los ataques de los oradores.

La muchedumbre llevaba banderas con esta inscripción: "Debemos seguir con nuestros trajes nacionales, y no imitar los de los Estados Unidos. Somos mejicanos y no debemos consumir productos yanquis. Si el senado yanqui nos califica de indeseables, hay que responderle en términos análogos."

No se le escatimaron censuras al gobierno mejicano, según dice el mensaje, pues Ricardo Trevino, jefe del partido laborista en Orizaba, formuló contra Luis León, ministro del Trabajo, el cargo de ser responsable de la cesantía de muchos mineros.

Julio Lopez Silva, en inflamada alocución sobre la popularidad de los pantalones bombachos en Méjico, declaró que esa moda venía de los Estados Unidos y era abominable.

Senadores Yanquis de Visita en Rusia

MOSCU, Agosto 11.—Un grupo de senadores norteamericanos ha llegado hoy con la peregrinación de "caminos abiertos", y permanecerá dos semanas en Rusia. Acompañados de los profesores que conducen la excursión, llegaron los senadores Wheeler, de Montana; Cutting, de Nuevo Méjico; y Barkley, de Kentucky.

Pasarán una semana en Muscú y otra en Leningrado. Visitarán el Kremlin y verán las joyas de la corona rusa. La Cámara de Comercio Occidental les dará una recepción, y discutirán algunos puntos con la Comisión Organizadora del Estado, las autoridades educativas y el Consejo de Uniones Obreras. Retornarán de su viaje por Varsovia, Praga, Viena y Roma.

Las Yanquis que Se Casen con Filipinos Perderán su Ciudadanía

SAN FRANCISCO, Agosto 11.—Las blancas de este país que contraigan matrimonio con filipinos perderán sus derechos de ciudadanía, según disposición que de Washington le han comunicado hoy a Paul Armstrong, director federal dé naturalización en este distrito.

Dicha disposición clasifica a los filipinos entre los extranjeros, y sólo exceptúa a los que hayan servido en el ejército de los Estados Unidos.

Dice Armstrong que este decreto es importante en California, donde menos del 5 por ciento de la inmigración filipina es del sexo débil.

Fue ocasionada esta determinación por el matrimonio de Ann Josena, de Salinas, con el filipino Basilicio Joseno. Se le privó de su ciudadanía, y el ministero del Trabajo confirmo esa decisión, que había sido dictada por el juez superior Jorgenson. La señora Joseno es inmigrante alemana.

Manifestó Armstrong que las ciudadanas que se casen con filipinos perderán su ciudadanía, y que las filipinas que se casen con yanquis seguirán siendo extranjeras.

Empleado de Gobierno que Tiene una Dirección poco Común

WASHINGTON, Agosto 11.—El ministerio de Estado reclama la distinción de tener a su servicio el empleado de gobierno que tiene las más curiosas señas.

Trátase de Emery E. Stewart, veterano correo diplomático de los Estados Unidos cuyo campo de acción está en Europa. No ha mucho que dio su dirección en el "Expreso de Oriente," que es uno de los famosos trenes internacionales europeos. En sus tarjetas de visita lleva estampadas Stewart esas señas.

Stewart y su colega, el capitán Ford B. Stevens, viajan millares de millas al año entregando y recogiendo las valijas diplomáticas con los papeles confidenciales del servicio diplomático de los Estados Unidos. Duermen siempre en los coches dormitorios del citado tren, y toman sus comidas, incluso la de Navidad, en los coches comedores del conocido expreso.

Como sus itinerarios van siempre en direcciones diferentes, rara vez se encuentran estos dos correos, y sus relaciones se limitan a los empleados de ferrocarril y a las autoridades aduanales, que les dejan pasar sus bagajes sin revisión.

Charlas Infantiles para Chiquillos de Escuela

John James Audubon, el Chico de las Aves (J. J. Audubon, the Bird Boy) De "When Great Folks Were Little Folks," por Dorothy Donnell Calhoun.

I.

Nada tan agradable en este mundo como ser una chiquilla, excepción hecha de ser un chiquillo (There is nothing in the world as pleasant as being a little girl, unless it is being a little boy). Y pocos lugares hay donde sea más grato ser un chiquillo que en una gran hacienda de la soñolienta y soleada tierra de Luisiana, entre olorosos naranjos, resplandecientes magnolias, y mariposas, aves y otros animalillos de extraños colores (And there are few places where it is nicer to be a little boy than on a great plantation in the sleepy, sunny land of Louisiana, among sweet orange trees, bright magnolia flowers, and strangely colored butterflies and beasts and birds).

En una de esas haciendas es donde James Audubon pasó los primeros diez años de su niñez, por los tiempos de la Guerra Revolucionaria (It was on a plantation like this that John James Audubon spent the first ten years of his boyhood, at about the time of the Revolutionary War).

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—Demand for wool is fairly broad on 64's and finer wools, with prices quite firm. Business appears slightly better on both 58, 60's and 56's grades at very firm prices. Receipts of domestic wools during week ending August 9 amounted to 28,459,100 pounds compared with 16,084,900 pounds the previous week.

Foreclosure bargain-hunters!

DURING PERIODS OF DEPRESSION . . conservative financial institutions . . learn to look with respect on the foreclosure bargain-hunter . . as a REAL test of their own loaning ability . . and the MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA . . has been through that test successfully . . four times during the past 37½ years.

These shrewd bargain-hunters are always willing to buy. No times are so "hard" that they won't support the real estate market, at a profit to themselves. And they save themselves much time by KNOWING values.

IT IS A COMPLIMENT TO ANY FINANCIAL INSTITUTION . . to be on the preferred list of these real estate foreclosure hunters . . because they often bid in properties before foreclosure . . saving owners valuable equities . . and that pleases every one.

In Southern California, with future growth and values assured thereby, the foreclosure bargain hunters have certified the loaning judgment of the MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA by buying over $750,000 worth of foreclosures during the past two years—at a profit to the MUTUAL. That is the most satisfactory compliment.

We know this building loan business through 37½ years growth to three State of California records for building and loan associations. As an investor, borrower or bargain-hunter you'll find our $15,000,000 resources at YOUR service, with economy and safety.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

Bard's, Eighth between Broadway and Hill—"The Border Legion." Richard Arlen and Jack Holt do some plain and fancy shooting and its all swell.

Boulevard, Washington at Vermont—"One Mad Kiss." Jose Mojica displays a fine tenor in a picture which should have been better.

Carthay Circle, Carthay Center—"Holiday." A film play of quality and delight with Ann Harding at her best in defense of youth.

Chinese, 6925 Hollywood — "Hell's Angels." It took Howard Hughes four years and $4,000,000 to produce the colossus of the air; and it was worth it.

Criterion, 642 South Grand — "Our Blushing Brides." A scintillating fast-moving story of the younger set with a heart throb or two from Joan Crawford.

Egyptian, Hollywood Boulevard—"Good Intentions." A finely made story of the underworld featuring Edmund Lowe.

Filmarte, 1228 North Vine—"Pamir." A travelogue of unknown land which just misses greatness.

Forum, Pico at Norton—"Strictly Modern." More of Dorothy Mackaill's gay doings.

Loew's State, Broadway at Seventh—"Song O' My Heart." John McCormack's debut is laid in Ireland and many have liked it.

Million Dollar, Broadway at Third—"Shadow of the Law."

Pantages, Hollywood at Vine—"The Unholy Three." Lon Chaney talks with fine voices just for variety. Good.

Paramount, Hill at Sixth—"The Sap from Syracuse." A humorous, clever story which sets off Jack Oakie's clowning whimsey.

Ritz, Wilshire at La Brea—"Shadow of the Law."

R.K.O., Hill at Eighth—"Hell's Island." Jack Holt and Ralph Graves join the Foreign Legion and fight it out; not that it makes history.

R.K.O. Orpheum, Broadway at Ninth—"Dixiana." Bebe Daniels in a musical picturing of the South and of very uncertain caliber.

Tower, Broadway at Eighth—"Recaptured Love." Amusing, sophisticated is this conflict between Belle Bennett and John Halliday.

Uptown, Western at Tenth—"The Shadow of the Law." A much-discussed picture in which William Powell stars.

Warners' Downtown, Hill at Seventh—"Scarlet Pages." Elsie Ferguson appears to some advantage in an uneven story.

Warners' Hollywood, Hollywood Blvd. at Wilcox—"The Matrimonial Bed." Clever, witty and very entertaining is this French farce with Frank Fay.

Westlake, 638 Alvarado—"The Rogue Song." Lawrence Tibbett careens around the Caucasus in full baritone. Good.

STAGE

El Capitan, Hollyw'd Blvd. nr. Highland—"Tea for Three." A triangular view of a modern home becomes entertaining. Tom Moore, Gladys George and Ernest Glendinning.

Baby Mix-up Featured by Plot Charges

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Attorney Barrett O'Hara said in court today he will attempt to show Charles Bamberger, with the connivance of others, had caused the tags on the outer garments of his baby and that of the William Watkins to be changed, thereby resulting in the babies becoming mixed when they were taken from the Englewood Hospital.

The attorney's statements were made before Judge Sabath, who opened habeas corpus proceedings by which the Bambergers, who are satisfied they have the right baby, were haled in court by Mrs. Margaret Watkins, who does not believe she has her own child.

After brief arguments, counsel for both sides agreed the hearing be continued until the 25th inst.

FRENCH DRAMATIST ILL

Smile In Your Dreams!

This pretty nurse to say "good-night" is undoubtedly a help—not only because of her good-night smile, but because she brings a glass of Welch's. Taken just before retiring, this pure juice of luscious Concord grapes quickly leads to restful slumber. While you sleep, its rich fruit nourishment and mineral salts are readily digested and quickly assimilated into the blood-stream. They restore your broken-down body-tissues, build you up. Make this two-weeks test. Each night before retiring, sip a large glass of Welch's—adding one-third water, if you like. Before long you'll find yourself sleeping like a top and waking up feeling like a million dollars! Try it also as a breakfast fruit. Six liberal portions to the pint make it the most temptingly delicious 5c drink in America. Recommended by physicians and on the diet-list of leading hospitals

RICH SCION HALTS SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Thomas F. Ryan Informs Court Charges Against Wife Absolutely Untrue

SHERIDAN (Wyo.) Aug. 11. (AP)—The divorce suit of Thomas F. Ryan II, which was filed in District Court here Saturday, came to an abrupt end today when a motion to dismiss the case without prejudice was filed by the plaintiff.

Mr. Ryan, son of a wealthy New York family, in a statement, said the "charges brought against Mrs. Ryan were absolutely without foundation or justification."

The statement added "he can offer no explanation for such action on his part other than being directly attributable to injuries to his head suffered in a recent automobile accident which left him in an impulsive mental condition."

Wirth Declares Germany Safe for Democracy

BERLIN, Aug. 11. (AP)—Joseph Wirth, Minister of the Interior, in an address in the Reichstag marking the eleventh annual celebration of Constitution Day, declared Germany had "been made safe for democracy," although consequences of the Versailles Treaty in many respects remained a thorn in the country's flesh.

Economic distress is acute, the Minister declared, but the republic still stands firm in spite of sharp political divergencies within, due to the excessive individualism peculiar to the German character.

Germany, under Republican rule, he asserted, may boast of being "the freest country in the world."

application will be made at a.m. today before Probate Judge for special letters of administration of the estate of William Snodgrass, 73 years of age, who as a recluse in a Spring-street and died leaving an estate at $200,000. His body, however, now lies in the County Morgue claimed. Up to the present no relatives have been found and the is being administered by Public Administrator Bryson.

For nine years Snodgrass lived as of hermit in a small room at Hollenbeck Hotel. He ate at little near-by restaurants and the plainest sort of clothing. his mail was received at the general delivery window at the postoffice. He slept at night in a room tight, without ventilation, a loaded revolver under his.

FORTUNE FOUND

Snodgrass died during the night the 4th inst. His body was discovered at noon the next day by a maid who attempted to enter up the man's quarters as she been doing for years. When was no response to her knock notified the management who the lifeless form of the man his bed just as he had retired night before.

search of the room revealed in currency in old newspapers under the carpet and mattress. along with some keys and a sheaf of letters was turned to the Public Administrator. man's body was removed to county morgue.

One of the keys found was to a safety-deposit box in the vaults of Bank of America. When this opened the officials were astonished to find a will, cash and securities estimated to be valued at more $200,000. The money, under terms of the will, is to be divided among several Masonic lodges in Philadelphia. The personal effects the deceased are left to the Salvation Army.

A search is now being made of man's correspondence in an effort to determine whether he has living relatives. Mention is made in some of the letters of several daughters, but up to the present the public administrator has unable to ascertain who they or where they live.

FLEES HOSPITAL

According to the hotel management Snodgrass was a kindly gentleman, but was reserved relative to private affairs to the point of secretiveness. No information ever escaped his lips as to where he originally came from or what his business had been. He began failing in health several weeks ago.

When Snodgrass became ill, the hotel manager begged him to go to Methodist Hospital. He went, after being there only a few hours he asked what his bill would. He was told. Although it was dark he arose, dressed and while nurse was out of the room, climbed out of a window, descended a fire escape and went back to hotel.

While ill in his room he kept his door locked and opened it only to admit the maid who brought him meals and cleaned his room. During the last days of his illness he remained locked in his room and silent as to his private affairs.

Word is now being awaited by the Public Administrator from the with the expectation that the lodges named as beneficiaries in the man's will will reveal who his relatives are, if he has any, where he originally came from. It is also expected that the lodges will claim his body and take charge the burial.

Receiver Moves Halted by Court

Receivership proceedings against the Stock and Realty Assurance Corporation and contempt proceedings against its president, M. G. Phillips, were halted yesterday by temporary writ of prohibition issued by the Appellate Court and returnable on the 23rd inst.

Phillips complained that the lower court had exceeded its authority when it appointed a receiver and that he had no relief from the contempt citation filed against him when he refused to turn over the concern's books except in the Appellate Court.

TREE-SITTER QUITS HIS PERCH

"Sal" Stayed Up More Than 602 Hours

He Leaves Leafy "Retreat"

Salvador Scarpitta welcomed down from his perch by his mother, Mrs. Nadia Scarpitta.

SAL-THE-SITTER came down off his perch yesterday. At 11 a.m. he descended from the tree in his yard after having been in it since July 17. For 602 hours, forty minutes and thirty seconds, it was announced, he sat it out for the world's championship in tree sitting. The first thing he did on getting down was to get his tennis racket and beat it for a near-by tennis court where boys have to do their playing before 1 p.m.

Now that he has returned to private life he is just plain Master Salvador Scarpitta, 11 years of age, 2684 Beachwood Drive, but he long will remember the family tree and the excitement of dealing with publicity men.

THREE DEAD IN TRAFFIC

As Many More Critically Injured in Accidents; Two Held as Hit-and-Run Drivers

Three deaths were added to the list of traffic victims in and near Los Angeles yesterday and the week-end. Three persons were critically injured, and three less severely.

Charles F. Leech, 58 years of age, a merchant, of 1314 El Prado avenue, Torrance, was killed almost instantly yesterday when his truck collided at Carson street and Normandie avenue with an auto driven by Miss Catherine Booth, 146½ Palm Drive, Beverly Hills. Miss Booth is in Torrance hospital with a fractured collar bone and numerous cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Mary E. Capron, 2027 West Twenty-ninth street, died yesterday at Seaside Hospital, Long Beach, of injuries she suffered Sunday night when her automobile collided with another machine at Compton and Carson boulevards. Her daughter, Margy Messer, riding the automobile with her, is in the same hospital, expected to die from a fractured skull.

William Kienzle, 5135 Fifth avenue, driver of the other car, his wife, Mrs. William Kienzle, and William Pierr, 5445½ Second avenue, also received injuries.

P. D. Hulne, 41, real-estate operator of 212 South Hidalgo avenue, Alhambra, was arrested at the Angelus Hotel yesterday on a charge of manslaughter. Police charge he is the hit-and-run motorist who late Sunday night struck and killed David Thomas, 51, of 812 Overgreen street, Bubank, at the west end of the Seventh-street bridge over the Los Angeles River.

Los Angeles police located Hulne at the Angelus Hotel after making a search at public garages for an automobile with fenders showing marks of having been in such an accident as that which cost Thomas his life. After many hours they found such an automobile not far from the Angelus. Its front fender was bent, and there were blood spots on the radiator.

Hulne, who is said to be well-to-do, was locked up at the City Jail.

Probable fatal injuries were received by Nasagi Ozeke, 15 Belvedere Gardens, Sunday when he is asserted to have run from between two parked cars into the side of an automobile operated by Percy H. Moore, 1212 3-4 East Seventieth street, on Atlantic Boulevard one-half mile north of Beverly Boulevard. He was removed to the General Hospital. Moore was absolved from blame in the mishap by witnesses, officers reported.

Shock and possible internal injuries as the result of the automobile in which she was riding being struck from behind by a truck Sunday at Eighty-fourth and Alameda streets sent Cathern Killian, 16, 1041 Maple avenue, to the Huntington Park Hospital.

Jack Squires, 18, of 3762 La Salle avenue, was arrested yesterday charged with being the hit-and-run driver who struck Mrs. Mary Moore, 30, of 1428 East Fifty-fourth street, earlier in the day at Beverly Boulevard and Vermont avenue. Mrs. Moore received cuts and bruises. Spectators took the license number of the car and Squires's arrest followed. He is said to have admitted striking the woman, but explained he did not think she had been sufficiently injured for him to concern himself over the incident.

STAGE TO GET FILM STARS

Mary Pickford Plans Broadway Appearance, as Do Colleen Moore, Vilma Banky and Rod La Rocque

Dispatches from New York announcing that Mary Pickford intends appearing on Broadway in a stage play this fall for Arch Selwyn, theatrical producer, last night revealed that the screen actress has abandoned all work on her current production and will no longer finance her own pictures.

By abandoning the picture she was producing under the title of "Forever Yours," Miss Pickford may lose between $200,000 and $300,000. Her next two pictures will be made and financed by Joseph M. Schenck, president of United Artists.

PLAY NOT SELECTED

Yesterday Miss Pickford confirmed the eastern dispatches, admitting she had conferred with Selwyn and that if a suitable vehicle for her is found she will appear in it this fall.

"I have two more pictures to make this year for Mr. Schenck, with a two-month period in between," Miss Pickford stated. "I told Mr. Selwyn that if something could be found I would go to New York this fall. Up until now nothing suitable has been presented to me by Mr. Selwyn, so there is nothing at all definite."

It was learned at the United Artists studio yesterday that Miss Pickford has disorganized a greater portion of the company with which she produced her own pictures for United Artists release. Douglas Fairbanks also is working under a similar agreement with Schenck at present.

Miss Pickford had completed a few of the sequences in "Forever Yours" when she suddenly called a halt on production, announcing she was dissatisfied with the picture as it stood and that it would be rewritten.

She now has decided to give it up altogether, discarding the scenes that already were taken. Schenck is working on new story material for her.

Miss Pickford acted on the New York stage before she achieved fame on the screen but for the present generation she will be a newcomer before the footlights. One of the three plays under consideration as a vehicle for her comeback is the work of Paul Kester, who wrote "A Woman of Bronze." Mr. Eelwyn did not identify the others.

OTHERS EASTBOUND

Four others Hollywood screen stars also are going to appear before New York footlights this fall. These are Colleen Moore, Lya De Putti, Vilma Banky and Rod La Rocque, her husband. Miss Banky and La Rocque have signed contracts to be costarred in a play being adapted from the Hungarian by Anita Loos and John Emerson. It is possible

TRADE ENVOYS VISIT HARBORS

Pan-American Conference Delegates Welcomed

Port Visioned as Largest in World in Future

Senor Estrada of Argentina, Speaker, Given Ovation

Los Angeles Harbor, visioned as the world's leading trade portal to Latin America, was inspected yesterday by Central and South American representatives invisting here prior to attending the Pan-American reciprocal trade conference at Sacramento. A tour of Los Angeles and Long Beach harbors was an outstanding event of the day, following the welcoming of the visitors to the State and city at a luncheon tendered them by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Eighty-one registrants for the local three-day gathering have been inscribed at conference headquarters at the Biltmore, inclusive of Latin Americans, who have come here expressly for the conference, consular officials stationed in California, several State officials and a representative of the Pan-American Union. A considerable group of delegates is expected to proceed directly to the Sacramento meeting via New York and an attendance of fully 100 Latin-American representatives is indicated there to confer with a large representation of California business men.

LOS ANGELES WELCOMES

In welcoming the visitors John C. Austin, chamber president and luncheon toastmaster, called attention to the fact that Los Angeles with 200,000 Spanish-speaking residents is the second largest Spanish-speaking city in North America. He referred to the city's Spanish traditions as a bond of mutual understanding and fellowship between Los Angeles and Latin America.

Max E. Socha, chairman of the Los Angeles committee co-operating with the conference sponsors, represented Gov. Young in welcoming the delegates to the State. He touched on trade relations, shipping possibilities and the projected Pan-American highway as factors in promoting international good will and asserted that the bonds of friendship can be strengthened if Latin-American boys and girls are sent to educational institutions in this country instead of to schools in Europe.

Mayor Porter extended a welcome in behalf of the city.

ARGENTINEAN SPOKESMAN

In behalf of the visitors Mario Estrada, Buenos Aires, head of the Argentinean delegation, the largest contingent registered, expressed appreciation for the greetings given and asserted that the visitors feel perfectly at home and happy here. He optimistically viewed the future and predicted better international co-operation than ever before. Senor Estrada made special reference to a Times cartoon published last Sunday entitled "A Perfect Contact" which depicted North America as an airplane driven by Miss Los Angeles refueling South America, also shown as an airplane guided by "Pan-American Reciprocal Trade Conference." This, he declared, admirably indicates the possibilities for the future progress of the nations concerned. At the conclusion of his talk, Senor Estrada was given an ovation.

Dr. Niese, Argentinean vice-consul here, addressed the visitors in Spanish and also spoke in English. He introduced the delegates.

Chairman Austin presented those seated at the speakers' table, including Dr. George H. Hecke, director California Department of Agriculture and president of the Western Plant Quarantine, which includes Mexico and Canada in its jurisdiction; Dr. C. B. Hutchinson, dean of the college of agriculture, University of California at Berkeley, and also director of the Giannini Foundation there; W. A. Reid, Washington, trade adviser of the Pan-American Union, who is lending his services as official adviser to the Sacramento conference; Mrs. Reid, C. E. Bobertz, Costa Rican consul here and dean of the Los Angeles Consular Corps, and H. W. Wright of the Board of County Supervisors.

LONG BEACH VISITED

Following the luncheon the visitors were taken to the harbor, where a cannery at Fish Harbor was inspected and after the tour of the harbors they proceeded to the Pacific Coast Club, where later a reception and dinner was given by the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Visits to industrial plants, a specially arranged industrial exhibit, visits to motion-picture studios, a special program at the Hollywood Bowl and attendance at a motion picture at the Universal studio, followed by a midnight supper, are scheduled for today.

Jaywalking Just Detour on March to Fame and Glory

They Were Bawled Out

In the line, left to right—Miss Elsie Rossi, Miss Greta Stockhold, Miss Pauline Scott, Miss Verna Berni, Miss Elizabeth Gregg, Miss Cleo Snyder and Miss Margaret LeBlanc.

ENDING another step in their march to fame and glory, seven of the ten prize winners of the International Pageant of Pulchritude which was held at Galveston, Tex., last week, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday to train, for their first stage appearance.

An unexpected reception was given for the group by Traffic Officer Robertson as they left Central Station after their arrival on the Sunset Limited. After posing for photographers and answering questions, they were directed to taxicabs which were to take them to their hotel, but chose to walk across Central avenue at a spot not sanctioned by police regulations.

Most of the group had reached the safety of their taxicabs when the traffic policeman spied the movement and with appropriate gestures and shouts herded the beauty winners back through the traffic with an injunction to use the pedestrian cross-walk.

When the resulting traffic jam had been cleared the girls found they had lost their baggage checks, their taxicabs had disappeared and it was only when porters came to their rescue that the beauties in distress were started on their way again.

The group included Miss Verna Berni, "Miss Long Island;" Miss Cleo Snyder, "Miss Louisville;" Miss Margaret Le Blanc, "Miss Dallas;" Miss Pauline Scott, "Miss Pennsylvania;" Miss Greta Stockhold, "Miss Detroit;" Miss Elizabeth Gregg, "Miss Ohio," and Miss Elsie Rossi, "Miss Brooklyn."

COUNTY FARM PREJUDICE HIT

Supervisors Amend Ordinance on Aid for Poor So That Entry will be Compulsory

Indigent persons under the care of the county who are eligible to admission to the County Farm will be compelled to go to the institution or forgo aid under an amendment to the county's charity ordinance adopted yesterday by the Board of Supervisors.

Action was taken by the Supervisors on recommendation of W. H. Holland, County Superintendent of Charities, who wrote to the board stating that one of the chief sources of expense in operating his department is for the care of sick and indigent persons who refuse to enter the County Farm.

According to Frank L. Shaw, Supervisor in charge of charities, the aid that is being given persons outside of the County Farm, ranges from $20 to $50 a person each month. This is far more than the cost per person at the County Farm where everything is systematized for medical care and support of the inmates. The new regulation is also expected to relieve some of the congested conditions at the General Hospital where many poor persons are being treated because of their refusal to enter the County Farm.

It is expected that the amended ordinance, which will be drafted by County Counsel Mattoon, will bring about a saving to the county of approximately $200,000 annually.

Up to the present many persons who are wards of the charities department are receiving county aid and living at home, or with relatives. They need help for about all they have is a roof over their head, but they refuse to enter the County Farm.

"It seems to be an old idea that when a person enters the County

Court Upholds Fruit, Nut and Vegetable Act

Constitutionality of the California Fruit, Nut and Vegetable Standardization Act was upheld by the Appellate Department of the Superior Court, which yesterday filed a ruling affirming the Municipal Court's decision in the case of the People against George Mefford and Joseph Waldman. The two appellants had been found guilty of violating the Standardization Act, and fines had been imposed.

They were found guilty of stamping the word "Imperial" on grapefruit and selling them in containers, subcontainers and wrappers labeled "Imperial" when the fruit was not from Imperial county. Their attorney, William C. Redmond, attacked the constitutionality of the act as special legislation in that it divides the State into two separate districts and defines ripe citrus fruit differently for each district.

Judges McLucas, Shaw and Bishop heard the appeal.

SOUTHERNERS TO PICNIC

Former residents of Texas, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama will have their annual summer reunion next Saturday in Sycamore Grove Park.

JUDGES ASK AMENDMENT OF CHARTER

Segregation of Charities and Probation Department Proposed to Supervisors

A request to submit to the voters at the November election the question of divorcing the county charities and probation departments was made yesterday to the Board of Supervisors by the majority of the judges of the Superior Court.

In a communication signed by Presiding Judge Doran, the judges ask that the board place on the November election ballot the proposition of amending the county charter to provide that the probation department be made a separate and distinct department, headed by a competent officer with adequate pay, who would be under the jurisdiction of the court. This, the judges assert, is in accordance with the general laws of the State.

Los Angeles county, it is contended, is the only county in the State where the probation and charities departments are combined. At present the administration of the affairs of the two departments is in the hands of W. H. Holland, county superintendent of charities.

The judges say the change should be made in the interest of justice.

After hearing the communication read, the matter was referred by the board to Supervisors Shaw and Quinn.

Bids on Bridge will be Asked

A new concrete or steel bridge to be built at an estimated cost of $200,000 over the Los Angeles River on Atlantic avenue in Maywood was assured yesterday when the Board of Supervisors announced that bids would be advertised for within the next two weeks. The matter came before the board yesterday when a small bill for the work of boring for foundation tests was approved.

The new bridge is to be 420 feet long and will be sixty feet wide.

CEMETERY REZONING VOTED

Council Adopts Report for Reclassification on Boulevard Strip of Hollywood Burial Ground

The majority City Planning Committee report of Councilmen Webster and Holland, granting permission to the Hollywood Cemetery Association to develop for business purposes a 600-foot strip of the Santa Monica Boulevard frontage, was adopted yesterday by the City Council. The Council first voted down the minority report of Councilman Randall, denying the application on the grounds the area is dedicated for cemetery purposes.

Randall was joined in this vote by Ingram, Lewis, McAllister and Martin. Councilmen Burns, Cooke, Davis, Henning, Holland, Jacobson, Webster, Williams and President Sanborn voted against the Randall report.

For the Webster-Holland report the vote was the same with the exception of Ingram.

The cemetery association has contended, at numerous hearings, that the strip along the boulevard is excessively expensive, if not developed. Opposition came from cemetery lot holders, who object to any part of the ground being used for business.

Restrictions cover the development, under the supervision of the City Planning Commission, as to the uses, the structures and the appropriation of money to the perpetual care fund.

SHOOTING STARS SHINE IN ANNUAL SKY "RODEO"

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Aug. 11.—Scientists and astronomers from Mt. Wilson Observatory tonight are making their annual observations of the shower of perseid meteors flashing through the sky on their yearly whirl earthward.

The heaviest fall of the shooting stars, as they are more commonly known, is scheduled to begin shortly before midnight and grow in numbers until 3 a.m. The phenomenon, observable in the northeastern sky, occurs during the time the earth is passing through the orbit of the meteoric particles, which are continually circling the sun as the remains of a lost and disintegrated comet.

Approximately 150 of the blazing particles should be seen before the end of the spectacle, but none of the falling stars will reach the earth's surface, according to Alfred H. Joy, secretary of the Mt. Wilson Observatory.

The meteors travel toward the earth at about twenty-seven miles a second, or fifty-five times faster than a rifle bullet. The stream of meteors, only a few few of which can be observed by the naked eye, is approximately 70,000,000 miles wide.

Observers outside the metropolitan and thickly populated districts were able to count about forty of the fiery flares each hour. The failure to see the meteors on their yearly flight from the more congested sections, is explained by the blanket of haze which hangs over the area. Motorists who sought the higher points or drove into the desert and ranch districts were able to discern the falling particles.

This is the 1100th annual flight of the meteors, according to the records.

NO MATTER how many fancy motors are invented, the old army mule still sticks on the job. Mules are used exclusively on the heavy army wagons at the Monterey Presidio, which is garrisoned by two squadrons of the Eleventh Cavalry and two field batteries.

Army officers say that mules can stand army life better. They are less temperamental, less subject to disease and are more enduring.

VETERAN WAR HORSES

Horses last for incredible lengths of time in the cavalry. Formerly they were condemned after a specificed length of service. Now the Army keeps them as long as they can do the work. There is one jumper at the Presidio who has been in the cavalry for more than twenty years.

There are apparently two reasons. One is that they have expert handling; the other is that they are from fine stock. The government pays $165 for troop horses and gets the best.

Some recruit horses never learn to endure army life. They can't stand the firing or the presence of so many other horses milling around them.

HORSEPHOBIA

For that matter some of the men recruits can't make the grade. It is not especially unusual for a man to be transferred to another branch of the service because he can't conquer his fear of horses. Many soldiers, otherwise good horsemen, never can learn to ride a jumping horse. These are not discharged but are not allowed to ride horses over the jumps.

GOOD ADVICE

Gordon Whitnall, managing director of the Los Angeles City Planning Commission, gave Monterey some good advice the other day. Asked to go there to help replan the city, he told them to let it alone; to pick out what they considered to be the uniqueness of Monterey and build everything up to that which already exists.

Monterey is one of the most beautiful cities of California.

It has so many charming old adobes. They do not have the made-to-order appearance of so many California adobes.

TENDER MEMORIES

California history began there and—except for one idiot gas company which bought and pulled down the old Spanish fort —everything is as it was—the old customhouse, the old balcony house of Thomas Larkin; Stevenson's house; the first Federal Courthouse; Sherman's headquarters and the old State Capitol.

DOORS

Much of the charm of the old Monterey houses lies in their doors and stairways. Some of the balcony houses are very tiny. There is one with a quaint little outside stairway leading up to a door almost like a cubby-hole.

GREW THERE

There is a restfulness about these old adobes that many of the Hollywood Spanish houses lack. I think it is largely due to the fact that the lines are not so much broken up. There are too many things in Hollywood Spanish houses that stick out for admiration.

The Monterey houses seem to be growing on the ground; they seem a part of the ground. You couldn't

WIDOW MURDER INQUIRY PUSHED

Neighbor of Tujunga Victim Quizzed by Officers

She Previously Had Caused Truck Driver's Arrest

Fears of Prowler Revealed; Loan of Pistol Sought

Seeking a solution of the cold-blooded killing of Mrs. Barbara Doyle, 70-year-old widow, authorities last night held in technical custody C. A. Kelly, neighbor of the slain woman, and were questioning him on neighborhood quarrels that may shed light on the motive back of the murder.

MRS BARBARA DOYLE

The body of the woman, her head badly beaten, was found yesterday morning lying in a bloodspattered room of her modest home at 347 East Greeley street, Tujunga. Discovery of the lifeless form was made by Mrs. J. H. Dilley, Mrs. Jennie Weidenbaker and Marceline Widenbaker neighbors, when the trio went to the Doyle home after observing that the door had been standing open for several hours and that there appeared to be some one lying on the floor.

EVIDENCE OF STRUGGLE

The dead woman was clothed only in a nightgown and the room gave every evidence, according to Capt. Bright of the Sheriff's office, of having been the scene of a bitter struggle before the fatal blows were struck. The instrument of death was not located. Mrs. Doyle was murdered some time between midnight and 7 a.m., according to the officers.

Shortly after beginning his investigation of the crime, Bright took into custody Kelly, a 30-year-old truck driver, who resides at 344 East Greeley street, across the street from the Doyle domicile.

Questioning of Kelly was ordered by Bright after the officer said he learned that Kelly, his wife and step-daughter had been arrested for disturbing the peace several weeks ago. The arrest was made at the request of the slain woman.

Investigation disclosed further, according to Deputy Sheriffs Brewster and Bell, who were assigned to questioning of neighbors as to possible enemies of Mrs. Doyle and reasons for her slaying, that within the last few days the dead woman had sought the loan of a revolver from Louis Mucha, a baker.

Mrs. Doyle, according to the officers, told Mucha that early one morning last week she had surprised a prowler about her house and feared for her safety. She wanted a weapon for protection. The woman also told her neighbors, they said, that on a number of occasions lately she had been awakened from her sleep during the night to find a prowler just outside her screened-in sleeping porch.

Neighbors told the officers they had last seen Mrs. Doyle alive early Sunday morning.

NOTHING TAKEN

In gaining entrance to the home, the murderer ripped loose a part of the screen, which allowed the opening of the latch on the door. Robbery was discarded as a possible motive after a search of the home disclosed nothing had been disturbed.

Bright believes the woman slipped from her bed on the porch when she heard her assailant rip the screen and that she attempted to fight off the killer. The aged woman was struck down before she could utter a cry, according to Bright, but not until she had made efforts to stop the blows that were rained on her head.

The body was removed to the County Morgue pending the autopsy. Papers found in the house disclosed that the dead woman has three sons and a daughter, whose names were given as Walter C. Doyle, Buffalo; George A. Doyle, Bridgeport, Ct.; Edward Doyle and Mrs. George H. Marston, Hyde Park, Mass.

MOTHER WINS CHILD'S CUSTODY

Plea for Action Against Mate Denied

She Regains Boy from Husband
Mrs. Lucille Henry (left,) and Miss Blanche Simons.

AN INDIGNANT mother demanding the custody of her 3-year-old son, yesterday transformed the office of William McKay, chief of the District Attorney's complaint department, temporarily into a domestic relations court until the dispute was settled and the child restored to its mother.

The woman was Mrs. Lucille B. Henry of 5711 Harcourt avenue. She charged that her husband, Ernest Henry, went to her home Sunday morning, broke open a screen door, seized their son, Stanley Michael Henry, and fled with him. Miss Blanche Simons, a friend of Mrs. Henry's, told McKay that she witnessed the deed.

Investigation revealed that Mrs. Henry is suing her husband for divorce, but that the action is still pending, leaving each parent with equal right to the child's custody.

McKay eventually arranged a conference between Mrs. Henry, Arthur Guerin, her attorney, and Horace Appel, attorney for Ernest Henry. As a result, Mrs. Henry was informed late yesterday that her son was at Attorney Appel's office and that she could have his custody again if she would call for him.

Dep. Dist.-Atty. McKay refused to file any charges against the husband.

Italy will Try Paxton's Idea to Speed Ships

Further development of new principles governing the propulsion of steamships has been promised by Mrs. Clifford M. Paxton, widow of the marine inventor, who yesterday announced that she soon will leave for Italy to confer with government officials there on the adoption of her husband's inventions.

Mr. Paxton, who died two years ago, proposed to drive the steamers with a water jet of high pressure set near the bows, asserting that the stream of water flowing against the hull reduced the water friction. The same jets near the bows also were suggested by Mr. Paxton for ships with the usual propeller drive, with a gain in speed of approximately 30 per cent.

Mrs. Paxton proposes to carry on the work of her husband and, according to her statement, has accepted an offer from Italy to build a demonstration steamer.

Parents-in-Law Called Naggers

Nagging by her parents-in-law went unchecked by her husband, complained Mrs. Mildred Bell yesterday in obtaining a divorce from Wilfred Bell. The wife, 18 years of age, told Superior Judge Yankwich that when she was 16 she caused the arrest and conviction of Bell on a statutory charge, and that she married him to keep him from being sent to prison.

"I was compelled to live with his parents," she testified. "They insulted me in my husband's presence, saying I had perjured at the trial and had led him astray. He did not stop their constant nagging."

Bell is a boat builder.

STORY OF ATTIC LOVE REVEALED

Sanhuber Relates Details Despite Defense Fight

Mrs. Oesterreich's Hat Hides Face at Murder Trial

Trip to Scene of Slaying Planned by Court

Amid a barrage of objections by Defense Counsel Le Compte Davis and Jerry Geisler, Otto Sanhuber, so-called garret ghost, yesterday afternoon was placed on the witness stand in Superior Judge Hardy's court by the prosecution at the trial of Mrs. Walburga Oesterreich, charged with the murder of her husband.

As Sanhuber's testimony progressed—a sordid story of his relations with Mrs. Oesterreich as he lived in the garret of her home for ten years—the objections grew more numerous and clashes between the defense attorney and Dep. Dist.-Attys. Costello and Russell more frequent.

UNPRINTABLE STORY

Costello demanded the right to a detailed account from the witness of his association with the defendant. Davis and Geisler contended that it would serve no legal purpose and would only result in prejudicing the minds of the jurors against the woman. In several instances the court ruled with the defense, but much unprintable testimony, nevertheless, went into the court record.

The attic man commenced his story twenty years back, when he was a sewing-machine repair man in Milwaukee, where he met Mr. and Mrs. Oesterreich, the former then the proprietor of an apron factory. He told of his infatuation for the woman, their flight at one time to St. Louis, and of how he finally was smuggled into the Oesterreich attic by Mrs. Oesterreich.

HER FACE HIDDEN

Throughout the recital the defendant sat motionless at the counsel table, her face hidden from spectators by a close-fitting hat.

Sanhuber was still on the witness stand on direct examination when court adjourned and is scheduled to resume his testimony this morning. After the jury was excused last evening, Costello made a statement to Judge Hardy in which he declared he might have to ask that the case be continued for one day in order to allow new witnesses, now en route from Milwaukee, time in which to get here. He also made a request that the jury be taken to the old Oesterreich home at 858 North Lafayette Park Place, where Fred Oesterreich was shot to death eight years ago. Judge Hardy said the trip to the scene of the murder probably will be taken this afternoon.

OTHER WITNESSES

Other witnesses at the trial yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Farber, former friends of the Oesterreichs, who recited how Mrs. Oesterreich, some time after the murder, gave them a revolver with instructions to throw it away. O. P. Chatters, colored cook in a home next to the Oesterreich residence eight years ago, told of hearing Mr. and Mrs. Oesterreich in an argument a few months before the killing, in which strong language was used. W. B. Whitney, bank cashier, was called to lay a foundation for testimony that Mrs. Oesterreich and Sanhuber once had a joint bank account.

Sanhuber, who himself was recently tried for complicity in the Oesterreich killing and convicted of manslaughter, escaping penalty because the statute of limitations had run on the charge on which he was convicted.

ANNUAL SESSION OPENED BY SONS OF ST. GEORGE

More than 400 delegates and visitors to the thirty-eighth annual convention of the Grand Lodge, Pacific Coast Jurisdiction of the American Order, Sons of St. George, registered yesterday at the Alexandria headquarters for the convention which will continue through the 15th inst.

Yesterday's sessions were featured by a stag party given by Royal Oak Lodge, at Engineer's Hall, and a reception to women by Windsor Castle Lodge, 236, Daughters of St. George. The convention proper will open at 9 a.m. today at the Alexandria, with a business session, followed by addresses by Los Angeles representatives of the order. The program today includes a card party for women at the Alexandria, at 1:30 p.m., and a dance at La Monica Ballroom, Santa Monica, this evening.

Tomorrow's program, which will start at 9 a.m., will include an excursion for women to Pasadena and the Huntington Library, busses leaving the Alexandria at 12:30 p.m., and a theater party in the evening. Thursday's program will be featured in the morning by the installation of Charles Lamb of Los Angeles as Grand President of the jurisdiction. Thursday afternoon Windsor Castle Lodge members will be hosts to their visiting sisters on a shopping tour, while in the evening a banquet will be given at the Alexandria. Friday, Royal Oak Lodge will be host to delegates and visitors on a sight-seeing trip and Friday evening a supper and entertainment will be given by Pasadena Lodge, No. 385.

One of the objectives of the Sons of St. George is to foster a closer friendship between America and England. The order also is interested in fostering the spirit of good citizenship and is constantly engaged in charitable enterprises, without regard to race or nationality.

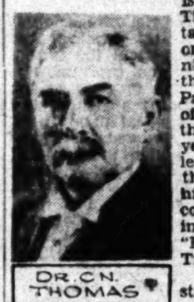
rique A. Jimenez, who is here from that country to attend the conference. Mr. Jimenez was formerly vice-president of Panama.

A commission has been appointed by the Panaman government, he said, to study the free zone proposition. The establishment of it will be a material factor in opening the way to the distribution of a larger amount of California products to South American countries, he believes. It more than ever would make Panama a cross-roads of trade between South and North America.

Within three or four years, Panama will be ready to begin work on its link of the projected Pan-American Highway, Mr. Jimenez stated. The importance of this highway is well realized in Panama.

Possibly no man in California is watching the Pan-American conference with greater interest than is Dr. C. N. Thomas of Santa Monica, at one time colonizing agent for the Southern Pacific Railroad of Mexico. For the last two years he has lectured to more than 100,000 high school and college students in California on "Mexico in Transition."



DR. C.N. THOMAS

He has stressed the importance of the study of Spanish by the youth of the State and discussed freely the problems of Latin-America.

Dr. Thomas occasionally makes Mexican tours, speaking at the university, normal and high schools. Three of the most interesting audiences he ever addressed, he says, were at the Ladies' Manual and Industrial School in Mexico City, where 2500 attended his lectures. He also has spoken to 600 full-blooded Indians of twenty-six different tribes, who are attending an industrial school in Mexico City founded by President Calles.

AMERICAN SPIRIT

In Mexico Dr. Thomas always speaks on "The Spirit of the People of the United States."

"They do not understand us any better than we understand them," he declared, "but fortunately both in Latin America and here there is a striving today for mental understanding. Our people do not notice to what extent Latin Americans are studying English. This factor is going to be far-reaching in future relationships between the two peoples."

Dr. Thomas says there are twenty-four Rotary clubs in Mexico and through them this country's Rotarians can form a bond that will aid in developing good will.

FINAL COLISEUM WORK ORDERED

Council Tells Board to Let $450,000 Contract

Enlarged Structure will be Ready for Football

County Boosts Its Funds to Finish Undertaking

A resolution authorizing and directing the Board of Public Works to enter immediately into a contract for the completion of the work on the Coliseum was introduced in the City Council yesterday by Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman Cooke, and adopted with only two dissenting votes.

The resolution directs the board to award the contract to the contracting firm of Edwards, Wildey & Dixon. This concern now has completed Unit A, the reconstruction job, which was awarded by the board last April on the low bid. The contractors also filed the low bid for Unit B, and it was understood that the board would give the firm this work, but due to some doubt as to whether the job should be readvertised, the resolution was voted by the Council.

The work, which adds seats to the bowl providing for 105,000 spectators, includes the rest rooms, lighting arrangements, press and radio fittings. Councilman Davis explained to the Council that the work on Unit B should be started at once, due to the fact that the uncompleted condition of the bowl will constitute a menace to the spectators at the great football games in the fall. Under yesterday's action, the additional seating capacity will be available for the important games at the end of the season.

The cost of Unit B is $450,000, contributed half by the city and half by the county. Unit A also cost approximately $450,000.

The Community Development Association, which financed the original structure, continues to operate the Coliseum with the Olympic commission until the end of the Olympic year, 1932.

That funds for the enlargement of the seating capacity of the Coliseum will be available, was assured yesterday when the Board of Supervisors adopted a resolution agreeing to increase the county's appropriation for the work from $225,000 to $227,000.

The action was taken on the motion of Supervisor Quinn. It brings the county's appropriation on a par with the $227,000 recently set aside by the city.

Wife Assents to Divorce Request

Mrs. Blanche Wright was wondering where her husband was late one night, she told Superior Judge Hanby yesterday.

"And just then he called me on the phone," she testified, "and a strange woman told me she wanted to marry him, if I would be so kind as to get a divorce. So I left him at once, and here I am."

Judge Hanby granted the divorce.

PERSONNEL and PERSONALITY

THIS BANK takes a great deal of pride in the high quality of its personnel of more than 3,400 men and women. We also take a great deal of care to maintain that high quality.

A Security-First National man is proud of his institution and his connection with it. He is ambitious, taking advantage of many facilities offered by the Bank for educating himself for higher responsibilities. He knows that wherever he may be stationed...in the most humble clerical position in the smallest Branch, or in direct contact with the higher officers...the same care is taken to observe his progress. He knows he will be given opportunity for advancement as he merits it.

Once a man is established as congenial and the right material, he will not lose his place nor his chance for promotion except by his own act or neglect. His life is insured by the Bank, a pension fund is provided. He is encouraged to develop his physical well being as well as to educate himself.

The goal of the Bank is to have every customer waited upon by a man who thoroughly understands the work he is doing and who meets you with the confidence and courtesy which comes with being competent. This is one of the reasons why so many prefer this Bank as the place for their banking business.

SCENARIO CASE PAIR ARRAIGNED

[illegible] and Easley Released on Furnishing Bail

Charged with Plot to Steal "[illegible] Patrol" Script

Preliminary Hearing Set for September 8, Next

[illegible] with conspiracy to steal a copy of the scenario of "The [illegible] Patrol" from an employee of [illegible] studio, Joseph [illegible], [illegible] years of age, who says he is a writer for the Caddo company, and [illegible] J. Easley, 38, said to be a detective, were arraigned before Municipal Judge Ballard yesterday. They were released on [illegible] bail each pending preliminary hearing, which was set for September 8 next.

The men were arrested by District Attorney's office investigators [illegible] night after they had obtained the scenario from Carmelita [illegible], an employee of Warner [illegible], in her apartment at 1403 [illegible] avenue, the investigators reported. Miss Sweeney and [illegible], 3861 Gregory Way, were questioned by officers but no complaints were filed against them.

BOY'S BODY TAKEN FROM GRAVEL PIT

The body of Leo Martin, 10 years of age, 1[illegible] East Twenty-first street, [illegible] was found yesterday in a [illegible] formed by seepage water in an old gravel pit in Arroyo Seco, near Avenue 22 and Humboldt [illegible]. The boy is thought to have [illegible] into the water while playing.

BRIBE CASE GO-BETWEEN SENTENCED

Louis Krause Given One to Ten Years for Part in Julian Juror "Fixing"

Louis Krause, convicted go-between for Jacob Berman, former Julian Petroleum Corporation official, when he bribed members of the first Julian jury in 1928, was sentenced to one to ten years in State prison by Superior Judge Wilson yesterday morning. At the same time attorneys for the convicted man announced that an appeal will be taken.

Krause was convicted on a bribery charge after Begman took the stand against him and testified that he approached at least one juror in the Julian case and assisted in "fixing" him. Following the conviction Krause asked for probation and this was denied before he was sentenced.

CIVIL SERVICE HEAD CHECKS ON SYSTEM

J. B. Probst, secretary and chief of the St. Paul (Minn.) Civil Service Department, creator of the "J. B." system of service rating for civil service employees, yesterday visited the Los Angeles Civil Service Department to study the effect of the system in rating employees of the Water and Power Department, where it was first used by this city. Under the new charter the Civil Service Department is rating all employees of the city and started first with the Water and Power Department. Probst will be here a week checking on the system, which finds out an employee's qualifications for the job he holds.

YOUTH MAY DIE OF BURNS

While trying to start a grass fire in a vacant lot with gasoline 9-year-old John Owen, 438 East Twentieth street, received probably fatal burns when the fuel exploded and engulfed him in flames last night.

The parents told police the boy had procured the gasoline without their knowledge and was endeavoring to burn a pile of dried grass in the lot next to their home when the gasoline exploded.

The boy was badly burned before parents and neighbors could extinguish his blazing clothing. He was taken to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital for emergency treatment and then removed to the General Hospital.

Chicken Rancher Still Trying to Obtain Divorce

Jacob Hoffmann, 69-year-old Van Nuys chicken rancher, is still after that divorce from his matrimonial agency bride of 57 which was refused him in Superior Court June 25, last.

Informed by Superior Judge Tryon that his evidence was not sufficient for a divorce from Jennie Orrell Hoffmann, Hoffmann's attorney, Gordon J. Hatert, proceeded to file another complaint. It sets forth that his wife promised to take care of the fowl if she was married and given a good home and that instead of sticking to her incubators, she toured the State in the family flivver, running up garage bills and incurring fines for traffic violations.

Mojica Guest at Plaza Cafe

Senor Jose Mojica, Mexican tenor of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, who rose from a singing youth of Jalisco to sing with Caruso and Garden, will grace El Paseo de Los Angeles this evening.

He will be guest of honor at Casa La Golondrina at a dinner-dance in the quaint Mexican street off the Plaza, Senora Consuelo Castillo De Bonzo, proprietor, announces.

Weeping Swain Freed by Jury on Gun Charge

A revolver caught on the handkerchief he drew from his hip pocket, John Barkley told a jury, which yesterday acquitted him of assault with a deadly weapon. Barkley, formerly a fireman, was tried in Superior Judge Craig's court, charged with attempting to shoot Mrs. Leona Yost of Covina because she refused to go to a show with him.

"I was reaching for my handkerchief, not my gun," said Barkley. He explained that Mrs. Yost's refusal moved him to tears, and he drew his handkerchief. With it popped out the revolver.

VETERANS MAY USE HALL WITHOUT COST

Hereafter there will be no charge made for meetings held at Patriotic Hall, 1916 South Figueroa street, by fraternal and other organizations composed entirely of war veterans. This was the decision of the Board of Supervisors yesterday following the introduction by Supervisor Wright of a revised schedule of charges made for the hall. Nonveteran organizations, including the women's auxiliaries to veterans' units, must pay a charge to defray the expense of operating the elevators and operating the hall, the Supervisor said.

JUDGE RAPS POLICEMAN IN SLAYING

Court Asserts Killing of Young Negro by Officer Unjustifiable Homicide

Characterizing the shooting of William Teems, youthful Negro, by Police Officer Luther Weyant as an "unjustifiable killing," Municipal Judge Frederickson yesterday ordered Weyant confined in jail without bail to await trial by Superior Court on murder charges. In summing up, the court declared that "it would have been much better to allow Teems to escape rather than to take his life in this manner," and "shooting in misdemeanor cases is wholly unjustifiable."

Teems was shot down, witnesses testified, when he escaped from Weyant after being arrested for gambling in a dice game behind a pool hall at One Hundred and Sixteenth street and Wilmington Road on the 2nd inst.

Pair Identifies Bandit Suspect

Two victims of bandit hold-ups yesterday identified Joaquin Gorricho, 23 years of age, of 2120 Valley street, as the man who robbed them. They are Miss Rose Wright of 708 South Alvarado street, who charged Gorricho entered the candy store at that address on the 6th inst. and forced her at revolver point to give him $20, and M. G. Whitlatch, 3324 Berkeley avenue, who asserted he was held up by Gorricho on the 3rd inst. and robbed of $6.

Gorricho and his brother Augustus were arrested last week when police investigated a woman's scream in their apartment. No explanation of the scream has been obtained.

4 Screen Grid Tubes

- Times will change—but BRUNSWICK'S New Futura Models incorporate all the practical improvements you may expect in radio for seasons to come.

It's easy to imagine better cars and homes and aircraft of the future—but it's hard to imagine a finer radio than the new Brunswick for 1931!

- What more can a radio ever do than bring you your ether entertainment from any distance in any weather; pick it out with ultimate precision from the crowded airwaves; shield it from all electrical interference; and deliver it to you silken smooth in tone—all at the summons of a single dial control?

Yet all this the Brunswick—and only the Brunswick—does today!

- Four revolutionary features, plus Brunswick's traditional painstaking workmanship, explain why these amazing models so completely anticipate the future.

Just to see and hear them is not enough. It will show you only their present perfection—not their extra years of service . . . Add that to the values you get in any set of equal or greater price, and you'll add the Brunswick to your household with calm assurance that you've made the only possible buy!

Today's Bible Text

Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.—2 Tim. ii, 15.

NASTY BUGS

The bark beetle is said to kill off more than $20,000,000 worth of timber every year. Somebody ought to swat the little son of a gun.

ISLAND JAM

The island of Java, with its 690 inhabitants to the square mile, is said to be the most densely populated country on the globe. It's a wonder they have grounds for their coffee.

FLYING FAMILIES

We now have the two-plane family. Col. Lindbergh has bought a special sky roadster for his wife, who has qualified as a pilot. How soon will it be before the kid will be crying for his own sky scooter?

LEFT MILLIONS

The late Chauncey M. Depew left an estate of a trifle over $16,000,000. He had Bryan's ratio of sixteen to one down fine—sixteen millions for one man. Among his benefactions is one of $1,000,000 to Yale. That should get a pretty good football team.

RADIO AND RAIN

One of the leading coal operators in Virginia asserts his profound conviction that radio broadcasting is largely responsible for the drought that prevailed in so much of the country. We might try locking up Graham McNamee and see if the nation goes wet.

HIGH-PRICED KISSES

While a man and woman were kissing in an auto the steering gear went wild; the car ran off the road and turned over and another passenger was badly hurt. The latter sued for damages and the loving pair have been assessed $12,000 for their indiscretion. Talk about your costly kisses! This sounds like the top of the market.

WHAT PRIZE BEAUTY?

The New Orleans candidate for the beauty prize of the nation has advanced to the highest honor of them all. She has been crowned beauty queen of the universe, having cleaned up on all the offerings of European countries. She is described as a glowing blond and already has designs upon Hollywood. She is likely to find some real competition there.

TREE-SITTERS

The tree-sitting endurance contests among kids is getting up into the higher branches. The desire for publicity doubtless has much to do with the craze.

Salvatore Scarpitta, 11-year-old screen star of Hollywood, climbed into a tree and stated that he would stay there for 250 hours. He eschewed the rocking chair and soft cushion as effeminate and insisted on sitting in the crotch of a tree unaided. He thought there ought to be a law against any other sort of procedure in such serious business. He took his bath twice daily by having the garden hose turned on him. Remaining aloft 602 hours, he is believed to have established the world record.

Boys back East have begun to fall out of trees. One was hurt so badly that he may die, and others have acquired broken ribs and arms. Police have stopped the contests in some cities and mothers have taken a strong hand in others. A Kansas City boy sat on his bough 214 hours and then his refueler, namely his mother, struck and refused to send up any more rations. It resolved itself into an endurance contest between mother and son.

In Oklahoma a Boy Scout took to his tree. He was a stickler for attending his meetings and so influenced his troop to conduct its sessions under his perch. By this stroke of genius he established two records.

The endurance test idea is not confined to tree-sitting alone. Some New Jersey youngsters are the original starters of the fad to see who could hold water in the mouth the longest. If some of our politicians should take part in this type of contest it would help.

The lone good word that has been spoken for the craze was uttered by an Oakland (Cal.) mother, who said that she hoped that her tree-sitting son would stay aloft until school starts.

FITTS'S RECORD IN OFFICE

The biennial report of the work of the Los Angeles County District Attorney's office recently filed with the Attorney-General is a record of efficiency and economy that will be surprising to all who have not closely followed the career in office of Dist.-Atty. Fitts. The record is in startling contrast with that of the preceding two years, the more startling when it is realized that Mr. Fitts's incumbency covered only nineteen months of the twenty-four-month period, the other five months having been under his predecessor.

While only thirty-seven more cases were handled in the two years ending June 30, 1930, than in the period ending June 30, 1928, in the later (Fitts) biennium there were 4775 convictions obtained, as compared with 3597 for the earlier one under Keyes, an increase of 1178, or 32.7 per cent. The number of cases increased only one-half of 1 per cent. There was, however, a vast increase in number of cases tried, since in the 1930 report it is shown that 1610 cases were brought before Superior Court and determined, while in the 1928 the number was only 1028, an increase of 56 per cent. The difference represents cases dismissed, defendants released on habeas corpus, and so forth, of which only 1214 were shown in the 1930 report and 2443—more than twice as many—in the 1928 report.

This vastly greater volume of work—for cases carried to completion necessarily take much more work than those thrown out—was accomplished with an actual decrease in staff. The staff at the time of the 1928 report was 149 persons; that of 1930 was 147.

Nineteen months of Mr. Fitts's regime and five months of Keyes's obtained thus 73.4 per cent of convictions, while twenty-four months of the Keyes regime, handling practically the same number of cases, obtained only 55.6 per cent of convictions. The ratio of convictions to cases tried under Fitts (and five months of Keyes) was more than 90 per cent; the ratio of convictions to cases tried under Keyes alone was about 88 per cent, indicating only a slightly greater efficiency in court on the part of Fitts and his staff; where the Fitts regime scored overwhelmingly was in ratio of cases brought to trial. The figures indicate that a large number of criminals escaped their just dues by the dismissal route when Keyes was in office.

It is on the work done out of court as well as in court that the record of a District Attorney must be judged. It should be remembered also that the five months of the Keyes regime included in this report was the time when the efficiency of the office was at its lowest ebb, when disorganization and slackness were at their height; that Mr. Fitts took hold in the midst of the greatest difficulties, was forced to make an almost complete reorganization and at the same time carry on a trial of the greatest importance—that of his predecessor himself; and that only an extremely capable administrator could have put a smooth-running organization together and made it work as Mr. Fitts evidently did.

The report shows, as no mere opinion not backed by facts and figures could, the capacity of Buron Fitts to conduct large public affairs. He has more than made good in an office more difficult, on the whole, than the Governorship. He plainly deserves the promotion he seeks.

An interesting sidelight in the report shows the operation of the plan making jury trials optional. Of the felony cases tried during the period covered by the report about one-third were tried by judges without juries. But in May, 1930, the proportion of juryless trials increased to that of forty-three to thirty-six, while in June forty-six cases were tried by judges alone and only twenty-seven with juries. If the same tendency increases, it is obvious that juries in time may be eliminated.

MORE TAMMANY REFORM

Mayor Walker followed up a wigging he recently gave his department of markets and bureau of weights and measures by suspending from office his first deputy commissioner of plants and structures. The market and weight departments he accused of being on a "perpetual vacation." The deputy is accused of accepting $10,000 to recommend to the Mayor the naming of a certain man as city magistrate.

Nor is this all. During the past year a regular and continuing scandal has been popping in the magistrate's and other criminal courts of New York City. There have been removals, resignations after indictment, resignations under charges and so on, of none of which Mayor Walker began to take notice until very recently. So noxious became the atmosphere that the Mayor was practically forced a few weeks ago to name as chief magistrate, Joseph E. Corrigan, a man of unimpeachable character and probity and no friend to Tammany Hall.

This sudden wave of reform and reorganization, these sudden decrees that city employees must do some work, undoubtedly have a meaning. Do they portend that Tammany will turn over another new leaf and that henceforward all will be sweetness and light? They are somewhat in contrast with the casting into outer darkness of all the "new Tammany" men shortly after the 1928 election, and they may be an acknowledgment that that ostracism was a mistake.

They also may mean that a fall election is coming and that Tammany is very much interested in retaining a friend as Governor of the State. Gov. Roosevelt, who is presumably to be up for re-election, is not rated a Tammany man, but he has displayed no hostility to the city organization and has played into its hands on more than one occasion.

GUMMING UP THE DAIL

Although there appears to be no record as to our Congress or the British Parliament ever having become greatly exercised over the matter of chewing gum, the snappy chicle has been the subject of considerable debate in the Irish Dail of late, the question having arisen as to whether or not its sale should be prohibited in the Free State.

High Irish officials appear to be worried over the increasing menace of gum chewing. It grieves them to see so many Irish jaws working to so little purpose. Dublin doctors are asking one another what effect gum chewing is having upon the health of the nation. It does not greatly interest them to be told that the United States chews more than $50,000,000 worth of gum annually. What they want to know is, what good or harm it does to the chewer.

The Free State minister for local government was asked in the Dail recently if he would introduce legislation for the abolition of "the evil." He is looking up medical and other lore telling just how deadly the gum habit is. Meanwhile, H. G. Wells, over in London, has said that gum chewing is undignified and that ought to settle it, though it probably will not.

THE LAWN

By James J. Montague

I've labored hard to make a lawn
Of soft and velvet sheen,
A lovely thing to look upon,
A sheet of shining green.
I've mowed it, I have weeded it
From early dawn till dark.
I've tried my best to make it fit
To grace a regal park.
I've watered it with careful hand
Through many heated terms,
But all I've done is raise a band
Of bugs and slugs and worms.

The Asiatic beetles hide
Beneath the tender blades,
And slugs in regiments reside
Among the grassy shades,
While myriads of foreign flies
Come daily to be fed
When early morning mists arise
On arsenate of lead.
Each week the tender spearlets wilt
And sadly I look down
Upon an ugly crazy quilt
Of chocolate and brown.

I thought I plied a noble art
Like that wise man of yore,
Who made two gleaming grass blades start
Where one had grown before.
I thought, with my untutored mind,
That, helped by sun and rain,
I soon would conquer insect kind
With my superior brain.
But now no more my skill I flaunt,
For I have grown more wise.
I know I run a restaurant
For bugs and slugs and flies!

The Old Oaken Ice Wagon

We admit we're old-fashioned. But so far we have been adamant against the high-powered salesmen who have tried to sell us electric refrigerators.

One of the most joyous moments of the day around our house, during vacation time, is when the ice truck arrives. Then our twenty-mule-team quartet of pirates swarm over its sides, with their cutlasses in their teeth and both hands free for action. They form a boarding party no ice man with a heart in him could beat off. They swoop aloft with a wild yell, which instantly is followed by the gnashing and grinding of teeth, and then they leap down again, each with a handful or several handfuls of glittering jewels.

In our day it was a hatful. But not one of our boys owns a hat. Once several years ago we sold a story unexpectedly and bought the boys hats all around, but it was a waste of money. Being Southern California kids, they didn't know what hats were for. They didn't know how to fill them with water at the spring or the creek, as we used to, because they rarely see a spring or creek. They didn't know how to use them when they went peach-swiping, because they don't go peach-swiping as did some other boys we can remember. There once was a boy we could name, but won't because it's a secret, who would give up a fine lot of chores any day to lead an attack on an orchard or a watermelon patch. He cheerfully would walk miles, creep through gloomy, lonely woods, take fearsome risks with barb-wire fences, fierce dogs and even salt-and-bacon loaded shotguns, all for the joy of thrusting into his long-suffering tummy a chunk of watermelon as green as the flag of Ireland—and as sure to cause trouble. All the neighbors predicted that we—that he, we mean—would wind up in the penitentiary. Strange to say, the only boy in that neighborhood who did wind up in the penitentiary was such a nice boy that his parents wouldn't let him play with that unnamable bad boy.

But things are different here in Southern California. In Ourville all the yards are so full of fruit that neighbors who can't bear seeing it drop and waste on the ground continually are inviting the boys in to raid the trees. They've gotten so they'll only do it for those neighbors they really like—as a matter of accommodation.

Kids Have So Little Nowadays!

Yes, these modern kids have few real pleasures, few genuine old-time thrills. They have to get along with a lot of imitation joys, factory made, on sale everywhere, and more cloying than satisfying. But while the ice wagon remains with us they'll still have one. They can dash out and raid the ice wagon with all the gay abandon of the real kids of forty years ago. Besides the actual physical pleasure of crunching ice with the bare teeth, they can rejoice in disregarding the admonitions of anxious elders: "Now, Buddy, you mustn't. You'll simply ruin your teeth." We ruined our teeth that way every day for a good many years, and they're better teeth than average now.

We admit the electric refrigerator has advantages over the ice box for many families. But the world is getting drab enough for children, now that so much is done to improve and entertain them. They have so many bought pleasures thrust upon them that they are losing their initiative. No doubt there are many, in more decadent neighborhoods than ours, who haven't even the pep to dash out and raid an ice wagon. But so long as the majority of kids still are sure-nuff kids we hope the ice wagon will continue to carry joy and inspiration—inspiration to piracy—through Boyland. It is a link with the past, a reminder which often should stay the hand which wields the rod or swings the razor strap. It is freighted with jewels of memory for us of the passing generation, as well as with the best diamonds on earth—edible diamonds—for modern pirates. Long may it crunch!!

Joshua Little Says

Literally translated, Agua Caliente means hot water; but for some of those who go there it means fire water.

"Lightning never strikes twice in the same place." And along the Southern California coast it never strikes once in the same place.

H. L. Menken is 50 years old and soon is to marry, for the first time. That's pretty good evidence that it isn't marriage that makes men cynical.

Millions of old shoes are made into perfumes, they tell us. I always did find perfumes rather sickening.

Wherever you find red-blooded men and blue-blooded horses you find cold-blooded sharks getting blood money.

Rattlesnakes, Uncle John's department informs us, are lured by radio. Maybe they just want to bite the darn thing.

It's all the women's fault if marriage is on the decrease. They're getting so mighty few of them suit the sort of man who asks only that a wife get up three good meals a day without either financial or physical aid from him.

WHAT OTHERS THINK ABOUT IT

The Backward Peoples

[Chicago Tribune]

The symbol of the revolutionary movement in India is the spinning wheel. The western world can find it possible to sympathize with a movement for political liberty, but it is not possible for most of us to grow ecstatic over a movement whose objective appears to be a backward economic regime of handicrafts and the low standard of living which is its inevitable accompaniment. We may be obtuse, as oriental mystics say we are, but we cannot see anything but loss to the world if independence brings economic degradation.

Probably the best reason any subject people can have for demanding independence is its desire to use political freedom for economic advancement. It is that thought, we suspect, which tempers the admiration of the American people for the efforts of the Indians, the Egyptians, the Arabs, and the other peoples which are in a more or less constant state of ferment.

It is not impossible that the Indians will succeed in gaining their freedom despite their reactionary economic outlook. If they do, their success may prove to be an empty one. They will have achieved political independence only to slide farther down the scale economically. Their dependence upon foreign money and foreign leadership will be increased. We should feel much more certain both of the success of the Indian rebellion and its worth if its symbol were not the spinning wheel but the dynamo.

Summer Camps in Russia

[Detroit Free Press]

Those who protest against the establishment of citizens' military training camps in the United States should study the regulations governing summer camps organized in Russia by the company for the development of the chemical and aviation industry of the soviet republics. Ostensibly vacation camps for both men and women workers, a writer in the Paris Illustration describes the holidays there as "camouflaged periods of military instruction." Rates at the camp make it possible for a worker to spend a fortnight at a cost of $1.50, but five hours of each day in camp must be given over to supervised physical exercise, marching target practice and theoretic instruction in the ungentle art of waging war. In all this the women share equally with the men, indicating that Russia accepts, even eagerly, what would be decried in the United States—military training camps for women.

JAMES D. PHELAN

BY BAILEY MILLARD

With a plump figure, fine head, handsome face and eyes that looked straight at you, James Duval Phelan was a man of impressive personality, despite his short stature. Two things that struck you on meeting him for the first time were his amiability and sincerity. Intense seriousness and kindly grace were of his chief characteristics. Though a man of great wealth, most of it inherited from his father, he was quite democratic.

In the 'eighties the sons of rich California pioneers in gay San Francisco generally were regarded as easy-going wastrels. Young Phelan was rather a lonely exception. He was sober, studious, ambitious and given to idealism. In youth he dreamed of being an author, and later of being a lawyer, but his father, who in 1870 organized the First National Bank of San Francisco, wanted him to go into the banking business, which he did, and in after years he also became interested in politics.

"My good father," he used to tell his friends, "spoiled my career as a writer when he made me a banker and then politics spoiled me for the law."

As a leading spirit of the Bohemian and other clubs and as a familiar figure about town, "Jimmy" Phelan could have been pointed out to you in the street or elsewhere by almost anybody in San Francisco. His was an example, almost unbelievable in those days, of a wealthy young fellow who was popular about town without embracing the flagon or "chasing around" of nights.

Although I often had seen him at public gatherings and in the street I did not make his acquaintance until in the early 'nineties, when the bicycle craze was at its height. I was learning to ride the silent steed in a private inclosure near Golden Gate Park and was awkwardly trundling the machine around and around a little circular track, when of a sudden I saw a young man, quite as awkward with the wheel as myself, pedaling desperately straight toward me. The ensuing crash seemed inevitable. As we both groveled in the grit we looked at each other and laughed. When we gained our feet I said, "Mr. Phelan, I believe."

"Correct," he replied. "And your name?"

I told him. He asked if I were hurt and seemed glad to learn I wasn't. Afterward we had a talk, which ran from bicycling into literature. It ended with a promise that I visit him at his office in the Phelan Building and look over a manuscript or two which he had prepared. On that second and other meetings he revealed himself as a lover of poetry and music. Of operatic music he had an uncanny knowledge for a business man.

Once I heard him deliver a memorial address on Verdi and I doubt if anybody else on the Coast could have given a finer or more appreciative one. In that address he said: "The genius who can awaken love and fear, pity and remorse by the varying strains of his music, mysteriously persuasive, suggests the spirit which dominates the universe."

Phelan had the soul of an artist and I believe he felt that it was a mistake for him to have become a banker. He wrote little for publication, but what he did publish soared high above the average product of dilettantism.

His tremendous earnestness and forthright altruism made him an inspiring figure in politics when he entered that field in 1895 to fight the local bosses who had debauched San Francisco officialdom. He engaged in a pitched battle with the grafters and the people rewarded him by making him Mayor of the city three successive times and afterward helped him to become a United States Senator.

Phelan loved San Francisco and the city owes much to him. Two of its greatest benefits, the revised city charter and the Hetch Hetchy water supply, were largely due to his hard-fought battles.

Although listed as a Democrat, he generally was known as a nonpartisan locally and as such commanded the respect of the best elements of both great political parties. As an example of the confidence in which he was held by President Roosevelt, who knew him very well, it may be said that when the Red Cross collected $10,000,000 for the relief of the sufferers from the great fire of 1906, Roosevelt personally sent the fund to Phelan, then in private life, and he had the handling of it.

Phelan gave the finely sculptured Native Sons monument and many other works of art to San Francisco. He was a regular patron of the best California artists and helped many a struggling painter and writer to gain recognition. Sometimes his efforts in that line were of little avail. About a year ago he was the "angel" for a down-and-out Los Angeles playwright. "He is paying me $100 a week to write a drama of the Southwest," the author told me, "and will put it on at his expense. It's the biggest kind of a gamble, but he and I are hoping it will succeed."

It didn't. But at any rate the author ate for a while, which probably was Phelan's idea in sponsoring the play.

The very first railroad for general transportation completed in the United States is about to be abandoned; the Pontchartrain line which runs from New Orleans proper to the lake of that name, after 100 years of service. In the old days, the train carried masts and sails, so that if the power failed, and the wind blew, the destination was reached anyway.

Mexico Yet to Be Heard From

COMPTON, Aug. 8.—[To the Editor of The Times:] We are just beginning to realize the potentialities of what was once known as "The Great American Desert." Boulder Dam will do much toward completing that transformation. The twentieth century will witness quite as great a transformation in Lower California, a province 700 or 800 miles long—much longer than Florida.

Lower California has a winter climate rivaling that of Miami and Havana. Sooner or later we are going to want that country and want it badly, even if only for reasons of national defense. We can get it now. We may not be able to get it later—without trouble, which would engender ill will and suspicion in Latin America.

By buying it now, we could put Mexico on its feet financially and incidentally settle the difficult problem of Mexican claims now embittering our relations.

Knocking the Chamber

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I have read in The Times with anger and disgust of the Chamber of Commerce's latest move to bring more people to Southern California. There are far too many here now and no prospective employment for newcomers.

If the Chamber of Commerce and the All-Year Club persist in these activities, they should be compelled to bear the full burden of the Community Chest. The people of Los Angeles are waking up to the representations of these two organizations and many a letter will go East this fall telling friends not to be deceived by the blandishments of Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce fairy tales.

Italy's Earthquake Insurance

PASADENA, Aug. 8.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The latest earthquake disaster in Italy again directs our attention to such catastrophes and especially arouses an appreciation of the steps undertaken by the Italian government in the form of insurance to cover property loss, personal indemnities, injuries to persons, death, etc., which result therefrom.

As at first proposed, the undertaking was vigorously opposed and then abandoned. Later, however, the plan was revived by Premier Mussolini and since 1927 many public enactments, looking to this end, have been most favorably considered. Whether the legislation has been in effect a sufficient length of time to result in the requisite accumulation of the funds, we are not informed. It is at least a forward step in European affairs and brings into the limelight the vision and foresight of the Italian Premier.

As Americans we are much inclined to regard our commercial policies and economic regulations as rather superior. However, we can with profit observe Italy's experience. From recent information it is to be noted that the rates for earthquake coverage levied abroad are but nominal and the plan is there generally accepted and popular.

Something Wrong

POMONA, Aug. 7.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I knew there was something wrong with The Times when I picked it up this morning, and when I opened the paper there, sure enough, was a whole Carr-load of saccarine slush.

What an emotional orgy the poor fellow must have had. I'll bet he saved a handful of rice to sleep on.

If you had only had photos of the bride and groom holding hands like "frightened little royal children," and a sketch of that Cord automobile "leaping away like a frightened deer," why, Hearst himself couldn't have equaled it.

H. A. MARSH.

Writes "Whim" Over Her Door

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 8.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Why Harry Carr should be picked on because his list did not agree with the tastes of some of the Lancer's readers is beyond me. The world would be dull as ditch water did we all think alike on any subject or have the same preferences. Who wants to be consistent? Like Emerson, I write "whim" over my library door.

I may be telling Mr. Carr something when I say that if he has not read A. C. Benson, he does not know what he has missed. I would not exchange "Joyous Garde" or "Where No Fear Was" or "Along the Road" for many another book.

Mr. Benson, fellow of Magdalene College, probes with a pen as trenchant as tender into the festers of life and shows us, in beautiful English and with the certainty of a surgeon and his scalpel, how to make those spots sweet and safe. A man is one in a thousand who can utter such divergent sentiments as: "Of course we cannot all hope to have the supreme tact and sympathy of a dog. Clever and useful and important as we are, that is beyond our powers." And from "Joyous Garde," how many of us will agree that "The detestable Puritan that exists in many of us, which is the most utterly unchristian thing I know, tempts us to feel that no discipline is worth anything unless it is dark and gloomy."

CONTESTS HOT FOR ASSEMBLY

Golden-McClary Race in New District One of Warmest

Ex-Policeman Plays Politics After Forced Resignation

He Receives Two Pensions Despite Reputed Riches

BY THE WATCHMAN

Attracting less attention than many other political contests which the primary election two weeks hence will determine, but having a great aggregate importance to the welfare of this area, the twenty-two fights for nominations to the State Assembly from Los Angeles county have developed several interesting problems.

One of the most active Assembly battles is occurring in the Fifty-fifth District, a new legislative division in Hollywood, where six aspirants are seeking the Republican nomination.

These are Attorney Milton M. Golden, Frank E. Benedict, Will E. Burnham, William Edward Conlon, Guy W. Finney and former Police Captain L. L. McClary. Burnham's occupation is given as theatrical manager; Benedict is a former member of the local Federal dry enforcement organization; Finney is a former newspaper writer; Conlon is a theatrical representative.

TEST OF STRENGTH

Developments indicate that the contest has settled down to a test of strength between Golden and McClary.

The latter candidate has had a long and colorful career in the local police department, and has been identified, either openly or secretly, with many aspects of the periodic disturbances and department politics which have kept the local police organization in an uproar for many years.

McClary retired from the police department some time ago on pension, declining to stand charges which were to be preferred against him at the time by the Chief of Police. The then police captain was offered the alternative of handing in his resignation, taking a pension and retiring from police service, or of submitting the merits of the charges against him to formal trial.

TWO PENSIONS

He chose the resignation route and has since interested himself in local politics, occasionally participating in various phases of political activity in the police department. McClary has from time to time ascribed his enforced withdrawal from the department as "inside politics."

Although reputedly wealthy, the former captain of police is the recipient of two monthly pensions, according to local records and documents on file in the Pension Bureau at Washington.

The first pension is based on a claim of twenty years' connection with the Los Angeles Police Department, and the second is paid for service in the Army during the Spanish-American War.

Attorney Golden is regarded as the strongest contender against McClary for the Assembly seat. He has practiced law in Los Angeles for several years, and his candidacy has been indorsed by various civic, religious and fraternal organizations.

OTHER CONTESTS

In other districts there are contests in progress necessitating careful consideration by the voters if the best-qualified candidates are to be chosen.

Probably no single element of State government is closer to the needs and problems of the people than the State Assembly. Los Angeles county, with an Assembly delegation in excess of 25 per cent of the entire State membership, there being eighty Assembly seats, has opportunity to wield an important influence on California laws and legislation.

The Assembly fights this year are based on the new apportionment of 1927, increasing the Los Angeles delegation from fifteen to twenty-two. Eleven incumbents are seeking re-election.

These are:

Eleanor Miller, Fifty-second District; Walter J. Little, Fifty-sixth; Clare Woolwine, Fifty-eighth; Willis M. Baum, Sixtieth; Frederick M. Roberts, Sixty-second; Emory J. Arnold, Sixty-third; Harry Lyons, Sixty-fourth; James E. Stockwell, Sixty-sixth; Frank McGinley, Seventy-second; Harry E. Sewell, Sixty-ninth, and Willard E. Badham, Fifty-ninth, the two latter being unopposed.

SOME FACE TROUBLE

The re-election of most of the incumbents is believed assured, with formidable opposition developing against Miss Miller, Woolwine, Arnold and McGinley.

In new Assembly districts the leading candidate in each, according to latest reports, follow:

Sarah E. Kellogg, Van Nuys club leader, Fifty-first; M. H. LeVan, real estate and insurance broker, Fifty-third; William L. Bonelli, former Los Angeles City Councilman, Fifty-fourth; W. H. (Bud) Lollier, motion-picture executive, Fifty-seventh; Clarence N. Wakefield, florist, Sixty-first; Sam M. Green, publisher, Sixty-fifth; Charles E. (Doc) Whiteside, Sixty-seventh; George H. Wilber, real estate operator, Sixty-eighth; A. C. Malone, Seventieth, and Harry B. Riley, printer, Seventy-first.

William E. Prather is reported as making serious inroads into the line-up of Miss Miller in Pasadena; friends supporting the candidacy of Attorney Lawrence Cobb, predict a victory for his candidacy in opposition to Woolwine, and in the district represented by Arnold, Attorney James V. Brewer is giving the incumbent increasingly strong competition. In the Seventy-second District, Ben A. Hill, San Pedro attorney, is making a strong fight for McGinley's seat.

MANY ELIGIBLES ON LIST OF ENGINEERS

Forty-nine passed the recent test to create an eligible list of engineers for the Los Angeles Fire Department, it was announced by the Los Angeles Civil Service Commission yesterday. The list is topped by Homer S. Stewart with 91.8 per cent, Harry S. Drake had 91.7 and Chris A. Hansen 90.3.

Flower Show at Pasadena to be "Best Yet"

Twenty-five thousand square feet of floor space has been obtained by Pasadena Horticultural Association for its fall flower show, for twenty-six years the largest annual floral event in Southern California, President James Matson announced yesterday. The exhibition will take place October 22-24 in the Home Telephone and Telegraph Building, Hudson avenue and Walnut street Pasadena. Entries already have been arranged in the competitions for about $2000 of medals and cups.

"Our show has grown from a little showing in a corner of the Hotel Maryland to the largest floral event in Southern California," Matson said, "and this semiannual show for fall flowers will be no exception to our rule to put on the best. We have 500 members and put on this show without profit at a cost of nearly $5000 to our association.

"A slight defection of some of the organizations in our exhibitions caused some talk about the prospects of success for this coming exhibition but it will go on and will be larger and better than ever."

Three Qualify for Defender

Three attorneys took the civil service test held yesterday by the Los Angeles Civil Service Department for the creation of an eligible list from which to choose a successor to Public Defender E. R. Orfila, whose resignation last week becomes effective on the 31st inst.

The three include Deputy City Prosecutor Ford M. Jack, Frederick M. Hall and John J. McCullough. Results of the test will not be known for several weeks. The position pays $325 a month and applicants are required to have five years' experience in law practice.

Group Honors Former Chief

Members of the Philippine Society of Los Angeles will honor W. Cameron Forbes, Ambassador to Japan, with a banquet in the Alexandria on the evening of the 25th inst., according to Harry Ross, president of the group.

Attendance of about 500 is expected. Members of the society served in the Philippines while Ambassador Forbes was Governor-General.

Of Interest to Women

Society

by JUANA NEAL LEVY

Of much interest to society of the Southland comes the announcement made in Santa Barbara several days ago by Misses Gertrude and Louise Macy, daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. Lloyd Macy of Pasadena, of the engagement of their charming young sister, Miss Mary Lloyd Macy to Nicholas Ludington, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Ludington of Ardmore, Pa. No date is announced as yet for the wedding.

Betrothal Dance

Another announcement made Saturday evening at a charmingly appointed dinner-dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Percival Thompson of Coronado at Hotel del Coronado, honoring their charming young daughter, Miss Kathleen Thompson, and her fiance, Lieut. Charles Allen Buchanan, U.S.N., son of Capt. and Mrs. Allen Buchanan, the news of the engagement being told by Mr. and Mrs. Thompson as the guests assembled in the crown room, where tables were arranged around the dance floor, decorations carrying out a summer garden effect with yellow roses and dahlias centering the tables against a background of ferns and potted plants and all lighted by tall candelabra. At the corners of the room and windows palms and potted plants were used.

Miss Thompson, a native daughter of Coronado, and one of the most popular members of the younger set, is a member of the San Diego Junior League. She attended the Beach School and later was graduated from the Sacred Heart Convent in Menlo Park and last year traveled abroad.

Lieut. Buchanan was graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis, class of 1926, and now is attached to the U.S.S. Omaha. His father, Capt. Buchanan, was recently naval aide to President Hoover, but is now on duty as chief of staff at the Naval War College, Newport, R. I. No date is announced for the wedding.

Another Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gale Soule of 123 South Serrano street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lucia Mary Soule, to Lowell Jenkins Chawner, son of Mrs. John Chawner of Adelaide Drive, Pasadena. The wedding will take place early next month.

Wedding Data

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wilbur Priseler are making formal announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte Bowen, to Charles Bland Neil, the wedding to be an event of the 29th inst., taking place in All Saints' Church, Beverly Hills.

Mrs. Joseph A. Addleman, Jr., (Elizabeth Priseler) will assist her sister as matron of honor, while William Nixon will serve as best man and Myron Wilbur Priseler, Jr., and Joseph A. Addleman, Jr., will usher.

In the East

Mrs. Alletta E. Wilson of 1403 South Manhattan Place is making an extended eastern trip, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Georgia Ober, in Topeka, Kan. Mrs. Ober, who will join her mother in a trip to Maine, is well known in Los Angeles. She visited her mother last year and passed much of the time at the Wilson cabin at Glenn Ranch. Mrs. Wilson will return early in November after a visit with another daughter, Mrs. Honeywell, in Berkeley.

Announce Wedding Date

A beautifully appointed luncheon and bridge is being arranged for tomorrow afternoon at the Town House, at which Miss Marjorie Thorson is entertaining in honor of Miss Mariana Hall, fiancee of her brother, Robert Dean Thorson, to announce the wedding date for Saturday in Wilshire Congregational Church at 8:30 o'clock, the ceremony to be followed by a supper-dance at the Biltmore for 200 guests.

Mrs. Joseph G. Armstrong of Pennsylvania, classmate of the bride at the Pennsylvania College for Women, will assist as matron of honor, while the bridesmaids will include Miss Irene Hall, sister of the bride, Miss Marjorie Thorson, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Lydia Michaels of Berkeley, Miss Ruth Greenberg, Miss Ruth Frost and Miss Marian Little, all of Los Angeles.

Charles Thorson will serve his brother as best man, while the ushers will all be Beta Phi Fraternity brothers of Mr. Thorson from University of California in Berkeley, where both he and Miss Hall were graduated with the class of 1929.

Smart Affair

A smart affair of recent date was the bridge-breakfast given by Mrs. Albert H. Webb, Jr., (Blanche Ansley) at her home, 6620 Carthay Center, honoring her sister, Mrs. Ray R. Reeves, the guests including many of the alumnae members of Alpha Chi Omega at University of Southern California.

The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of summer flowers, the place favors at the breakfast table being small bouquets of pansies, sweet peas and gypsophilia, while attractive butterfly place cards marked the covers for twenty-five guests.

Mrs. Reeves returned recently from San Francisco, where she has made her home for the past two years.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Graham Bryce of Pittsburgh and Pasadena announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marion Mahard Bryce, to Gordon Hawes Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oliver Bennett of Penn Yan, N. Y., who claims Hobart College as his alma mater. Miss Bryce was graduated from the Santa Barbara Girls' School and attended Stouts's European Travel School. No date is given for the wedding.

STUDENT'S FRIENDS SURPRISED

Betrothal of Host Announced

[Murillo for Western Press Service]
Miss Alice Craven

ONE of the lovely affairs of recent date was that with which Miss Alice Craven entertained at the Wilshire Country Club in honor of Miss Pauline Randle and Miss Annie Lou Jungquist, who are leaving for a cruise to Honolulu, returning in September to resume studies at the University of Southern California, where they and their charming hostess are students and members of Delta Gamma Sorority.

The affair also served to formally announce the betrothal of the hostess to Allen George Moser, the news being told at the close of the afternoon in heart-shaped ice creams pierced with tiny crystal arrows, the names of the betrothed being written on the arrows. No date is set as yet for the wedding.

A Bad Habit

Avoid the habit of sticking pins and needles into the arms of chairs and davenports. It is dangerous and besides very wearing to the furniture.

THRIFTY WOMEN SEE VALUE OF CANNING FRUIT THIS SUMMER

Never Before Has Sugar Been so Low in Price and Fruit is Plentiful

A glance at the overflowing fruit markets and then at the low price of sugar proves conclusively that 1930 is the year to put up fruit. Of course the more that is canned the bigger the financial gain, but even a few jars of preserves and glasses of jelly stored away will help cut food bills next winter.

Pickles and relishes made of cucumbers, tomatoes, cabbage and watermelon rind are also economical to put up. Their spicy tart-sweet goodness is most welcome when meats and fish are served.

Canned fruit has a place in the balanced diet. Most of them are rich in vitamins. For children, canned fruit is an ideal breakfast dish or a fitting dessert.

Beyond a doubt, the housewife who puts up plenty of fruit this summer will find that its consumption next winter will help keep her family well and save her money. Good food promotes good health. The Sugar Institute.

Chef Wyman's RECIPES

The Times' free cooking school conducted by Chef Wyman has been discontinued for the summer. Date for resuming has not been set but will be announced later.

PICKLED CANTALOUPES

Peel and remove the seeds from firm ripe cantaloupes, there should be five pounds of meat, place in a bowl, and cover with vinegar. Let stand for two days, drain off the vinegar, and add to it, five pounds of sugar, and boil slowly for fifteen minutes. Pour the mixture over the melon and let stand overnight, drain off the syrup, reboil, pour over the melon and let stand overnight. Repeat this process four times on the fifth day, add the grated rind of two medium-sized lemons, and the strained juice. Three ounces of stick cinnamon, broken in small pieces, and two dozen whole cloves, add the pieces of melon and simmer slowly until the syrup is thick. Pack in sterilized jars and seal. To be served with cold meats.

NUT WAFERS

Beat a half a cupful of butter to a cream, and beat into it one cupful of sugar, when light and creamy, add two well-beaten eggs, and beat until smooth, add two cupfuls of sifted flour, sifted with one and a half teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one-third teaspoonful of mace, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of allspice, one-half teaspoonful of ginger, and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt. Work the mixture to a smooth dough, place in a paraffin paper, and let remain in the ice box for four hours, roll out, cut with a cookie cutter, place on a buttered baking sheet, sprinkle with finely chopped nut meats, and bake in a moderate oven.

PINEAPPLE LOAF

Dissolve one cupful of sugar, in one-half cupful of water, and place in a double boiler, beat the yolks of four eggs and gradually add them to the mixture. Stir and cook until the mixture is thick and smooth, allow to cool, cream one cupful of butter, and gradually cream into it two cupfuls of sugar, add the egg mixture, and beat well, then add one cupful of drained crushed pineapple. To the four egg whites that have been beaten stiff, add a half a teaspoonful of vanilla extract, and two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, fold them into the pineapple mixture. Line on oblong mold with stale pieces of sponge cake, fill with the mixture, and chill overnight.

CREOLE OMELET

Five medium-sized ripe tomatoes, one medium-sized onion, one-half clove of garlic, one tablespoonful of butter, one tablespoonful of finely chopped ham, a seasoning of salt and paprika, five eggs, two tablespoonfuls of flour, one-half teaspoonful of baking powder, and one-fourth cupful of cold water. Scald and slice the tomatoes, chop the onion and garlic, heat two tablespoonfuls of butter in the saute pan, add the onion and garlic, and fry until a light yellow, add the tomato, bread crumbs, ham and seasonings, and let simmer for thirty minutes. Separate the eggs, beat the eggs, beat the yolks until light and lemon colored, and beat the whites until stiff and dry, add the salt, flour and baking powder to the well-beaten yolks, and the water, then fold the whites into the yolks, heat three tablespoonfuls of butter in a saute pan, and when bubbling, pour in the egg mixture. Cook slowly, moving the omelet from the sides and bottom of the pan with a flat-bladed knife, until well browned, then place in the oven, and bake until brown on top and firm to the touch. Place half of the omelet onto a hot platter, pour the sauce through the center, fold over and pour the remainder over the top.

Health and Diet ADVICE

by DR. FRANK McCOY
Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

THE PROBLEM OF GAS PAINS

Many people think that headaches and colds are the most common ailments of the human family, but judging from my experience with thousands of sick people I have found that gas pains usually cause more distress among the sick than any other symptom.

Whenever we read of deaths or injuries from gas we usually think of gas escaping from stoves or pipes, but hundreds of people are dying every day from a much more deadly gas formed right inside the body under certain conditions. There are other millions that are slowly developing functional and chronic disorders because of the continued irritation of stomach or intestinal gas.

The digestive organs have only a limited space in which to work and when organs are unnaturally pressed against each other by gas it is not long before distress and disease develop.

Gas pains may be severe enough to cause the patient to double up in agony. Those with gas usually find it hard to sleep. The rate and action of the heart may be much affected during an attack. In fact, the exciting cause of the majority of deaths from heart failure is the pressure of gas against the heart.

An excessive amount of gas in the stomach or intestines causes belching or the passing of gas from the bowel, and is a great source of discomfort. Most people, particularly as they grow older, find themselves literally walking gas factories without any understanding of how to bring about a cure.

One of the reasons for the frequent occurrence of flatulence is because it accompanies so many other disorders. There is scarcely a tubercular case that does not complain about flatulence, usually more than about the tuberculosis.

Trouble with the digestive tract or with the organs connected with it, such as the liver and gall bladder, is always accompanied by flatulence. Asthma and heart trouble are always made worse by pressure of large amounts of gas against the diaphragm. Those who are suffering from any form of heart derangement usually are found to have large gas pockets when examined under the X-ray. Many pelvic disorders are made worse by the distension of the intestines with toxic gases which push and press against the delicate pelvic organs.

Gas pains of a peculiarly acute character often attend appendicitis. Many pains during these attacks are due to the sore and inflamed intestines around the appendix, being distended and pushed out of place by gas.

Human bones continue to grow until the twenty-fifth year, declares an English medical expert.

background. R.-K.-O. Hour at 6:30 is to bring well-known stage and radio artists and a group of selections from "Rain or Shine," as well as other vaudeville offerings.

KNX for an afternoon dialing, points to 2:30 when its symphonette, with Wilda Bernard, soprano, as its guest artist, will be heard. During the evening, at 6:15 Frank Watanabe, the Japanese Houseboy, is to ruin the English language, while at 8 p.m. Horse Fly and His Wranglers will put on thirty minutes of song and music sprinkled with plenty of bloom that grows on the sage. Then at 9 p.m. the Royal Vagabonds are to be found disconsolately leaving Hawaii for the United States after a riot of grass skirts and cocoanuts.

KFWB points to its continuity "Fire and Ice" at 7:30 tonight, a tale of California when San Francisco was a thriving Spanish settlement. It promises one of the most dramatc conclusions. At 9:30 tonight, fight fans will dial in for the meeting of Benny Miller, welterweight champion hope, and Sammy Jackson, a colored boy with a reputation for speed. It should be a good fight.

The Nightly Bath

Perhaps there is a baby in the house who sleeps very lightly and one hesitates to run a bathtub of water for fear of waking him. If you will just put the rubber shower hose on the faucet and then run your water the tub can be filled with no noise whatsoever. If you have no shower hose, purchase two feet of rubber tubing that will fit the faucet; it will answer as well.

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

NATURAL HABITS COMMON TO BABIES NOT DESTRUCTIVE TO BEAUTY

Has any one ever seen a baby who did not roll his head from side to side and flatten out his tiny, rag-like ears in so doing? I am sure every mother will utter a very loud negative for this is one of those infantile habits common to almost every baby. You see, I conservatively say "almost."

When we look about us at the various types of ears we realize that this tendency has little or nothing to do with the future size or shape or outstandingness of adult ears. We have only to look at the distinctive type of ear which runs through families to know that we have to blame its shape on heredity and not on trivial incidents or manner of sleeping. (This goes for shapes of heads, too.)

There are certain bad habits which small babies acquire which may spoil the ear's shape, for if a baby lies in his crib and pulls at his ear as persistently as some babies thumb-suck, he is certain to acquire a noticeably flaring ear.

Other than this habit, or the habit of mothers of putting hats on small boys which hold the top of their ears forward constantly I sincerely doubt whether the tiny baby's ears, soft and impressionable as they are, are permanently affected by this really universal habit of rolling the ears forward when the head is turned.

Mrs. B. S. has been worrying about the above question and also about tumb-sucking. She says: "Baby will stop nursing to suck his thumb and it is getting so white and flat in comparison to the other. I tried taping his ears back but when I remove the tape the hair comes too, and this makes him cry. What can I do?"

A NET CAP FOR THIS BABY

The small net and tape caps called ear-conformer caps can be bought in most large department stores or ordered direct. They are widely advertised. Also they are quite easy to make at home, for they are just stout, white cotton net, taped around the edge and reinforced with cross-bars of cotton tape over the ears. The net is cut in hood shape and well fitted to baby's head so that it holds the ears in place snugly. A loose cap is worse than none at all, for if the ears do turn forward they are held in that position. Seams should be frenched and all edges perfectly smooth so that baby's delicate skin is not irritated.

This is much more effective and less painful than strips of adhesive. Remember I am making no promises that these or other caps will really revolutionize the shape of the ears. Nature and her plans are stronger than net and tape caps.

I shall be happy to send you a leaflet on thumb-sucking and the usual methods of discouraging it, also one on feeding, which seems to me, in your case, to be at the root of the trouble. If the baby prefers the comforts of a barren thumb to the breast there must be very little nourishment there for him. Weaning is no doubt your next step. A self-addressed and stamped envelope is all that is needed to bring you these two leaflets.

SPILLED GREASE

If you should spill grease on the kitchen linoleum, sprinkle soda on it and then pour boiling water over it. Wipe up with a heavy cloth and there will be no danger of leaving just enough grease to cause a dangerous fall.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

A Bedtime Story

There's trouble brewing, all can see,

—Old Mother Nature.

THE OLD ORCHARD IS QUITE UPSET

The Old Orchard was quite upset. At least, the people who lived there were quite upset. You see, there was a great deal of disagreement. Some said one thing and some said another. It was all because Peter Rabbit had told some one that he thought he had seen a black Chipmunk on the old stone wall. That some one had told some one else, and so the story had traveled. Like most stories that travel, it grew. The farther it went the bigger it grew. You see, no two told the story just alike. So finally the story became not a story of a Chipmunk but the story of a big, black stranger living in the old stone wall.

Of course, the boldest of the people living in the Old Orchard went looking for this stranger. Because of their wings, the feathered folk felt quite safe. The result was that, during most of the hours of daylight, one or more of the bird folk sat where they could watch the old stone wall. Most of them saw nothing unusual. Two or three, however, caught glimpses of some one or something as black as night, popping in and out between the stones of the old wall.

"It was Striped Chipmunk," declared Sammy Jay. "He has fallen into something and become all black."

"No such thing!" declared Welcome Robin, who never can agree with Sammy Jay. "I saw Striped Chipmunk this morning myself and there was nothing black about him. He was wearing his striped coat just as usual."

"Do you mean to tell me that I don't know what I see?" demanded Sammy Jay angrily. "I tell you I saw Striped Chipmunk early this morning and he was as black as the blackest of Black Shadows."

"Did you speak with him?" demanded Rosebreast the Grosbeak.

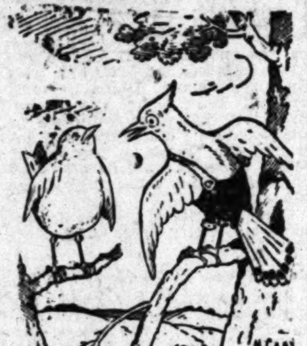
"No," replied Sammy. "I didn't have a chance. He dodged out of sight as soon as he saw me."

"Then how do you know it was Striped Chipmunk?" persisted Rosebreast.

"I guess I know a Chipmunk when I see one!" retorted Sammy Jay.

Just then the voice of Striped Chipmunk was heard and instantly there was a rush to see him, for they wanted to settle this dispute once and for all. But when they reached the place from which Striped Chipmunk's voice had come he wasn't there. So the feathered folk were no wiser than before and they at once began arguing again.

This went on for two or three days and there was a great deal of ill feeling among the feathered folk in the Old Orchard. Some declared that they had seen Striped Chipmunk and that he wore his usual striped coat. Some declared that they had had glimpses of him and that he was all black. But, somehow, no one had a chance to talk to him. It was only glimpses that they had. It seemed as if Striped Chipmunk was more retiring than usual.



"It was Striped Chipmunk," declared Sammy Jay

Peter Rabbit spent a great deal of time sitting around among the bushes that grow along the old stone wall. Somehow, he always sat in the wrong place. If he was at one end of the wall he would hear Striped Chipmunk at the other end. When he hurried down there Striped Chipmunk had always disappeared. It was just as if Striped Chipmunk was trying to keep out of sight; and yet there was no reason in the world why he should.

Pioneer of Oil Industry Ends Life with Gun

John Smith, 72 years of age, well-to-do pioneer oil man of Oklahoma ended his life yesterday by shooting himself with a .22 caliber rifle in the garage at the rear of his home at 1547 South St. Andrews Place.

Despondency over two years of ill health is believed to have been the principal motive.

Death is believed to have been instantaneous. The body was found by the son.

Smith, according to information obtained by Detective Lieutenant Van Aken of the Wilshire police division, not only was well known in the development of the oil industry in Oklahoma but was a recognized authority on technical matters of the business. He is said to have been the first man to provide a formula for the extraction of gasoline from natural gas.

Stimulates the Gums

Keep a small bottle of table salt in the medicine closet and use it occasionally on your toothbrush instead of toothpaste. It has a decidedly stimulating effect on the gums.

Courtesy In Dentistry

By PAINLESS PARKER
Founder of E. R. PARKER SYSTEM

In the intimate relation between a dentist and his patient, courtesy is an absolute essential. This means that a dentist must display gentleness, kindliness, genuine sympathy and thoughtful consideration toward his patient.

The repair or extraction of teeth is by no means all there is to dentistry. Improvements are made in technique from time to time, pain is minimized by special methods, costs are reduced by specialization and volume production. But after all the thing a patient appreciates more and recognizes quicker than anything else is sympathy and consideration.

This is one of the features of the E. R. Parker System to which years of patient effort have been devoted.

Some dentists are not fitted by temperament to understand and consider the mental reactions of patients. But in selecting dentists who may use the E. R. Parker System, gentleness and kindliness are regarded as of very great importance. Only dentists found to possess these traits are allowed to use this System. Therefore whenever you visit an office of dentists using the E. R. Parker System you are assured of careful and considerate treatment.

WONDER-CUT BREAD

Ready-to-serve—
Wonder-Cut Bread

WE have sliced Wonder Bread for women who prefer the convenience of a slo-baked bread that's ready instantly for the table, for the toaster, for sandwiches. Wonder-Cut Bread is the same slo-baked Wonder Bread you've been using.

Now your grocer has both kinds of Wonder Bread . . . the regular slo-baked loaf and the new form, Wonder-Cut, packed in a special tray and wrapped in airtight paper that seals in all the flavor and freshness that have made Wonder Bread famous. He gets both kinds of bread, fresh from the oven, twice a day, every day. Ask your grocer for them by name.

Both forms of slo-baked Wonder Bread are made from the same dough. The same extra-quality, extra-fine ingredients blended thoroughly and baked so slowly and evenly that each loaf of bread is wrapped in a golden-brown crust as tender as the very heart of the loaf. The bread that cost $6,000,000 to develop to its present perfection. Continental Baking Co.

Slo-baked Wonder Bread is so good that anything you make with bread can be made better with Wonder Bread.

POLICE PISTOL TEAM UP IN AIR

Funds Sought to Send It East as New Honor's Won

Board's Refusal to Provide Money May be Eluded

Group Notified of Victory in Recent Competition

While Chief Steckel was still casting about for some financial means by which he can send his crack pistol team to the national matches at Camp Perry this season, since the Police Commission vetoed the trip for lack of funds, official notification was received yesterday from the National Rifle Association in Washington that the Los Angeles Police Department team, shooting against civilian, military and police squads representing every part of the United States, has been declared winner of the recent N. R. A. inter-club pistol team match.

This match, considered the preliminary shoot before the annual contests at Camp Perry, was shot by the various teams on their home ranges, the scores being tabulated by N. R. A. officials and telegraphed to the Washington headquarters.

The local pistol experts won with a score of 1353. Their next nearest competitor was the Toledo Rifle and Pistol Club team with a score of 1312.

The members of the Los Angeles team are J. A. Bartley, who, shooting with his left hand since an exploding shell deprived him of his right last year, shot the highest score of 276, C. E. Ward with a score of 274, R. J. Nowka, 273; Deputy Chief Davis, 268, and F. G. Haley, 262.

The match was shot with .38 special caliber revolvers. Since cutting of the police budget was ordered by the financial experts of the Mayor's office it was decided by the powers-that-be that funds are not available to pay the expenses of the pistol team East. But in recognition of the team's shooting prowess and the favorable publicity that would be derived officials of the Chamber of Commerce and certain business men are considering subscribing the necessary funds, Chief Steckel said.

In 1928 the team won the police championship of the entire country. Last year the team did not shoot in the national matches because of the injury to Detective-Lieutenant Bartley. In June this year the team also won the California State championship at San Luis Obispo.

FILM OFFICIAL FLIES HERE

To complete plans for a large program of expansion of foreign language talking pictures to be made here, Arthur Loew, foreign manager of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, arrived yesterday from New York by plane for an emergency conference with Louis B. Mayer, Irving G. Thalberg and other studio executives.

The outstanding successes of recent showings in foreign countries of M.-G.-M. foreign-language pictures made necessary the expansion on a large scale of the present foreign production program of the company, Loew stated. Under the increased production plans, many outstanding figures of the European stage and screen, he said, will shortly be en route to Hollywood to augment the present foreign screen personnel of the company.

Loew arrived at the M.-G.-M. studios via Hal Roach's plane. With him is Ludwig Lawrence, special foreign representative.

End Comes to George Dexter at Sanatorium

George B. Dexter, pioneer resident of Santa Monica and father of G. R. Dexter, president of the Bank of Hollywood, died yesterday at Alhambra, where he had been undergoing medical treatment at a sanatorium.

Mr. Dexter, who was 73 years of age, came to California from New York State in 1865 over the covered-wagon trail and since he was 10 had been a resident of the Santa Monica area. He held many public offices in Santa Monica, including that of postmaster. He leaves G. R. Dexter and R. B. Dexter of Hollywood and C. J. Dexter of Artesia, N. M.

The funeral will be conducted under auspices of Santa Monica Lodge, F. & A. M., probably tomorrow, definite arrangements not having been completed by W. M. Strother, funeral director.

ANNULMENT GAINED BY TWO WIVES' PLEA

Two wives testified against a mutual husband yesterday when Mrs. Wellesley Stone helped Mrs. Barbara B. Stone obtain an annulment of her marriage with Edward B. Stone. Superior Judge Yankwich annulled Mrs. Barbara Stone's marriage after she testified that Stone had not obtained his final decree when he married her June 11, 1929. They separated September 26, 1929. Mrs. Wellesley Stone corroborated the second wife's complaint. Both wives said that they do not know where Stone is.

YOUNG LADS GET PRISON IN CAR CASE

Federal Judge Orders Boys with Records to Separate Reformatories

Although they are only 14 and 16 years of age, two brothers who were sentenced yesterday by Federal Judge Cosgrave for violation of the Dyer Act relating to interstate transportation of stolen automobiles, were said by the judge to be veteran automobile thieves. Search of their record disclosed that the elder had been sentenced to a reformatory twice for auto thefts and the younger boy had one previous conviction and sentence against him.

The boys, Raymond and Vernon Heath, were arrested here after they had come from St. Louis in a car which was found to have been stolen there. The elder brother, Raymond, had escaped from the reformatory conducted by the Children's Aid Society of St. Louis, where he had been placed after his second conviction. He had been placed on probation after his first offense.

Judge Cosgrave sentenced the elder brother to serve two years in the Federal Reformatory at Monroe, Wash., but he returned Vernon of the Symbole of the Creede of the Society of St. Louis on the recommendation of Asst. U. S. Atty. Gallagher, who said the society believes it best to remove the younger brother from the influence of Raymond.

ICE WAGON TRIO TAKEN AS BANDITS

Men in Overalls Captured After Woman Tells of Being Robbed in Home

Armed with ice picks and riding in a truck with the name of an ice company printed on its side in large letters, three men last night drove up to the home of Mrs. Josephine Castillion, 301 Keith street, kicked in the back door of her residence, threatened her with their picks and a butcher knife, took $3 from her and drove away, Lincoln Heights police report.

An hour later the asserted robbers were in jail and their ice wagon confiscated. They were arrested by Detective Lieutenants Hay and Kriewold a short distance from the scene of the asserted hold-up. The officers reported the men had left the ice wagon parked in front of a bootlegging establishment and were caught inside drinking liquor.

The three booked on suspicion of robbery said they are Lawrence O'Conner, 25 years of age, 608 North Malta street; Clarence McIntosh, 24, 1465 Stockbridge street, and Raymond B. Dixon, 23, 520 South Bernal street.

They were dressed in ice men's uniforms and were declared by police to have confessed they entered Mrs. Castillion's home.

An unidentified citizen chased them out of a house next door to the woman victim's, they told police.

Jonathan Club Wrestles with High Finances

Three hundred members of the Jonathan Club last night wrestled with problems of high finance in attempting to solve the question of financing some $785,000 soon to be due on the purchase of beach club property located at the foot of Pico street in Ocean Park and valued at upward of $1,400,000.

Assessments of $275 per membership have been levied by the board of directors and are payable on and after September 1. After hearing the statements made by President Jeffries and members of the board a special committee was appointed consisting of Addison P. Day, D. W. Pontius, Rex Clark, Will Anderson, Dave Smith, Speed Fry and Edward Fleming to examine the accounts of the club and report back at an adjourned meeting to be held the 21st inst.

This committee was instructed to consider carefully a resolution offered by D. W. Pontius making memberships upon which assessments are paid transferrable at a nominal fee.

Young Attacks His Rivals in Governor Race

Gov. Young attacked both his major opponents for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in a radio address broadcast in Los Angeles over KFI last night, maintaining that Dist.-Atty. Fitts has misrepresented the facts concerning the State tax system and that Mayor Rolph's idea of spending the $29,000,000 surplus in the State treasury is unbusinesslike.

Reynold E. Blight, State Corporation Tax Commissioner, and Mrs. John C. Urquhart, past-president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs and chairman of the Southern California Women's Law Enforcement Committee, will make radio addresses in behalf of Gov. Young today. Mrs. Urquhart will speak over KTM from 2:30 to 2:45 p.m. and Mr. Blight will talk over KGFJ from 11:15 to 11:45 a.m.

GOVERNOR FROM SOUTH REQUIRED

Speakers at East Side Meet Stress Necessity

Fitts Election Alternate of Political Slavery

Machine Domination Spells Doom of Progress

If Southern California fails to elect a Governor this year it is in danger of suffering greater denials of representation than it now endures, Joseph Scott, leading attorney, warned last night at a mass meeting held on the East Side. Scott preceded Buron Fitts, Republican candidate for Governor from Los Angeles, on the platform of the Masonic Temple at First and Chicago streets. He charged that the voters below the Tehachapi will be derelict in their duty if they fail to place a southern man in office.

Scott declared that the people of Southern California are not awake to the extent of the discrimination practiced by Northern California politicians in the allocation of State benefits.

THIRTY YEARS MORE

"No one deplores sectionalism more than I do," declared the speaker. "Neither is anyone more interested in fair play for every section of the State than I am or than is Buron Fitts. We have waited thirty-three years for an adjustment of the inequalities existing between the north and south and unless the south asserts itself on the 26th inst. it probably will have to wait another thirty-three years."

Fitts, in his address drove home a message of economy in government, asserting that the present State administration has increased the cost of government $138,000,000 in four years. No Governor has ever had as much money to spend, and no Governor has ever spent so much money as Gov. Young.

ATTACKS MACHINE

Fitts asserted that Governor Young has failed to provide California with an equitable and just taxation system. He charged that Gov. Young has built up the greatest bureaucratic machine in the history of California. In substantiation of this charge the candidate pointed to the fact that at the present time State employees, paid by taxpayers of California, are engaged in campaigning throughout the State for Gov. Young.

"I have no huge war chest with which to conduct campaigns," Fitts said, "but everywhere in California I have the friendship of honest working men and women, farmers and small business men who are interested in the development of California upon economical lines, the inauguration of a constructive policy of water conservation and taxation that is not in effect confiscation."

UNIONIST SPEAKER

Fitts was introduced to the audience by J. W. Buzzell, secretary of the Los Angeles Central Labor Council. Buzzell cited reasons why the Los Angeles Retail Trades Council, the Los Angeles Building Trades Council and the Los Angeles Amusement Trades have indorsed Fitts and are actively engaged in conducting a campaign for him.

Yesterday Anthonio Entenza, past national commander of Spanish-American War Veterans, spoke over radio station KTM voicing the same sentiments as those expressed by Scott in the evening meeting. Entenza asserted that Southern California is facing a crisis, and that this crisis can be successfully passed only by the election of a Southern California Governor.

Henry Hubbard, attorney of San Francisco, launched an assault upon Rolph in an address over station KELW from 6 to 6:30 last night. Hubbard, a keen student of politics, advised his auditors that while Mayor Rolph is an affable, genial official San Francisco has not progressed during his administration.

Identity of Young Woman Not Learned

Police of the Georgia-street Station last night were endeavoring to identify a young woman, believed to be a victim of amnesia, who was taken to the Receiving Hospital from a drug store at Fifth and Broadway where she attracted the attention of the clerks by her erratic actions and incoherent talk.

Apparently she is about 30 years of age, is 5 feet 6 inches tall and weighs about 130 pounds. She wore a black silk dress and a black hat with shoes and stockings to match. In her purse the police found a slip bearing the name "May Danna," but the woman asserted the name is unfamiliar to her.

She asserted that she is married and has two children.

BERNARR McFADDEN ARRIVES BY PLANE

Bernarr McFadden, physical culture authority, diet expert and publisher, accompanied by his daughters Beulah and Bernice arrived here yesterday afternoon via T.A.T.-Maddux Air Lines en route from their home in Englewood, N. J., to Redding. McFadden will participate the 16th inst. at Redding in a triple event, the rechristening of the mountain now known as Castle Craig to McFadden Peak; the formal dedication of the new aviation beacon erected on the same mountain and the celebration of his sixty-second birthday anniversary.

SORORITY GIRLS PLAN TOURNAMENT OF GOLF

Kappa Delta Sorority girls of the University of California at Los Angeles have found something new in the way of benefits. Tomorrow evening they take over the Cascade miniature golf course, opposite Bullock's Wilshire Store, Wilshire Boulevard, for a public tournament, with prizes offered for the several events planned. The tournament is to raise funds for the furnishings of the new sorority home on Hilgarde avenue, Westwood, recently completed.

PATHE TO SEND STARS ABROAD

Janet Gaynor May Join Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Forces; Lillian Roth Slated as Oakie's Leading Lady; Roland Drew Wins Universal Role

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

CONSTANCE BENNETT

It has long appeared inevitable, under the present international status of picture producing, that American producers should make pictures abroad. The talkers require, in the case of foreign languages, that pictures be produced in the native homes of these tongues. Then there is the quota consideration, with the possibility of American producers giving work to many foreign actors under the foreign-production policy, with a consequent fusion of interests and the building up of good feeling between America and other lands.

Pathe, Universal, Fox and other companies are all preparing to film pictures abroad, with some plans already announced.

Pathe's intentions became known yesterday, when it was learned that the concern has definitely settled on four men to direct, and four stars to appear in as many pictures to be made in England for the British Pathe branch.

The stars announced as assigned shortly to travel to the other side are Ann Harding, Constance Bennett, Helen Twelvetrees and William Boyd. The remainder of the cast will include English persons.

The directors selected to travel are E. H. Griffith, Tay Garnett, Russell Mack and Paul Stein.

It is understood that English stories will be selected for filming, with the possibility of at least one historical novel being filmed on the ground.

JANET GAYNOR MAY SIGN WITH M.-G.-M.

The charming Janet Gaynor is known to have been a frequent visitor at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios of late, and there is a rumor that she is to sign with that organization.

Miss Gaynor, it is understood, recently severed her connection with Fox by mutual consent. She has received many offers since, but the rumor is persistent that she will ally herself with M.-G.-M.

LILLIAN ROTH WILL PLAY LASKY LEAD

LILLIAN ROTH

Just what lady fair will play opposite the ebullient Jack Oakie is always a matter of interest, and so it is with pleasure that we announce that when the lively Jack starts work on his new Paramount picture, as yet untitled, he will have as his leading lady no less charming and talented an actress than Lillian Roth.

The story has to do with seas, natives and girls, and will be laid on a mythical seacoast, and with these few vague details we must needs be content for the present. Suffice it that Miss Roth will be the captain's daughter who intrigues the eye of a venturesome sailor, whom you will have at once guessed is none other than Oakie himself.

George Marion, Jr., wrote the vehicle, and Victor Heerman is to direct.

Roland Drew at Universal

ROLAND DREW

An important role, and one worthy of his talents, has just fallen to the lot of Roland Drew.

After many screen and voice tests, Drew has been chosen by Universal, according to the announcement of Eph Asher, associate producer, to play a featured role in "The Lady Surrenders," in which Genevieve Tobin and Conrad Nagel have the romantic leads, and which John Stahl is directing.

Drew has played a number of noted roles, including one of the leading roles with Dolores Del Rio in "Ramona." His new part is one that calls for a high degree of acting skill.

Raphaelson With M.-G.-M.

The professional fate of Samson Raphaelson, young playwright and author of "The Jazz Singer" and "Young Love," seems to be settled for a time at least.

Raphaelson has just been signed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to write stories for that organization. His first assignment has not yet been made.

The author recently sold two stories to R.-K.-O., the titles of which have not been announced.

Rex Lease in Westerns

Returning from New York, Phil Goldstone, Tiffany head, brings news to gladden many a cowboy heart. Westerns, he declares are greatly in demand.

Rex Lease is to be pressed into service to star in a series of these. Lester Scott is to supervise. Scott is an old-time western producer.

The actor has been riding every morning for three weeks, we hear, at a ranch near Newhall.

Lena Malena With M.-G.-M.

LENA MALENA

That clever young actress-linguist, Lena Malena, is making deserved headway, now that the talking pictures are "here to stay."

Miss Malena has just signed with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to play a featured Chinese vamp role in John Gilbert's current starring vehicle, "The Wife of the Sailor." Miss Malena will appear in the English version, and also in the German and French if M.-G.-M. decides to make these versions.

Sam Wood is directing the production.

Henry Kolker With Fox

The dependable Henry Kolker has been signed to play the role of Prince Daritza in "The Princess and the Plumber," the Fox production in which Charles Farrell and Maureen O'Sullivan will be featured.

The story is from the Saturday Evening Post yarn of the same name by Alice Duer Miller and has Hamilton McFadden as director. Others already cast are Lucien Prival and Bert Roach.

Accused Seller of Poison Gin Under Arrest

Assertions by a man whose name was not disclosed that two friends of his had been paralyzed by drinking poisoned gin led to the arrest yesterday by Federal prohibition agents of Anthony Nudo on a charge of violating the Volstead Act.

The informant told Acting Prohibition Administrator Peters that Nudo had sold the gin to his two friends. He did not disclose the name or address of either of the victims of the supposedly poisoned liquor.

After receiving the tip, under-cover prohibition agents made an appointment with Nudo yesterday for him to sell them some gin. When he came to the appointed meeting place he was placed under arrest, his automobile was seized and it was found to contain seven bottles bearing labels proclaiming their contents to be "Piccadilly Gin."

Pending analysis of the contents of the bottles by Fred Stribling, government chemist, Nudo is being held merely on the bootlegging charge. It was said yesterday that the analysis will not be complete for several days.

WIFE DECLARES MATE TAUNTED OF IRELAND

The question of Irish Home rule was settled in Dublin Castle some time ago, but not in the home of Albert Sharpless, who, according to his Irish wife, Matilda Sharpless, who sued him for divorce yesterday, was always picking on her because her ancestors were what he referred to as "bog-trotters," "Fenians" and "micks." Mrs. Sharpless finally left him, she said, because he was too violent. Contrary to popular ideas of her ancestral traits, she said, she was a woman of peace. Attorney Arthur C. Webb filed the complaint.

DISABLED VETERANS' OFFICIAL RETURNS

H. E. Pinney of the City Prosecutor's office, national executive committeeman of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, returned yesterday from Washington where he attended the conference relative to rehabilitation work. With other members of the conference he interviewed President Hoover, Gen. Frank Hines, administrator of veterans' affairs, and Col. Ijams, director of the Veterans' Bureau. "The personnel of the organization has been increased by twenty-two new liaison officers throughout the United States. One has been assigned to Los Angeles," said Mr. Pinney. The new officer for Los Angeles will be nominated by Mr. Pinney soon.

PLANS FOR COMEDIES REVEALED

"Six Cylinder Love" by William McGuire to be Next at Playhouse

William Anthony McGuire's stage comedy, "Six Cylinder Love," is under consideration as the production to follow "The Champion," starring Grant Mitchell, which starts Sunday night at the Hollywood Playhouse, it was learned yesterday. Ed W. Rowland, managing director of the theater, produced the first play written by McGuire, "The Divorce Question."

McGuire has also written such dramas as "It's a Boy," "Twelve Miles Out," "If I Were Rich," "Whoopee" and Douglas Fairbanks's next starring picture, "Reaching for the Moon."

Rowland has produced "June Moon" and "Fata Morgana" at the Playhouse this season. He is also considering the presentation of "Little Accident," it is said.

Triangle Proved Right Angle in 'Tea for Three'

In "Tea for Three," Tom Moore and Gladys George prove to Ernest Glendinning, in the role of a jealous husband, that there is a "right angle" to the "eternal triangle" as presented in this sophisticated comedy at El Capitan Theater.

Glendinning does not know much about triangles but has a suspicious mind. Tom Moore, as the philandering bachelor, is a past master in the study of angles. He and the wife, who is determined to cure her husband of his unreasonable jealousy, fix up a plan to construct the triangle so that the husband will be convinced that it is only a "right angle."

The plan starts out innocently enough, but as the play progresses it becomes more and more involved.

'Holiday' Marks Opening of New Carthay Season

The current showing of Pathe's picture, "Holiday," is inaugurating Greater Talkie Season at the Carthey Circle Theater.

"Holiday" was selected by the Carthay from a large list of available productions because it was felt that the picture, perhaps, represents what is new, brilliant and entertaining more than any other which could have been booked, according to an announcement.

Ann Harding is starred in "Holiday," and her supporting cast includes Mary Astor, Edward Everett Horton, Robert Ames, Hedda Hopper and Creighton Hale.

Abe Lyman and his orchestra furnish pleasant supplement to "Holiday," with a new group of syncopated numbers done in symphonic style. A Universal taking comedy and a Fox Movietone News Reel complete the program.

New Film Sets Summer Record at Criterion

Hot weather box-office records at the Criterion Theater have been broken by "Our Blushing Brides" during its first week, according to the management.

From comments it is difficult for the theater to determine which of the three leading women proves most attractive to feminine theatergoers. Joan Crawford has a large following while Anita Page and Dorothy Sebastian both are admired.

Bargain hunters are attracted to the Criterion, it is said, because of the fact that there are three parallel plots running through the story. The Criterion has also adopted a novel experiment of furnishing Chinese umbrellas to patrons of the theater on their voyage up Grand avenue.

English Actor Given New Role

WALLACE DOUGLAS

Receiving word that rehearsals for a new play in which he will take the leading role will begin in London September 1, Wallace Douglas, English actor who took one of the leading parts in "Journey's End" at the Belasco Theater here, left this morning by Western Air Express.

Arriving in New York tomorrow night, Douglas will sail immediately and expects to reach London on the 24th inst., he said. Douglas toured Canada and the United States with the war play.

JUNE COLLYER TO BE GUEST OF HONOR

June Collyer, brilliant young Paramount player, will be guest of honor at George Olsen's club tomorrow night, on which occasion an elaborate program will be staged as an added feature with the new summer revue.

As a tribute to Miss Collyer, George Olsen and his orchestra will introduce a special medley of numbers from "River of Romance," "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," "The Toast of the Legion," and other screen productions in which she has appeared.

"Grumpy" Lives Again on Screen

Cyril Maude, Frances Dade and Phillips Holmes

In a scene from the film version of the well-known stage play that starred Maude for many years. The picture starts at the United Artists' Theater tomorrow.

'COMMON CLAY' ANNOUNCED

Loew's State announces "Common Clay" as its opening attraction for Greater Talkie Season, starting Thursday.

The Harvard prize play has been modernized for the talkies, and its theme, always new, is now surrounded by today's situations and characters, it is said.

Constance Bennett portrays the girl and Lew Ayres, who won note in "All Quuet on the Western Front," is the youthful and irresponsible lover. Tully Marshall, Beryl Mercer, Hale Hamilton, Purnell B. Pratt, Matty Kemp and others have important roles.

John McCormack in "Song of My Heart" will close tomorrow night.

Stage Star Has Stormy Career as Film Villain

WILLIAM BOYD'

A succession of fights, gun-play and violent adventure marks the brief screen career of William Boyd, noted stage star, who plays the principal supporting role opposite Lupe Velez in "The Storm," coming to the Million Dollar Theater Thursday.

Boyd's initial season in the talkies has been a busy one, but he has escaped with only a few bruises and some harrowing moments before the camera in the good cause of realism, it is said. "The Storm," which reveals Boyd as a rugged frontiersman, provided the actor with some thrills during the filming of the blizzard scenes.

Boyd's last screen experience was as Gary Cooper's opponent in the battle enacted for "The Spoilers," and now he is doing his daily fisticuffs with George Bancroft in "Typhoon Bill" for Paramount.

Lita Chevret Wins Role in 'Losing Game'

LITA CHEVRET

Good work and increasing ability have brought Lita Chevret, former showgirl, an important role in "Losing Game," according to an announcement by William Le Baron, vice-president in charge of Radio Pictures production.

Miss Chevret recently won a five-year contract as a result of her performance in "The Cuckoos," with Wheeler and Woolsey.

Lowell Sherman will direct and play a part in "Losing Game," adapted from an original story by Samuel Shipman.

FILM RETITLED

WHALE PLAYS "HEAVY" ROLE

Villainess of Warner Picture Stumbles on Film Part Unexpectedly

The heaviest villainess ever to figure in a motion picture is seen in "Moby Dick," starring John Barrymore, starting at Warner Brothers' Downtown Theater Friday.

Her name is Agnes, and she weighs sixty-nine tons.

She plays the title part of Moby Dick and is made up to look as though she weighed ninety tons.

A foolish curiosity about the Malibu coast, the Hollywood beach colony, led to Agnes being cast in this part. Attempting to "crash" a star's beach party, Agnes came blowing along in sight of Warner Brothers' whalers out looking for types.

Agnes will never know who it was in the attractive red bathing suit. But her classic countenance is preserved forever in the finished picture, "Moby Dick."

In the supporting cast of this production there are Joan Bennett, Lloyd Hughes, May Boley, Walter Long and Tom O'Brien. Lloyd Bacon directed.

New Production Activity Looms on East Coast

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (Exclusive) Six new productions, most of which may be regarded in advance as important, and all of which may turn out to be just that, will be in preparation tomorrow.

John Golden, who has tried out a couple of comedies, has advanced plans on a third which is to star Frank Craven. Craven has written the piece and called it "That's Gratitude." The cast includes Marie Nordstrom, George Barbier, Maida Reed, Thelma Marsh, Gerald Kent, George Wright and James Lane. A tryout opening is scheduled for the 25th inst., at Brandt's Boulevard Theater, Queens.

Having started rehearsals of "Fine and Dandy" the Joe Cook musical, Lewis E. Gensler will turn his attention to William Dubois's play "Keys to Paradise," in which Lenore Ulric will be starred. Gensler, Miss Ulric and John D. Williams, the director, will pick the cast this week and hope to have the show ready for full rehearsals next week. Welton Heyburn and Thomas Findlay have already been engaged.

"Twelfth Night," the first of two plays in which Kenneth MacGowan and Joseph Verner Reed will present Jane Cowl in repertory at Maxine Elliott's Theater, goes into rehearsal under the direction of Andrew Leigh. The company includes Leon Quartermaine, Arthur Hohl, Walter Kingsford, Jessie Ralph and Joyce Carney.

The Charles Dillingham production of Bayard Veiller's new drama, "That's the Woman," is under way, although loss of the manuscript threatened weeks of delay, while Veiller wrote a new one. Veiller complete the script at his farm near Darien, Ct., and lost it on the way to the city.

George Jessel, who, as a producer, will present the Adlers in a repertory of Jewish plays, expects to produce and appear in a play by James Creelman entitled "St. Louis Blues."

Bard's Books 'White Cargo'

The screen version of "White Cargo," stage play, will be the first Greater Talkie Season attraction at Bard's Eighth Street Theater for a limited engagement, starting Friday.

As a stage play, "White Cargo" played more than four consecutive years in New York City.

The story deals with a group of Englishmen in an African rubber plantation.

A Christy comedy and other short-reel subjects will be included on the program.

PROGRAM AT BOULEVARD TO CHANGE

'Women Everywhere' will Follow 'One Mad Kiss;' Souders on Stage

Don Jose Mojica's initial film venture, "One Mad Kiss," will close at the Boulevard Theater with tomorrow's performances. The young Latin-American tenor was formerly associated with the Chicago Grand Opera Company.

Thursday brings a change of program with "Women Everywhere" as the main screen attraction. J. Harold Murray and Fifi Dorsay have leading roles in this drama of love and adventure laid against a background of French Morocco.

Clyde Cook appears in the comedy role of the picture as Murray's Cockney pal. Other notables in chief support are George Grossmith, Rose Dione and Ralph Kellard. Alexander Korda directed.

Jackie Souders and his band will offer a new stage show.

'Wise Child' to Begin Run at Belasco Soon

David Belasco, who has produced many successes in the theater, is sending his stage comedy, "It's a Wise Child," written by Laurence E. Johnson, to the Belasco Theater Monday, following a four-week run at the Curran Theater, San Francisco. The original New York cast is intact.

The comedy is a human tale of a representative American family. It opens with the social dilemma of one of the maids, and progresses through a series of events which successfully involve each member of the household in a whirl of unexpected situations.

Belasco's cast of players includes Minor Watson, Sidney Toler, Harlan Briggs, Porter Hall, Joseph Striker, George Walcott, Mildred McCoy, Helen Lowell, Leila Bennett and Olga Krolow.

Jean Hersholt Signs for Role at Universal

Jean Hersholt is to remain on Universal's roster for another picture. According to Rupert Julian, the prominent character actor will essay a featured role in "The Cat Creeps," which the former is preparing to direct.

Hersholt recently returned to the Universal fold, his first appearance under their banner since completing a long-term contract last year. At present he is portraying the featured characterization in "East is West," which Monta Bell is directing.

It is understood that following the completion of his new assignment with Universal, Hersholt will move over to the United Artists organization where he will appear in a featured role.

Paramount Uses Tried and True Teams in Film

Hollywood's belief that history repeats itself is said to be furthered by William Powell's latest starring appearance in "For the Defense," opening Thursday at the Paramount Theater. Players who once establish themselves as being adept in certain characterizations are apt to continue in subsequent pictures. Also, as in the new vehicle, writer-director combinations who produce successes are continued as teams.

Having turned out one successful picture in "Street of Chance," Paramount recombined the talents of star, leading woman, author and director in another production. As in the former film, the star is seen again with Kay Francis as his leading woman, with Oliver H. P. Barrett as author and John Cromwell as director.

FOUR STARS IN CAST

Four stars play the stellar roles in the Paramount comedy, "Social Errors." They are Leon Erroll, Richard Arlen, Mary Brian and Stuart Erwin.

AVIATRIX LANDS ON WRIT SERVER

Deputy Gets Punch Receipt for Paper Given

Derby Winner Makes Quick Apology, However

Woman Flyer Sued on Old Business Venture

FLORENCE LOWE BARNES

Florence Lowe Barnes, holder of the world's speed record for women flyers and winner of last Sunday's Tom Thumb air derby, is a difficult personage for a process server to find, Deputy Sheriff Staige yesterday reported to his superior, Chief Civil Deputy Jewell.

Once found, however, the process server's difficulties are by no means over, Staige reported further, as he related how the aviatrix made use of a somewhat hefty punch with telling effect.

LANDED PUNCH

Staige, according to Capt. Jewell, was assigned to serve Mrs. Barnes with papers in a civil suit and locating her Sunday afternoon as she landed at a local airport started after her across the field. Catching up with the aviatrix, Staige reported he was about to hand over the papers when he stopped an uppercut to his jaw.

But soon the uppercut was forgotten and Mrs. Barnes was served, Capt. Jewell said, the aviatrix having apologized for the unconventional manner in which she had received service.

CAUSE OF ALL

The suit for which the papers were served by Deputy Staige was one filed in Municipal Court against Mrs. Barnes by G. K. French, an attorney. Mrs. Barnes was sued as owner of Hollywood Topics, Inc., which French asserts owed J. P. McAndrew $474.66; J. G. Vaught, $408.75; Guasti-Giulii, $24.80, and the Mac Printing Company, $40.50 for merchandise purchased prior to June 1, 1927.

French filed the suit as assignee for the four claims nearly a year ago.

WOMAN FILM WRITER BACK IN HOLLYWOOD

Having completely regained her health, Bradley King, scenarist, yesterday returned to Hollywood to resume her writing. Contracting a severe cold several months ago, Miss King had to forego several writing assignments. After being confined to her home for approximately a month she departed on a cruise which took her to San Francisco, Seattle, Canada and other points. Following her return yesterday Miss King made arrangements to lease the Beverly Hills home of Al Rockett, film executive. The latter and his family are in their Malibu Beach home for the summer.

Bunkers of Vessel No Golf Hazard

Peewee Pasture Pool on Pacific

An ingenious departure in miniature golf is a course rigged up on the top deck of the Lassco liner City of Los Angeles by a deck steward who conceived the idea that lifeboats, stanchions, shrouds and other ship paraphernalia offer ideal hazards for the peewee game.

Rubber balls and tennis balls are used and putting is done from atop lifeboats, back of rope lockers, and from anywhere else it's difficult to make an accurate shot.

HEALTH OFFICER TAKES TRIP

Dr. Nadina Kavinoky, in charge of prenatal conference work of the county health department, is scheduled to leave this morning for New York en route to Zurich, Switzerland, to attend the Research Conference of the International Birth Control League to be conducted September 1 to 5, next.

Alms Solicitor Held Under Bond on Fraud Charge

Accused of fraudulently obtaining money from business men under the guise of charity, Howard E. Kellogg was arraigned before Municipal Judge Curtis yesterday on a charge of soliciting alms without a permit. He was released on $100 bail pending trial, set by the court for the 20th inst.

Kellogg was arrested after Tex Parker, auto dealer, called Inspector P. D. Mahaney of the fire department when Kellogg attempted to collect $20 from him by representing that the money was to go to a fireman's fund. Following his arrest Fire Chief Scott issued a warning that donations should not be made to solicitors representing themselves to be from the fire department, unless they have letters signed by the chief engineer of the department and by the secretary of the board of Fire Commissioners.

ABSENT-MINDED SPELL PUTS ATTORNEY IN FIX

Deep in thought over the problem of defending a client charged with possession of a still, Ira Brunk, attorney, yesterday walked into Superior Judge Wilson's court prepared to resume the trial.

But the court was busy hearing ex parte matters and the trial was delayed several minutes. The courtroom was crowded. There were no seats at the attorney's table.

Still engrossed in his problem, Mr. Brunk, absently minded sauntered over to the jury box, where attorneys frequently are permitted to sit if there is no jury present.

With a sigh he settled himself in a cushioned seat, awaiting the disposal of routine matters. From time to time he exchanged comment with a lady seated next to him concerning the appearance of a prisoner in the dock or the crowded condition of the courtroom.

Suddenly Judge Wilson stiffened on the bench and fixed Attorney Brunk with a glare. "Mr. Brunk, what are you doing in the jury box talking to one of the jurors trying your client's case?" he roared.

"Why, I just wandered over here, not thinking," Brunk stammered. "I'd completely forgotten that this was the jury."

"Well, I consider that contempt of court," Judge Wilson said. "I'll dispose of your case when the trial is finished."

Now the attorney has more to worry about.

Brotherhoods of Churches will Conduct Session

Next Sunday will be Church brotherhood and men's bible class day at the Pacific Palisades Assembly. The Bible Class session at 9:30 a.m. in Rustic Glen will be conducted by the Pasadena church brotherhoods. Delegates will be present from all Southern California.

Rev. S. M. Dick, D. D., will speak on "The Personality of Jesus Christ." A. J. Wickland will lead the singing. President A. M. Wilkinson of the State Federated Church Brotherhoods will preside.

The program of "The Interdenominational Conference on the Christian Way of Life" now in session will be turned over by Dr. Oren B. Waite, director of the assembly, to the brotherhoods and church men, Joseph Manson Artman and William Geistweit will be the speakers on the day's program, which begins at 11 a.m.

Weather Report Causes Hawks to Delay Hop

Late weather reports caused Capt. Frank Hawks, transcontinental air-record pilot, last night to postpone for another day his take-off for New York.

If the weather over the Middle West clears up, in accordance with last night's forecasts, Hawks will leave Grand Central Air Terminal, Glendale, at 2 a.m. tomorrow on a three-stop dash to Curtiss Field, Long Island.

His new schedule calls for refuelings at Albuquerque, N. M., Wichita, Kan., and Indianapolis. He believes he can hop from coast to coast in twelve hours.

Although Mrs. Newell Vaughn, Hawks's former wife, has obtained a judgment in a local court for $10,635 against the pilot, he had not been served with a subpoena yesterday and did not appear for a debtor's judgment examination.

Case of Four Reds May Go to Jury Today

The case of four Communists, charged with battery and blocking the sidewalk following their attempt to hold a meeting at the Sons of Herman Hall on March 23, last, is expected to reach the jury in Municipal Judge Stutsman's court today.

With the defense testimony concluded yesterday, Deputy City Prosecutor Hornaday waived opening argument. The defense argument, unfinished yesterday, will be concluded today. After Hornaday has replied the jury will be instructed and sent out.

Those on trial are Frank Spector, Communist agent, and Mrs. Bertha Turch, charged with battery, and Sol Ehrenberg and Joe Turchinsky, accused of blocking the sidewalk. The trial will be followed by that of other Red sympathizers on various charges growing out of their activities in the city.

Fitts Presents Harmony Plea to Policemen

Dist.-Atty. Fitts, accompanied by Chief of Police Steckel, began a tour of the police stations of the city yesterday in furtherance of a plan designed to bring closer co-operation between the rank and file of the police department and the District Attorney's office. Two stations, Georgia street and the University division, were visited yesterday and Fitts made short addresses to the day and night shifts of policemen as they reported in their respective assembly rooms.

The District Attorney asserted it is the desire of his office to "create a spirit of harmony" between his staff and the members of the police department. Chief Steckel also made a short talk to the men at each station. Other stations will be visited by Fitts today.

Justice's Son Files Notice of Intention to Wed

Jesse W. Curtis, Jr., 24 years of age, son of Supreme Court Justice Curtis, and Miss Mildred Frances Mart, 23, of Rialto, filed their intention of marriage at the Courthouse yesterday. The romance between the two began in their high-school days in San Bernardino, where the family of Curtis lived.

Curtis, who is a law student at Harvard, graduated from Redlands University in 1928. The wedding is planned for the 17th inst., according to friends. The couple will go by steamship to Boston on their honeymoon. Curtis will resume his studies at Harvard and the couple will live in Cambridge.

'Kicks' Aimed at New Broadway Project Denied

Only five protests were entered before the City Council yesterday against the paving and improving of the new Broadway between Pico and Forty-first streets, and these were denied, furthering an important project which will open another southerly major traffic artery.

The matter of opening and widening Broadway south from Pico street to where it joins the old Moneta avenue, now Broadway, was recently completed. The new section of the street will be eighty-eight feet wide from Pico to Washington streets, ninety feet wide from Washington to Thirty-ninth streets and 100 feet wide from Thirty-ninth street to Forty-first street.

Former Spouse of Ruth Elder to Wed Again

Lyle Womack, who two years ago divorced his first wife, the aviatrix, Ruth Elder, soon will tread the aisle to the altar with Miss Ella Bisset of Minneapolis. Yesterday he said he hoped to make an announcement of the wedding soon but added that such details as time and place had not been set.

Womack has been manager of the Gay Lion Farm at El Monte for several months and he indicated that after the marriage and honeymoon they will make their home at El Monte.

Once a member of the Byrd Antarctic expedition, Womack was granted a divorce at the Canal Zone.

Ex-Bank Auditor Denies Charges

A plea of not guilty was entered before Federal Judge Cosgrave yesterday by William K. Grundy, former auditor of the Lake-avenue branch of the Pasadena National Bank, to indictments charging defalcation of bank funds. At the time of his arrest on July 9 in Erie, Pa., it was said the shortage in his accounts amounted to $71,000, but the indictments cover asserted thefts of only several thousand dollars.

The case will be set for trial on September 15. Meanwhile Grundy is at liberty under $5000 bail.

W.C.T.U. MEETS THURSDAY

The Los Angeles Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet Thursday at 1:45 p.m. at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Eighth and Hope streets. Among the speakers will be Allie Simmons Wheeler, Ida May Adams, Marion P. Betty and George H. Barnes.

Jennings, pastor Methodist Church, Venice; J. Giampolo, grocer; S. L. Berkley, ex-Mayor of Santa Monica; Rev. Fred Hatch, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, and W. R. Alexander, past president Santa Monica Realty Board.

Capt. Plummer's supporters throughout the bay district include leaders of church organizations, civic bodies, service clubs and women's organizations.

Woman Badly Hurt in Row Over $100

In consequence of an asserted quarrel over $100, Miss June Davis, 40 years of age, of 11659 Ruby street, was in General Hospital last night and R. W. Cole, 39, of 11206 Stanford avenue, is in custody on a charge of attempted murder.

Captain of Detectives Carmen of the Seventy-seventh-street division was told Miss Davis, Cole and two other men went on an automobile ride which ended early yesterday morning at Cole's home. The argument over the $100 occurred there, Cole charging the woman took the money out of his pocket. She denied this. In the argument the woman was so badly beaten hospital authorities feared for a time she would die. It was said last night, however, she probably will recover.

Board Refers Tax Charges

After receiving an amendment to the complaint of Charles J. Husband, lodged against County Assessor Hopkins wherein he asserted the latter failed properly to assess the assets of local branches of three outside brokerage concerns, the Board of Supervisors yesterday referred the matter to the County Bureau of Effeciency.

The original complaint of Husband, formerly employed in the office of the County Assessor, came before the board last week. The Supervisors refused to take any action concerning it after County Counsel Mattoon branded the charges as too indefinite and not specific.

CHIEF STECKEL ORD TO COLLECT OLD B

Collection of police badges now in possession of individuals not connected with the police department and handling of applications for the new issue which will be ready by the 16th inst., was placed in the hands of Chief of Police Steckel by the Police Commission at a special session yesterday. The Chief was designated custodian of the new regular and special police badges.

The Chief was instructed to send communications to all badge holders requesting their return and informing them he will receive applications from those who believe they are entitled to new badges. These applications will be passed on formally by the Police Commission.

The object of the order is to obtain from several thousand civilians the regular badges issued by chiefs of police or others over a period of several years. These badges are reported to number several thousand.

Under the new badge ordinance adopted by the City Council, it will be a misdemeanor for any civilian to possess a police badge without authority of the commission. The order to the Chief also applies to press badges. The ordinance provides for issuance of press badges to bona fide news writers, providing publishers or managing editors make the applications for them to the commission through Chief Steckel.

Another resolution directed Chief Steckel to refund to all police officers the $1 per head collected several months ago for the purchase of the new badges. The total amounts to approximately $2000. The Council appropriated funds for the purchase on the ground that officers should not be required to furnish money for the new issue.

The commission yesterday passed a resolution directing the Chief to enforce its order of six months ago

FRANCIS HUNTER.

RYE (N. Y.) Aug. 11. (AP)—With competition in the women's singles holding the center of play, the eastern grass-court tennis championships progressed as predicted today, the majority of the favorites advancing with little difficulty.

Thirty-six matches in the women's division and six in the men's section were played at the Westchester Country Club.

Scoring an impressive victory over J. Gilbert Hall, South Orange, N. J., Jake Hess, Jr., of Fort Worth, Tex., turned in the only real upset of the day. The young Texan went into the second round, defeating Hall, 7-5, 6-4, 6-4. Hess is a round behind the men's field as are Gregory Mangin, Newark, N. J., and Berkeley Bell of Austin, Tex., Davis Cup alternates. Bell defeated Armand L. Bruneau, 6-0, 6-4, while Mangin took the measure of Dr. Gerald Bartosh of Los Angeles in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4.

TEACHOUT HURLS CHICAGO TO VICTORY OVER BRAVES

Boston Gets but Six Hits Off Southpaw

WALTER BERGER.

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—The Cubs today made a sweep of their four-game series with Boston, 4 to 2, with Bud Teachout, young left-hander, giving the Braves six hits.

The Cubs pecked away at Ben Cantwell for eleven hits, well enough bunched to score the necessary runs.

Wallie Berger got a gift home run in the ninth when Hack Wilson misjudged his long, high fly. Riggs Stephenson, Cub left-fielder, had a perfect day at bat with two doubles and a single in three times up. Woody English chased over two Chicago runs with timely singles.

DE KUH STOPS GORMAN

NEWARK (N. J.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Arthur De Kuh, Italian heavyweight, won a technical knockout over Bud Gorman at Newark Velodrome tonight in the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round bout. Gorman was out on his feet when Referee Danny Sullivan decided the Summit heavyweight had absorbed enough punishment.

Robins Crack as Cards Win Out in Ninth

BUD TEACHOUT

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 11. (AP)—The Brooklyn Robins, cracking in the ninth inning, dropped a dramatic game to the St. Louis Cardinals, 7 to 6, today and fell from the lead in the National League that had been theirs with but two short breaks since early June.

With the game apparently safely stowed away and Hollis Thurston pitching nicely, the Robins took a two-run lead in the ninth, but two errors by Del Bissonette, Brooklyn first baseman, his late throw to third, and three hits, the last a single by Frankie Frisch, up-ended the battle and gave the Cardinals their fourth straight victory of the series. By beating the Boston Braves again, Chicago climbed into the lead by the small margin of one percentage point.

Gilbert's fumble in the second led to Thurston's only bad inning up to the ninth. Bottomley's triple, doubles by Gelbert and Douthit, Johnson's single and a wild pitch gave the Cards four runs. Aided by homers by Frederick and Herman, the Robins pecked at Johnson and Grabowski for an apparent safe lead going into the ninth.

After Hafey and Watkins singled to start the ninth, Bissonette bounced Fisher's roller off Watkins back in attempting a force out at second and two runs scored. Bissonette muffed Gelbert's foul and then threw Gelbert's bunt late to third in another attempted force out. High walked and Phelps came into the box to retire the next two men, but Frisch spanked a single

OUTBOARD SETS RECORD

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 11. (AP)—C. M. Mickler of New Orleans, piloting the outboard motorboat And How III, arrived here at 4:12 p.m. today, setting a new record of 78h. 51m. from New Orleans to St. Louis. This is eight hours and forty minutes better than the time made by Dr. Louis Leroy of Memphis last year in the Bogie.

JUNIOR CHAMPS DUE THURSDAY

Southland Athletes Visit Spanish Main Port

BY JOHN F. NESS
"Times" Staff Representative

JOHN F. NESS.

STEAMSHIP VENEZUELA, Aug. 11. (By Radio)—Southern California's four national Junior Olympic Games champions sailed into the last Spanish Main port of their twenty-eight-day ocean voyage yesterday morning, when they pulled into Mazatlan. Joe Andrade, Johnny Lee, Sam Waxman and Louis Haley stood at the rail of our liner and felt a bit sad at the knowledge that this was the end of the trail of their Latin-American tour, which has been a revelation to the four Los Angeles youngsters.

Andrade, naturally, was the center of attraction once our party got ashore. Little Joe,

BAER KAYOES CHRISTNER

Livermore Heavyweight Finishes Up Akronite in Second Round of Oakland Soiree

OAKLAND (Cal.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Max Baer, Livermore (Cal.) heavyweight, knocked out K. O. Christner, Akron, O., in the second round of a ten-round bout here tonight.

MAX BAER

Baer, making his twenty-fourth fight, astounded ringside critics by his terrific punching. Three times in the first round he dropped the rough and rugged Christner, who had only been knocked out once before in his career, by Primo Carnera.

Each time the Akron giant went down from a left hook to the jaw.

He took nine counts the first two times down and the bell saved him the third time as he sprawled out on the canvas.

Baer rushed out for the second round and started swinging on his bulkier opponent with lefts and rights.

Christner, groggy from the preceding session, swung back wildly, but went down in a heap from a smashing right to the jaw.

It was a terrific punch and the ring shook as Christner landed flat on his back.

The Akron battler who has fought and held his own with most of the top-notchers in the game, including Jack Sharkey, Paulino Uzcudun, Otto Von Porat and others, was unable to match the pace set by the young Livermore butcher boy.

They started leveling punches in

Jay Cohn Wins in Title Play

CULVER (Ind.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Wilmer Hines, Columbus, S. C., seeded second in the junior singles, won his first match in the national junior tennis championships here today, defeating Dick Johnson, Grand Rapids, Mich., 6-1, 6-3. Karl Hamrath, Austin, Tex., seeded No. 1, in the junior draw, will play his initial match tomorrow.

The best tennis of the day was displayed by Billy Doeg, Santa Monica, Cal., young brother of John Doeg, Davis Cup star, who won a tight match from Dick Inglis, Cleveland, 6-4, 7-9, 6-3.

MERCURY TEAM MIGHT COLLECT

Coach, Commissioner Think Trackmen Can Win

The sixteen Los Angeles Athletic Club track and field stars who will compete in the national A. A. U. championships at Pittsburgh, August 22-25, are capable of scoring between thirty and forty-two points in the senior meet, according to club officials.

BOYD COMSTOCK

Commissioner Boyd Comstock and Coach Dean Cromwell both believe that the Mercuries have more than an even chance of winning the team championship. The L.A.A.C. point total depends quite a bit on the strength of the eastern contingents. If the points are split up between teams from the New York Athletic Club, Illinois Athletic Club, Boston A. A. and Olympic Club, the L.A.A.C. can well emerge the victor with its nearly certain total of 35 points.

National championships will be defended by five Mercuries and 22 points out of a possible 25 from these men — Herman Brix, Fred Sturdy, Leo Lermond, Harry Hinkle and Henry Lasallette—seems probable. Brix has never been in better shape and Comstock feels confident that he will not only win, but better the world's shot-put mark of 52ft. 7½in. Hinkle is a certain winner of the three-mile walk, while Sturdy should place no

QUEEN HELEN WILL NOT DEFEND NATIONAL TITLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, six times winner of the national women's championship, said today she would not defend her title this year at Forest Hills. Entries close tomorrow, but Mrs. Moody said tonight she would not compete.

Mrs. Moody said, although she still has a keen desire to engage in competitive tennis, she wishes to remain in San Francisco with her husband and relatives after many months of travel.

"I have been away from home so long it simply wouldn't be right to go away again so soon," she added.

Benny Miller Faces Toughest Test of Ring Career in Go Tonight With Sammy

WELTERWEIGHTS IN LIMELIGHT

Brooklyn-Avenue Youngster Slight Favorite

Negro Has Advanced Fast in Last Six Months

Ernie Hood, Young Sport in Semi-Wind-up Event

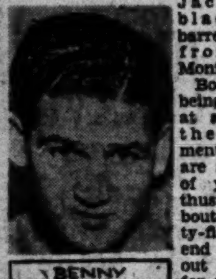
BY KAY OWE

Benny Miller, Jewish skyrocket, has the fight of his life on his hands tonight. He meets Sammy Jackson, the black double-barrel shotgun from Santa Monica.



BENNY MILLER

Both boys are being cut loose at a period in their development when they are at the peak of youth's enthusiasm. The bout has a fifty-fifty break to end in a knockout and a kayo for either would be a rude setback.

The wise money—so-called—establishes Miller as the choice, which is more bolstered by hope than figures.

The records of the two boys are practically a stand-off with both rattling off knockouts in many of their recent fights. Jackson has three steaming kayoes in a string to his credit while Miller scored a technical knockout the last time he took off the bathrobe.

INTERESTING MATCH

There has been no mixed match between a white and a black prospect with the interest of this one since Mushy Callahan tried and failed to whip Baby Joe Gans back in 1926.

The stage is practically set for the same kind of a battle. Gans, like Jackson, had built up his name at the smaller clubs, while Callahan then and Miller now are big club attractions.

Gans fought for a small end of the purse just as Jackson is doing tonight. Callahan would'nt have taken Gans and Miller wouldn't be fighting Jackson if the money stakes hadn't been high.

There are those who predict Miller will win a championship just as Callahan and Jackie Fields did within a year if he can get by the flashy negro tonight.

Jackson has had no build-ups in his career of two years and hasn't asked for any. If he can prove his caliber before a big arena audience he is willing to fight Young Corbett—considered the bad man of the welter ranks to hurdle.

Miller may not be seeking a scrap with the southpaw, Corbett, but covers plenty of ground when he offers to meet Black Jack Thompson, welterweight champion, and Billy Townsend, the hard-hitting Canadian.

The 21-year-old Jewish pride of Boyle Heights has improved probably 100 per cent since the night in 1929 when Larry Murphy, a wild-pitching Irishman from Oakland, broke his jaw. Jackson had better luck with Murphy, knocking him out in five rounds.

Jackson traveled back to Chicago last spring where Larry Johnson, Negro light-heavyweight star, became his instructor. Johnson taught Jackson the trick of knocking out his opponents instead of staying ten rounds.

In three recent starts Jackson stopped Omar Wright, Charley Cobb and Young Harry Wills. Black Sammy knocked out Wills on the night of his birthday when he was 20 years of age.

Many believe that overeagerness beat Callahan when he fought Gans after nearly scoring a knockout in the second round. Miller takes himself seriously and will be satisfied tonight with nothing but a knockout.

Miller's best win was over the hard-hitting Babe Anderson, whom he almost knocked over the top ropes of the ring at Hollywood. Anderson was turned down by Thompson as an opponent and Anderson has the clippings to show he came close to stopping the highly touted Corbett. These facts greatly magnified Benny's win in spite of the fact Anderson managed to stay the ten rounds.

HOOD FACES SPORT

Young Sport and Ernie Hood, stars of the Pasadena fight game, figure to draw heavily from the Crown City area tonight in the six-round semi-wind-up to Miller and Jackson.

Hood is the hardest hitting 112-pounder in the country while Sport is another Mexican flash like Baby Sal Sorio.

Chalky Wright, another Pasadena favorite, boxes Sid Torres in the special event. Torres, a Filipino, is a good puncher as well as a boxer. Wright is a finely chiseled Negro and is known as the "Kid Chocolate of the west."

Pete Darcy and Gene Mullen box one four. Leo Lomeli and Pete Murray open the show.

Jackson is expected to weigh 148 pounds and Miller a couple of pounds more. The match is made at 152.

ADAMS WINS TOURNEY

LAKE ARROWHEAD, Aug. 11.—Dr. C. A. Adams of the San Bernardino Valley Country Club led a large field in the blind-bogey staged over the Lake Arrowhead course yesterday, finishing with a 74. Bill Jenkins, Midwick Country Club, Los Angeles, was second with a 75, and W. E. Leonard, unattached, of Los Angeles, had a 76 for third honors. Mrs. A. E. D. Trabue and L. M. Willis won the four-ball mixed foursome, with a 202-13-189.

JOE DUNDEE HELD EVEN

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Aug. 11. (AP) Joe Dundee, 150½, Baltimore, former welterweight champion, fought ten rounds to a draw with Jack (Buck) Motiernan, 153 1-4, of Swissvale, Pa., here tonight.

FATE AIDING ELMER BOESEKE

Second Injury to Hopping May Result in Coast Ace Being Named for International Polo Matches; Orv Mohler Seeks to Put on Weight

BY BRAVEN DYER

FATE seems to be taking a hand in determining the line-up of the United States polo team for the coming international matches with Great Britain. Just when it appeared that E. A. S. Hopping would be installed at No. 2 position over Elmer Boeseke, star Pacific Coast rider, Hopping takes another spill which may keep him inactive for some time.

ELMER BOESEKE

ORV MOHLER

Despite the fact that there will be no definite announcement as to the personnel of the team until the night before the opening contest on September 6 it is a foregone conclusion that Eric Pedley, Capt. Tommy Hitchcock and Winston Guest have their berths clinched. The flashy Pedley, now called polo's first point-a-minute star because of his sensational goal scoring, will be at No. 1, with Hitchcock at No. 3 and Guest at back.

Pedley is playing better polo this year for two reasons. He spent more time training at Midwick during the early summer, riding on the practice field day after day with Boeseke. Secondly, Eric did not run his good ponies to death in games out here. He saved them for the eastern contests and as a result is better mounted than ever before. He is riding the string of ponies owned by C. W. Wrightsman of Midwick.

Not that I wish Hopping any tough luck, but there are plenty of smart polo critics who believe that his absence, bringing as it will Boeseke into action, will actually be a good break for America's polo hopes. It is hard to conceive of any team being weakened by the addition of long-legged Elmer, who rides his ponies as an overgrown youngster would straddle a tricycle. And on the Sunday when Boeseke rode with Pedley, Hitchcock and Guest, Eric scored eleven goals, his high total for the tryouts.

Teamwork is the keynote to all success in polo and it behooves Hitchcock to get his combination working together steadily from now until the competition opens. If Hopping is back in there next Sunday it probably means that Boeseke is definitely shelved, but if the former's injuries keep him inactive Elmer will get the nomination and should then be kept in there for the international matches.

Superior teamwork gave Santa Barbara a comparatively easy victory over the Uplifters down in Santa Monica Canyon last Sunday. The Uplifters, for some unknown reason, experimented with a new line-up and naturally took a beating. Lionel Pedley, brother of Eric, went in at No. 1 when he belongs at No. 3 or back. As a matter of fact the strongest Uplifter team would not include Pedley. It should have Will Rogers, Sr., and T. Lyell Puckett in the front positions with Snowy Baker at No. 2 and Clair Brunson as back. This combination, if given an opportunity to work together, can defeat Santa Barbara.

Bumped into Orv Mohler, Trojan football prospect, as the young man was energetically engaged in wooing the Goddess of Terpsichore on the floor of Lake Arrowhead's famous casino. Orv, if he comes through as most critics expect, will alternate with Marshall Duffield at quarterback for Howard Jones this fall. "Duffy," by the way, is getting fat.

Mohler spent the early part of the summer flying for the Western Air Express. Found out that was pretty tough on a young athlete's nerves so quit. Went to work packing meat for the Cudahy Company, figuring to build up his muscles. Discovered that it would do that all right, but lost weight so rapidly that another change became necessary. Orv fell away from 175 to 163 and then beat it for Lake Arrowhead to golf, swim and loaf with the hope of putting on some extra poundage. Hopes to weight 175 stripped when September 15 rolls around.

"The Alhambra Assassin," as Mohler was dubbed while playing for Alhambra High, entered Southern California as the most highly publicized football athlete ever to find his way to Troy's halls of learning. Varsity competition is pretty stiff going, but Mohler has the stuff to make good. His dad, the famous Kid Mohler, played baseball for San Francisco more than twenty years ago.

Incidentally, that yarn about Howard Jones taking Mohler to Chicago last year to study up on Notre Dame stuff is slightly off color. The university couldn't play favorite by paying a freshman's expenses on such a jaunt. What happened was that one of Mohler's friends, a Trojan alumnus, gave him the trip. Naturally, Jones is not sorry that Orv saw Knute Rockne's Ramblers in action.

Now that the Cubs have regained first place from Brooklyn Bill Wrigley's boys are likely to set a fast pace. The series between the two clubs, starting in Chicago today, will go a long ways toward settling the race. The Cubs have already won eleven out of fifteen from the Dodgers this year and the present four-game struggle should provide plenty of fireworks. There is one more series after this between the foes, billed for September 9, 10 and 11 in Flatbush. Personally, the Giants look more dangerous than the Robins.

who hails from Calexico, is the first Spanish-American boy ever to win national athletic honors, and wherever he goes the people are immensely proud of him.

Edwin Schoenrich, American Consul, and other government officials were among those on hand to welcome our contingent yesterday. They were enthusiastic in their praises of what Andrade and the others had accomplished at Atlantic City.

Schoenrich is a staunch booster for the proposed Southern California-Latin American juvenile pentathlon and says this type of competition between young boys will lead to a better understanding between the United States and Latin-American counties.

Due to the fact that yesterday was Sunday, there was no competition between our boys and youngsters of Mazatlan. The four champions spent the day sightseeing and were busy taking snapshots and writing postcards.

Just before our departure last night we received messages from Guatemala City, San Jose and Champerico praising the good will program as sponsored by The Los Angeles Times.

Present plans call for us to land at Los Angeles Harbor around 7:30 o'clock Thursday morning, thus bringing to an end a glorious twenty-eight day voyage which has not only been an entertaining one to all, but also an event of great educational benefit.

Twenty-two points from the above five athletes leaves eleven men still to be heard from. Of these DeMers figures to place first or second in the javelin; Dick Pomeroy, second in the 440-yard hurdles; Vic Williams, a place in the 440-yard dash; Hec Dyer, a place in the 220-yard dash; Bob Maxwell, a place in the 220-yard hurdles; Bob Patton and Dick Barber, places in the hop, step and broad jump, respectively, and Alma Richards a place in the fifty-six-pound weight throw.

The athletes leave Los Angeles next Sunday, August 17, at 6:05 p.m. on the Los Angeles Limited. Cromwell will accompany the men.

This year's matches begin August 18 at Forest Hills, N. Y.

MOLLA MALLORY ALSO OFF NET LIST

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—The name of that great campaigner, Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, is missing from the list of entrants for the national women's tennis championship for the first time since she rose to fame fifteen years ago.

The one-time queen of the courts was seized with a serious illness early in the year and has not yet recovered sufficiently to take up her racquet.

In this year's tournament beginning next Monday at Forest Hills, younger players will compete for the title won eight times by the indomitable Norsewoman.

Because of ill health Miss Helen Jacobs, No. 2 in the list, will not compete.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—Joe B. Tinker, shortstop of the famous Tinker to Evers to Chance infield combination of the Chicago Cubs twenty years ago has been appointed manager of the Jersey City club in the International League, George Perry, new contact man of the New York Yankees, announced today.

GOSLIN STARS

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—The Yankee winning streak of six straight was shattered today by Rip Collins and George Blaeholder, who pitched the Browns to a 10-to-5 victory in the final St. Louis appearance of the season at the stadium. While the Yanks were struggling to get five hits, the Browns clouted twelve, four of them homers. Goose Goslin got a pair, Blue and O'Rourke one apiece.

Goslin got a double and single in addition to the pair of four-baggers and drove in half the Browns' runs. Goslin hit his first homer off Roy Sherid, Yankee starting pitcher, and the second off Ownie Carroll, who replaced McEvoy in the seventh, with two aboard the bases in the eighth. McEvoy replaced Sherid in the fifth. Score:

WASHINGTON WINS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—The Senators made it three out of five today in their series with Cleveland, winning, 9 to 2, behind the steady pitching of Alvin Crowder.

Loose play on the part of Cleveland aided in much of the Nats' scoring. With the bases loaded in the home fourth, Hodapp threw wildly to first, letting in two runs. Morgan then uncorked a wild peg to third in an effort to catch Cronin, who had moved up from first, and he also scored. A wild pitch by Harder also figured in the scoring of a fourth run in the same inning.

Morgan made up for his error by crashing a home run high into the center-field stands a few minutes later, while Hodapp was the only member of the Tribe to make more than one hit. Crowder, however, was never in serious danger, although loading the bases once, largely through temporary wildness.

SOX COLLECT

BOSTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—The Red Sox won the last of their four-game series with the Detroit Tigers here, today, 5 to 1, thereby splitting even on the series. Danny MacFayden held the Tigers to three hits, two of them by Paul Easterling. The visitors' only run was forced in by MacFayden's wildness in the fourth.

Webb made a peculiar homer in the third on a long drive to deep center. Center-fielder Funk ran in toward second base when the ball was hit and it passed far over his head. Webb had circled the bases before Funk could retrieve it. It should have been an easy out. The score:

Ducks Drop Utility Man

PORTLAND (Or.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Frank Mellana, utility infielder of the Portland Beavers, was given his unconditional release by President Turner today. Mellana went south with the team and will stop at his home in Oakland. Mellana is a brother of Joe Mellana, regular Oakland second baseman.

BUCS BEAR DOWN

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 11. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates halted a losing streak that had reached five straight today by turning on the New York Giants to win, 8 to 5.

Larry French, knocked out of the box in the first game of the series, came back to hurl fine ball for the Pirates, except in the sixth, when Bill Terry nicked him for a home run with two on. French aided his own cause with three hits, one a double, and figured prominently in the rallies.

Errors by Lindstrom aided the Pirates, who got only nine hits off Mitchell, Chaplin and Pruett, saving them for the pinches. Adam Comorosky hit a home run in the first. The score:

REDS RAMPANT

CINCINNATI, Aug. 11. (AP)—Ray Kolp held Philadelphia to six hits today and won a 4-to-2 pitchers' battle from Ray Benge. The Phillies did not secure a hit until the sixth. After scoring a run in the first, the Reds sewed up the game in the third, scoring twice on doubles by Callaghan and Stripp, Cuccinello's sacrifice which put Stripp on third and a double steal by Stripp and Heilmann, who had walked.

Hess Seeking Singer Clash

Goldie Hess, through his manager, wired a proposition yesterday to Al Singer, lightweight champion, for an over-the-weight match here this fall. Hess has an idea Singer might show out here as things fistically are not so hot in the East at the present time. The Hess camp is confident that Goldie will take Hector McDonald Friday night at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium.

Tom Gallery completed the Legion program yesterday. Sammy Offerman battles Eddie Thomas in the semi-wind-up over the six-round route. They are 135-pounders. Augie Curtis and Santo Manna, two flyweights, clash in the special event. Augie is a brother of Carlo Curtis, the Main-street fight promoter. He believes in making his money winning matches instead of promoting them.

Leo Domongo and Russell Beach clash in a four-rounder as do Young Ralph and Johnny Grane.

ARIZONA LEGION NINE OFF FOR TITLE GAMES

Stance Factor in Good Drive

INCORRECT LINE—RIGHT SHOULDER TOO LOW—GIVES THIS ARC TO SWING

BY SOL METZGER

Many people try to play golf with an odd stance. The result is not happy for them. They continually hit the ground behind the ball. Often good drives result from sclaffing as the ball is topped and rolls for surprising distances.

More often the effort is a bungle, especially if one is trying to play a pitch. Then the lofted face of the club just can't get under the ball to lift it.

The trouble is due to getting the right shoulder too low at address, as the golfer in the picture is doing. You never see Glenna Collett do it. When anyone does the arc of the swing, which has its center in the left shoulder joint, is as shown in the sketch. You're bound to hit the ground behind the ball. If you do a lot of sclaffing look to this as a cause, as "Long Jim" Barnes has so often pointed out.

Putting is half the game. Good putters score low. Sol Metzger has prepared an illustrated leaflet on "The Art of Putting" which he will gladly send any reader free of charge. Address Sol Metzger in care of The Times and inclose self-addressed, stamped envelope.

SHEIKS TACKLE TRIBE TONIGHT

right-fielder, also looked far from impressive last week and unless he hustles a bit more in the field he's liable to keep company with Carlyle on the bench. It wasn't hard to tell that Barbee was letting Hill take most of the drives in between them. Dave also looked bad on handling ground balls, on one occasion letting Earl Sheely, who could make a turtle look nimble-footed, go from first to third on a single.

With Carlyle out Hill has been shifted to center and Harry Green moved to left field. If Barbee is benched it means that Willyum Rumler will be seen in right field.

The way the Sheiks performed last week they'll win no second-half honors and Vitt hopes to get them started winning again at the expense of Ernie Johnson's Tribe. The Indians were playing good ball until they struck Portland last week just after the Ducks came out of a ten-game losing streak and decided to win seven in a row before dropping the second game Sunday. The Tribe has a staff of veteran hurlers who are tough to beat and should give the Sheiks a lot of trouble. If the Indians had a bit more punch they'd be first-division timber.

RECORD ATTENDANCE

Night baseball stock took another big jump last week when 57,558 fans, 36,072 of whom paid to get in, saw the Seals and Stars perform. The paid attendance topped Hollywood's previous best week by 6000, and night baseball, plus the fact that women were admitted free to four of the night contests, gets the credit for the record turnout.

Although Seattle is not the attraction the Seals are, more good crowds are expected this week. The Tuesday and Saturday attendances should hold up because women will be admitted free. To bolster the Sunday attendance, Bill Lane has a surprise in store for some lucky fan.

Jack Lelivelt's Angels, who look as though they're going to win the second half race as well as the first half or else come awfully close, took five out of seven from the Missions last week and today they move over to Sacramento to try their luck against the Solons under the kliegs. The Sacs took five out of seven at Oakland last week, so the Angel-Solon series should provide a lot of excitement.

Other series starting today find the Seals and Ducks tangling at San Francisco, and the Missions and Oaks clashing under the Oakland lights.

With Oscar Vitt supervising the job, electricians were busy at Wrigley Field last night adding new lights to the system and readjusting the lights already installed. Infielders have claimed that the lights in the lower box seats hinder them in taking thrown balls. These kliegs will all be covered so that their rays will on shoot up in the air.

Rumors have it that Pete Daglia, husky Oakland right-hander, is to join the New York Yankees immediately in exchange for Owen Carroll, young southpaw graduate of Holy Cross. Carroll, who joined the Detroit Tigers out of college last year, and this season was traded to the Yanks, has trouble winning in the big show, and believes minor-league experience will do him a world of good.

Browns Look Over Players

OAKLAND, Aug. 11. (AP)—William E. Friel, head scout for the St. Louis Browns of the American League, arrived here today to look over Johnny Vergez, third baseman, and "Buzz" Arlett, heavy-hitting right fielder of the Oakland team. Manager Carl Zamloch of the Oaks said the big league club had been interested in the two players for some time, although no negotiations have been started.

in a mild upset. The score was 6-2, 6-3. Burwell gained the third round with a hard-fought victory over Phil Neer of Portland, Or., 4-6, 6-1, 6-3. William Tilden, the national champion and eastern courts defending title-holder, is idle until Wednesday when he meets Julius Seligson of New York in the third round. Later he will pair with Hunter as the No. 1 seeded team in t' e doubles.

Play in the women's singles today filled seven of the third-round brackets with Miss Mary Greef, Kansas City and Los Angeles; Mrs. J. D. Corbiere, East Stamford, Ct.; Miss Catherine Wolf, Chicago; Miss Alice Francis, Orange, N. J.; Miss Mercedes Marlowe, Los Angeles, and two New Yorkers—Mrs. T. D. M. Johnson and Miss Clara Greenspan—ahead of the field. All but Mrs. Johnston and Miss Marlowe played two matches today.

Five of the other seeded played remaining in the running, while the remaining three, Miss Betty Nuthall of England, Miss Josephine Cruickshank, Santa Ana, Cal., and Miss Virginia Hilleary of Philadelphia withdrew.

The five seeded players to advance were Miss Edith Cross, San Francisco, placed No. 2 in the draw; Miss Ethel Burkhardt, also of San Francisco; Miss Marjorie Gladman, Santa Monica, Cal.; Miss Virginia Rice of Boston and Miss Greef.

The only upset in the women's play saw the elimination of Mrs. Mary J. Lamme, leading eastern player, by Baroness Levie of Italy, (the former Maude Rosenbaum of Chicago.) The straight-set victory, 8-6, 6-3, placed the Baroness in the second round.

THOMPSON SIGNS FOR TOMMY FREEMAN GO

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Young Jack Thompson, world's welterweight champion, will engage in the first defense of his title against Tommy Freeman, Cleveland challenger, in Cleveland either September 4 or 5, Ray Alvis, the titleholder's manager, said today. The match will be fourteen rounds to a decision and will be staged at night in the Cleveland baseball park. Freeman holds a decision over the champion, the two having fought in Detroit last winter before Thompson dethroned Jackie Fields. Alvis said he would sign for the match in Cleveland. The champion will receive a guarantee of $37,500.

The Pennant Pole Dance

CHICAGO and Brooklyn today start the main number of their pennant-pole dance. The orchestra will be under the double direction of your Uncle Wilbert Robinson and Joe McCarthy, where each one has the chance to make the other step to the funeral march.

In this four-game meeting either team could deal a deadly thrust by a series clean-up and either could insert a lot of poison by taking three out of four. In case of an even break, John McGraw and his Giants will be heard giving three rousing cheers for they are right in the middle of the circus.

This week will be one of the warmest spots of the big three-club race, one of the best the National League or any other league has known in years. If the Cubs had the seating space they could entertain from 70,000 to 100,000 a day against the Dodgers, for this will be one of the most interesting shows of the entire summer, no matter what the sport.

The Giants have been coming on like the wind and surf for some weeks and there are many Cub supporters who fear the spectacular but erratic Dodgers.

The Cubs ran into a flock of sour pitching a few days back, but the staff seems to have settled down again and this means that Vance, Elliott, Clark, Luque, Thurston and other Dodger pitchers can afford no sinking spells.

Who Wins a Fight?

There are several points that baffle the average fight follower when a decision is given — much after the manner of the recent Berg-Chocolate hullabaloo. The fight fan is first baffled when the fighter he thought to be well ahead is declared the loser. He still is more baffled when he discovers that the judge and the referee who made the rule disagree on many of the rounds, arriving at the same conclusion over widely separated trails.

They both might name A as the winner, but in doing so they rarely agree on the rounds that A and B won or lost. If this doesn't make the entire matter a guessing contest there is no such thing as a guessing contest.

In the Sharkey-Dempsey fight, the three officials hardly agreed on any round after the first.

If two fight officials agree that A won seven rounds and that B won three, one might think they were using the same system of scoring. But when it is discovered that the officials have given A and B different rounds, being in almost complete disagreement, it seems to be about time that some standard method of scoring was adopted or some officials were picked who could eliminate about 50 per cent of the guessing that takes place.

If wind-milling, that scrapes elbows and shoulders, counts for points, it is bound to conflict with those who score only clean punches that reach head or body with something resembling a slight impact.

The average fight decision means so little today that it might as well be thrown into the ash can and left there.

What with Young Stribling returning home to Macon from the wars, with young Bryan Grant stepping around on various tennis courts, and with Bobby Jones waiting for the Merion campaign, the State of Georgia can see no present sign of drought in her sporting crop.

This game of tennis lately is getting to be more like golf. What you do one week seems to have nothing to do with next week. Golf has always been that way—until a fellow named Jones blew along. He seems to have introduced a new system.

The Polo Pick

It may be that Pedley, Hopping, Hitchcock and Guest are to be named as the big four. If they are it would be hard to find a stronger combination. If any one of these is left off there are two or three others who can fit in with practically as much stuff to show.

There may have been stronger teams in the past when Milburn was at his best, but there has never been so much talent distributed between California and Long Island, taking up Texas on the way. And Texas is something to take up.

BAER FINISHES UP CHRISTNER

the first round with Baer seemingly having an advantage in the opening exchange. Baer, one of the hardest punchers developed here in many years, found the range and suddenly whipped over a left that sprawled his more-experienced opponent on the floor.

Christner staggered to his feet and exchanged punches, but shortly after collapsed from a terrific clout to the jaw.

The third time he went down seemed the last, but the bell saved him as he was on the floor.

Christner weighed 200 pounds and Baer 193 1-2.

Despite Christner's somewhat impressive record he was a short-ender in the betting tonight. The gate receipts were the largest here in some time, and ran around $20,000.

MEXICAN RING TITLE AT STAKE SATURDAY

The Mexican welterweight championship will be at stake at the Main-street club Saturday night, when Pete Pacheco of Denver battles Tommy Elks of Arizona in the six-round main event. Elks won the title several months ago when he defeated Dave Velasco in a bout at Mexico City. Both Pacheco and Elks are popular at Main street. Both have been consistent winners. Pacheco has won his last five starts, three by knockouts.

Joe Borola, the best of the Mexican lightweights, will box Johnny Chrismas in a second six-rounder. A third six-rounder will send Joe Schlocker against Happy Romero. They are 147-pounders.

THISBE WINS FIRST CANADIAN CUP RACE

ROCHESTER (N. Y.) Aug. 11. (AP)—The American yacht Thisbe won the first race in the Canada's Cup series today, defeating the Quest of Toronto by forty seconds over an eighteen-mile course.

Thisbe has two more races to win before she can retain for her own the historic Canada's Cup, in competition for the first time in twenty-three years.

FOUTS LEADS IN CUE MATCH

Robert Fouts led D. H. Goslin in the championship billiard tournament for the State title which is being staged at Steven's Billiard Academy by a score of 250 to 220 last night. Fouts is the present State champion at 18.2 balkline style. Play will be continued tonight.

AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

NEW SHIPS WILL SHOW ADVANCES

Panama Mail Plans Radical Construction Changes

Capt. Gleason Gives Details of Projected Vessels

Nautical School Craft Slated to Arrive Thursday

BY WALDO DRAKE

Panama Mail Line's four new intercoastal express liners, will be a great advance in both hull design and marine engineering practice, it was declared yesterday by Capt. Henry M. Gleason, construction manager for W. R. Grace & Co. of which Panama Mail is a subsidiary. Capt. Gleason was here from New York yesterday to inspect the San Pedro yards of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Drydock Corporation, as a possible location for construction of the four liners. He was the guest of George Armes, president of the shipbuilding concern.

The new ships will have a top sea speed of nineteen knots, said Gleason, and are to be powered with a new-type turbo-electric power plant delivering 12,000 horsepower. In each ship there will be six water tube boilers delivering steam at a 400-pound pressure, plus 250 degrees of superheat, to the turbo-generators, which will in turn deliver electric energy to the twin electric motors actually driving the vessel. The new steam plants promise to be the most efficient marine boiler units ever built.

The four sister-ships, expected to be built at a cost of $4,000,000 each, will be 508 feet long, with a beam of seventy feet and a draft of twenty-five feet. They will displace 15,600 tons each and in addition to 201 first-cabin passengers and sixty-six passengers in steerage will carry 7000 tons refrigerated and regularly stowed freight.

"A point of paramount importance in the construction of these four liners," said Capt. Gleason, "is the fact they will be the first vessels built according to the recommendations of the International Convention for Safety of Life at Sea. In fact, they will double the safety requirements of the international convention, for where it recommends that a ship may retain stability with one of its watertight compartments flooded, our new intercoastal liners will retain stability with two of their nine watertight compartments fully flooded. Every possible feature to insure safety of passengers and crew has been provided for."

Gleason announced that bids for construction of the four liners will be opened at the New York offices of W. R. Grace & Co. on September 2, next, and that a contract will be awarded immediately thereafter.

S. S. HENRY COUNTY NEARING DESTINATION

The steamer Henry County is due from Norfolk Thursday, en route to San Francisco, where she will be renamed the California State and become the school ship for the State's new nautical school. She has been turned over by the Shipping Board to the Navy and by the latter, in turn, to the State. Commander Benjamin G. McCandlish of the U.S.S. Maryland is bringing her out, with Lieutenant Commander Emile Topp, U.S.N., as second in command. The steamer will stop at San Diego and here at Berth 57, discharging naval stores and thirty-two autos before proceeding north. As a school ship she is expected to share her time between all principal California ports.

Sixty-eight commercial ships were in port at noon yesterday, the largest number at any one time this year, according to the Marine Exchange. All except six or eight, mostly schooners, are in active service. The average number in port ranges around forty.

The Coast Guard's celebration of its one hundred and fortieth anniversary, delayed locally from last week because of pressing activities, was observed yesterday at Section Base 17, in the outer harbor. The day was given over to rowing and sailing races, track events, boxing and baseball, followed by a smoker at the station last night.

Lambrie & Mabry, naval architects, will open bids at noon today at their Wilmington offices on the proposed construction of two oil-carrying craft for the Rio Grande Oil Company. One is to be a 180-foot tanker, the other a 150-foot bunkering barge.

Despite Australia's new tariff, which July 1, last, imposed a duty of 7 cents a gallon on cased petroleum products, Matson Navigation Company will send 1700 tons of that product to the Antipodes September 1, next, on the O. & O. steamer Golden Harvest. That is half of normal and exceeds expectations by far, according to J. B. Banning, Jr., Matson's district manager. He says Australia will add another 3 cents duty November 1, but deems the trade so essential to Australian consumers it will continue, although a 25 to 100 per cent duty on electric and certain other products will prohibit them.

Lassco Line's freight and passenger steamer Diamond Head arrived yesterday from Hawaii with fourteen passengers and 4000 tons of freight, of which 2200 were molasses. She will sail Saturday with passengers and freight on her return to Hawaii.

Stuart Haldron's racing yacht Ayayay and Al Christie's Lanai were shipped to San Francisco yesterday on the American-Hawaiian steamer Montanan. They participated in the regatta at Newport Beach last week.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11. (AP)—The liner Wilhelmina, which has been operating in the Seattle-to-Honolulu service of the Matson Line, is to replace the Malolo temporarily in the San Francisco-Honolulu service, company officials announced here today.

The Malolo is to sail shortly on a round-the-Pacific cruise.

The Wilhelmina will sail from here on her first voyage in September. The Malolo is to be out of the service approximately ninety days.

SEATTLE, Aug. 11.—Bound for lonely islands lying between the Bering Sea and the Pacific with supplies for fox farms there, the Aleutian Native, owned by the Kanaga Ranching Company, sailed from here today.

The company owns leases on Umnak, Atka, Kanaga and Amchitka Islands, and last year brought out $250,000 worth of furs.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha Line announced here today that with the sailing of the Hikawa Maru from here the 20th inst., the new ships in the service will make Vancouver their last port of call westbound instead of Victoria. Agents say the speed of the ships makes possible the longer run to Vancouver, where the majority of the Canadian business for the line originates.

PORTLAND (Or.) Aug. 11.—Ten units of automatic coal burners will be shipped from Portland to Japan this week and four large industrial units will go to New Zealand.

The shipment to Japan, aboard the steamer Michigan which is to leave here Friday, includes both household and industrial units. The steamer Golden Cloud will take the burners to New Zealand. The manufacturers believe Japan will become an important market for heating plants.

TACOMA (Wash.) Aug. 11.—One of the largest cargoes of flour, 100,000 sacks, was loaded aboard the K.K.K. liner Victoria Maru here today. The flour is consigned to Japan and China.

A record cargo of Tacoma products will be loaded Tuesday by the Furness liner Pacific Shipper which will return here from Olympia. The vessel is to take 25,000 doors, 800,000 feet of lumber, 560 tons of copper, fifty tons of plywood, and 3000 cases of canned goods for the United Kingdom.

EADES, FERNANDEZ TO TANGLE AT PASADENA

When he faces Ignacio Fernandez at Pasadena Arena Thursday night, Dud Eades gets one of the greatest chances that ever came to a "home-town boxer." If Eades, just back home from an eastern invasion and reported improved even over his previous good form, can get by Fernandez he will become a great Southern California card.

Another great Filipino scrapper, Pete Sarmiento, will also be on the arena card, fighting Johnny Rogers in the six-round semifinal. Billy Papke, Jr., son of the only and only Billy and not to be confused with the "Young Papke" who has been fighting in the small clubs, will be seen in the four-round special event against Pat Yanco.

POSTPONE VETERANS' TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The veterans' tennis tournament, planned for this week at the Los Angeles Tennis Club, has been postponed until May of next year, when it will be held in conjunction with the Southern California championships, it was announced yesterday by Ed Berry. Most of the eligibles were out of town on vacations, cutting down the number of contestants, Berry said.

ROSENBLOOM, BROWN BOUT CALLED OFF

PORTLAND (Or.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Promoter Ralph Gruman was trying today to secure Fred Lenhardt, Spokane light-heavyweight, for a ten-round match here August 27, while Maxie Rosenbloom, New York light heavyweight titleholder. Rosenbloom has signed for the bout.

The proposed contest between Rosenbloom and Nate Brown at Spokane next Thursday has been canceled, according to Frank E. Bachman, Rosenbloom's manager. The champion still is in Los Angeles.

CALO-MARCUS DRAW

PORTLAND (Or.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Matt Calo, 134, San Francisco, and Joe Marcus, 136, Portland, fought ten rounds to a draw in the feature bout of a double main event fight card here tonight.

EDWARDS IN DRAW BOUT

TOLEDO (O.) Aug. 11. (AP)—Johnny Edwards, Columbus bantamweight, and Ollie Bartlett, Detroit, battled four rounds to a draw before 22,000 persons here tonight.

5½%—Money—6%
INSURANCE FUNDS
Money is now available as in the past several years for attractive loans in acceptable locations on real estate in Los Angeles and immediate vicinity.
Our supply is from the East where accumulations in large quantities are always seeking investment and at lower rates than can be had in the West, where so much money is needed for development.
A 6% loan after commission is added means only 6 3-5% to the borrower over a five-year period.

St. Louis Flyers Expect to Regain Endurance Crown from Hunter Brothers

Jackson and O'Brine Assert They will Remain in Air at St. Louis 1000 Hours

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13 (Wednesday) —Dale (Red) Jackson and For- O'Brine expect to be recrowned ings of the endurance flyers today, they don't intend to return to rth for the ceremonies—not for other two or three weeks, any- ay.

Their immediate goal, that of throning Kenneth and John unter, the Illinois farm boys who a 554-hour record at Chicago month, is just over the hor- . They had been up 547 hours 2:11 a.m. (central standard time) day. If their monoplane Greater Louis is still droning over Lam- -St. Louis Field at 8:52 a.m. will equal the Hunter brothers' rk, and an hour later the new cord will be chalked up.

When and if the record is broken, re will be a demonstration on field below and the endurance probably will do a little vorting in the air as part of the lebration, but the flyers then ex- t to point their rugged ship to- rd a 1000-hour record, or about weeks of sustained flight.

MOTOR DOING WELL

Jackson said Tuesday he has his ind on that mark now" if the otor lasts. It was leisurely and oothly slashing its way through hours toward the new record night with no signs of weakness. The determined Jackson-O'Brine m flew to fame last year in the Louis Robin, the same type of ane being used this year. Their Louis Robin mark of 420 hours s almost double the previous rec- and was regarded as epochal at at time.

They came down only upon in- structions from the airplane manu- facturing company that sponsored flight.

If Jackson and O'Brine set a new cord they will be the first refuel- endurance flyers to regain the stained flight record after having it.

FUNDS WAVER

Depending upon public subscrip- for funds, the flyers have at es nearly faced a deficit. Only week O'Brine ordered one of his automobiles sold to obtain ney to keep the plane aloft.

But with a new record in sight ancial reward also has appeared the offing. An oil company has d to pay the flyers $100 an our for the first seventy hours ter breaking the record, and oth- donations are coming in.

The Hunter brothers landed July at Chicago after setting their 554-hour mark, and O'Brine and Jackson took off July 21 to regain record. The Hunter brothers ill have reigned as champions about six weeks if their rec- falls.
